Oregon Allotted $45 Million Yearly In Pending Road Bill

SALEM, Dec. 5 (AP)—Oregon would have $48,000,000 a year to spend during the first three postwar years under the terms of the postwar highway bill passed by the U. S. house of representatives, State Highway Engineer R. H. Baidock said today after returning from the convention in Cincinnati, O., of the American Association of State Highway Officials. The senate version of the bill would give Oregon $42,000,000. The bill now is in conference, where a compromise is being worked out.
