Hoppe Fourth In Billiard Bee

NEW YORK, Dec. 6 (47)-Standings of the world cham-pionship three-cushion billiard tourney had a strange look lo-day-Willie Hoppe wasn't at the top.

day—Wille Hoppe wasn't at the top. The 57-year-old "Boy Won-der," who has held the tille the last three years, suffered his third defeat since 1940 in cham-pionship play last night. He bowed to Brooklyn's Arthur Ru-bin, 50 to 47, in 43 innings. With Hoppe out of the first-place deadlock, the lead was shared by Cochran, Ralph Greenleaf of Detroit and Jay Bozeman of Vallejo, Calif., each with three wins and no defeats. Hoppe skidded into a three-way tie for fourth.

Pelicans Battle Marines Friday

Two basketball games will be played Friday night at the high school gym. The feature till will bring together the Pelicans and the Leather-necks from the Marine Bar-racks and will get underway at 8 p.m. Starting at 7 p. m., the Wildcats, coached by Paul Angstead, will tangle with a quintet from Tulelake. Tickcts are on sale at the bar-racks and may be purchased at the door. Servicemen and students will be admitted for 30 cents and the general pub-lic for 60 cents.

Tops With Tulsa

Leonard Dodson of Kansas City, Mo., won the last Oakland Open, held in 1941, in a playoff with E. J. "Dutch" Harrison and Ben Hogan. Dodson, back this year, expects to repeat.

Four Added

By JOE REICHLER BUFFALO, N. Y., Dec. 7 (A) For the first time since the start of World war 2, minor league baseball today appeared to be more expansion-conscious than survival-minded.

As the minors went into their 43rd annual convention, four additional leagues loomed as possible starters next year. After yesterday's brief open-ing conclave, when routine com-mittees were appointed, most of the leagues held individual meetings. It developed that the North Carolina state and tho Carolina loop will definitely operate, and Canadian and In-diana state circuits may be formed.

GRUNTS AND GROANS Friday night at the armory will bring forth plenty of rassling action. In the open-er, Tough Tony Ross will buit biceps with Herb Parks and this grand slam will be fol-lowed by a double main event. Billy McEuin will crunch craniums with Gust Johnson and the one and only Bulldog Jackson will take on "Blood and Guts" Davidson in a re-match. A coin will be flipped to de-cide which of the two main bills will precede the other and, all in all, it looks like another wild evening at the armory. PELICAN PALAVER

PELICAN PALAVER The Klamath Pelican cage squad will play a hoop battle with the Leathernecks on the high school floor Friday night. On Monday the K-men will begin a road trip that will see them play Oregon City. December 12, Milwaukle, De-cember 13 and Salem. Decem-ber 15, 16. Coach Marble Cook will carry to boys on the jaunt, including Bob Perkins, Jim Noreen, Jim Palmer, Jim Pope, Jerry Thorne, Larry White, Joe Zarosinski, Bus Bussman, Dean Mason and Don Noel. The boys were not very ac-curate in their shooting Tues-day night against Weed, but Gook is drilling them inten-sively in practice and hopes to have them ready when the inte comes to hit the road. It must be remembered that this is the start of the season and the boys will undoubtedly pro-gress as the basketball cam-paign wears on.
