Returns to Lakeview — Maxine Calderwood has returned to her home in Lakeview after spending about two weeks here receiving medical attention.

Like to help run trains at $220 base pay?
Work for a company whose biggest job is still ahead

This is a job for a man who wants not only good pay, but really interesting work... for a man who's sincere and reliable. The job: Brakeman with S.P. No experience needed to start; we train you in short order. You help operate trains... make a team with the Conductor and Engineer. You get around, keep the war trains rolling through. You work with a company whose biggest war job is still ahead—carrying the tremendous war load for the stepped-up push against Japan. Frankly this is a job that gets in your blood... makes you feel that railroading is different from anything else. Fine pension plan. Railroad pass privileges. Medical service. Good people to work with. Investigate today. Student switchmen (to switch cars) needed also. $220 per month after short training.

See or write Trainmaster, S. P. Station, Klamath Falls, or your nearest S. P. Agent.

Van Orden Speaks — Lt. Col. George O. Van Orden spoke to the Elks lodge last night on the occasion of the Elks observance of Pearl Harbor anniversary. The commanding officer of the Marine Barracks gave personal reminiscences of experiences in the Pacific combat area, and showed the Elks a Jap flag he had taken as a souvenir. He read the Japanese declaration of war on the United States from a paper he had taken from a dead Jap on Guam.

Attention Waltonians — The annual get-together of the Klamath Modoc chapter of the Isaac Walton League of America will be held Friday, December 15, at 7 p. m., at the Winema hotel instead of the Willard as was previously announced in the bulletin. A big duck and goose dinner will be served and all members are urged to attend.

Degree of Honor — Degree of Honor will hold its regular meeting on Monday, December 11, at 8 p. m. at the KC hall. There will be nomination and election of officers, as well as a gift exchange, and gifts are not to exceed $1 in price. Refreshment chairman is Carol Peterson.

Pythian Sisters — Winema temple, Pythian Sisters, will hold its regular meeting at 7:30 p. m. tonight (Friday) at the library club rooms. There will be election of officers.
