St. Augustine

MERRILL—Marking the open- ing of the holiday season, which, in spite of the war, will bring many of the neighborly get-to- gethers, was the annual bazaar and card party sponsored by the Altar society of St. Augustine's church. The date was set for Saturday, December 2, at the community hall in Merrill.

Doors opened at 1 o'clock for the pleasure of guests who might be interested in the array of ap- proons and other handwork that will make grand Christmas gifts. There were also all kinds of Christmas "goodies" and other cooked foods sold from the booths. Bridge and pinocle were in play during the afternoon, with prizes offered for both. Mrs. George Yost and Mrs. Al Porter, Tulilake, Mrs. Halene Beimler and Mrs. W. C. Dalton, Malin, and Mrs. Hugh O'Connor and Mrs. E. T. Crawford, Merrill, were appointed by Mrs. Dan Barry, president, to supervise the card arrangements. Refresh-
