

Sammin' Sam Snead Three Shots Off The Pace in S. F. Tournament

from MIDFIELD By PAUL HAINES

GOLF SHOTS
Bill Selkirk, assistant pro at Reames, is at it again trying to pick up some of the golfing moola that is lying around the west coast these days. Bill is competing in the annual San Francisco open at present and posted a 39-40-78 for the first 18 hole route.

Now that kind of golf is not going to put Bill up in the money brackets by a long shot, but if he could shatter par just once with, say, a 70, he might place in the first twenty and that's where they pay off.

We seriously doubt that Bill can beat out such sharpshooters as Slammin' Sammy Snead, Jug McSpaden, Byron Nelson and Sam Byrd, although stranger things have happened to be sure. But the local shot maker comes off with a 70, he would finish high up on the par-off list if he could once get started shooting the golf he has proved himself capable of many times on the local course.

We realize that the San Francisco layout is probably five times more difficult, but good golf is pretty much the same no matter where it is played.

So, we hope Bill catches on fire, even to somebody giving him the hotfoot, because your clubs have to really smoke, laddies, when you're matching shots with such guys as Samuel Jackson Snead and his fairway cronies!

"A" Company Wears Post Cage Crown

Southpaw Joe Domitrovich, regular guard on the post basketball squad, spurred his A company cagers to the championship in the Marine Barracks inter-company basketball league yesterday afternoon over I company in a 29 to 28 thriller.

Going into the last period, I company led by five points. Southpaw Joe then took over and drew his team out in front on three buckets while Arndt, also a post team member, connected with one for the A company five. I company, with around two minutes left was awarded a free throw on a technical foul. Georgian, I company forward, sank it, putting the score at 29-28. Before the horn sounded, ending the game, I company tried desperately to score, to no avail.

Wednesday evening, Domitrovich scored 15 points, as his team took C company in the semi-finals, 37 to 28. A company rolled up a small lead and was never headed as the game progressed.

In the other semi-final play-off, I company out-passed H&S, beating that outfit, 35 to 33. Cleveland of H&S was high scorer in the fray with 11 points.

The champions will be presented a trophy by Lt. Francis Hogan, athletic officer, on a date not yet set.

Loyola Grid Eleven Defeats Boys Town

Semi-Windup Brawl Steals Rassling Show at Armory

In a wild, bloody, rough-and-ready melee that brought the crowd to its feet, the semi-windup bout on the rassling card stole the show last night at the armory. The wild fracas saw Bulldog Jackson and "Blood and Guts" Davidson crunch craniums to a draw in a show that was reminiscent of the Keystone Kops. The two grapplers pitched each other and Referee Wally Moss all over the armory and at one time were slugging it out under the square while the ring-side customers peered underneath like curious owls.

Army Liked In Pre-Game Betting Odds

By FRITZ HOWELL
BALTIMORE, Dec. 2 (AP)—The most widely-discussed sports event of the decade—the Army-Navy football game—moved today from the conversational stage to the gridiron.

And, as the chips went into the pot for the Municipal stadium showdown between the country's two top-ranking elevens, plenty was at stake. To all unbeaten West Point, victory would mean the national title and the first perfect season since 1916.

Navy, 10-point or 2-to-1 underdog, hoped to stretch its victory spring over the cadets to six straight, longest domination in the bitter pigskin rivalry dating back to 1890. The previous 44 contests: Army 22, Navy 19, and there were deadlocks.

A portion of the expected crowd of 70,000 purchased war bonds reported worth $50,000,000 to obtain tickets after the annual classic was transferred from the comparative seclusion of nearby Annapolis.

In the throng will be the full regiment of middies, the cadet corps, high-ranking naval and army officers, and groups of veterans who lost limbs on World war 2 battlefields. Many of the latter will be guests of the two academies or high government officials who surrendered their coveted tickets to the war heroes.

A two-week layoff from competition put both squads in tip-top physical shape for the crucial clash, and each coach fractured all the rules by admitting his team had a chance to win the contest getting under way at 2 p. m. (EWT.)

"M" Company Paces Post Kegling Loop

"M" Company Kegler N. C. Carlson rolled a 606 series last Monday night on the post alleys in the Marine Barracks Inter-Company Bowling League, as he set the pace while his team knocked the Officers out of sharing the loop lead.

The "M" Company five took high three-game honors for the evening with 2704 and high single with 931.

"I" and "A" Companies continue to head the pack, although by only one game in a tight race. Four squads are tied for second place.

Bowlers who hit better than 200 are Carlson, 224; Clifford, 224; Smith, 220; Mueller, 221; Cashmere, 209, and Carpenter, 202.

Angelo Bertelli of Notre Dame, was the winner a year ago.

Chemawa Indians Blast Arlington For "B" Crown

SALEM, Dec. 2 (AP)—A rugged T-formation squad from Chemawa Indian school held the Oregon class B football crown today.

The Indians, winners of the western Oregon title, defeated eastern titlist Arlington 26-6 last night before a war-bond-buying audience of 2000.

The Indians piled up most of the score via the aerial route, with Quarterback Merle Williams tossing three passes for touchdowns. The fourth goal came on a line plunge, from the one-yard marker.

The smaller Arlington eleven, battling gamely against a more powerful team, clicked for a 65-yard pass play with Wayne Christofferson grabbing the ball to race through the entire Chemawa line.

Leatherneck Game May Be Called Off

Due to the refusal of the OPA to issue sufficient gasoline, the scheduled basketball game tonight between the Bend Box company five and the Leathernecks to be played at the Barracks may be called off. This is not yet definite and the contest may be played preceded by a blackout game between "I" and "C" Companies.

All marines and their guests will be admitted free.

Pelican Hoopsters Nudged By Weed Quintet, 43-39

In a fast moving ball game Friday night at Weed, the Klamath Pelicans were nudged by the Weed quintet to the tune of 43-39. The hoop tilt was closely fought all the way through and the two teams were deadlocked, 22-22, at the end of the first half.

The contest was still all tied up, 33-33, at the finish of the third frame, but in the final stanza the Weed outfit rolled up 10 more points while the Pelicans could garner only six.

Bob Perkins, acting captain for the Klamen, was eliminated from the game before the first period was over with five personal fouls. Jim Palmer held high scoring honors for the Pelicans with 12 points, while Perez, speedy forward, led the Weed five with 10 markers.

In the preliminary fracas, the Pelican reserves, or Wildcats, nosed out Weed, 27-25. Alexander paced the Wildcats with 11 counters and Kurnou led the Weed aggregation with six points.

The Pelicans will play host to Weed, Tuesday, December 5, in the next basketball battle of the season.
