Shrine Dinner Dance Event of Wednesday

The annual Christmas dinner dance of the Klamath Falls Shrine club was held Wednesday, December 6 at the Willard hotel. Noble Gus Anderson is president of the club, and Noble C. Cassel was chairman of the evening.

The affair was attended by more than 150 nobles, their wives and friends, with the cocktail hour from 6:30 to 7:30 o'clock, followed by a turkey dinner.

Dancing was enjoyed later.

The hall was beautifully decorated with Christmas trees and lights, and the table was covered with fall flowers and red and white tapets.

Entertainment and music was furnished by the Camp Newell orchestra and the nobles.

Hillah Temple was represented by Noble Ed Ostendorf, and the Daughters of the Nile by its president, Mrs. George Hillis.

This particular party will long be remembered as one of the most enjoyable and successful affairs of the year.

Formal Dance

The Elks temple was the scene of a formal dance which was given on Friday evening, December 1. Approximately 50 Junior Hostesses attended the affair, and 200 invitations were divided between servicemen from the Marine Barracks, the Klamath naval air station, and Camp Newell at Tulelake.

This dance, which was the first formal to have been given by the Junior Hostesses, was sponsored by the Elks club, as a part of their program of entertainment for the servicemen. It was very well received by all those who attended, and it was decided to have more of this kind in the near future.

Music for the dance which lasted from 9 until 12, was furnished by the marine orchestra, and refreshments were served from the "coke bar" during the evening.

A floor show was given at 10:30 o'clock at which time several numbers were given by local talent. Joe Ewaller played a few selections on the violin accompanied by John Coglein on the piano. Both men are stationed at the Klamath naval air station. Sharon Willis danced and was accompanied by Miss Wilson at the piano. Several vocal solos were given by Mary Jo Hallett, who was accompanied by Ray Jones, also of the Klamath naval air station. An accordion duet was given by Joan and Jean Nowell, ten-year-old twin daughters of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Nowell. Pauline Meehan was in charge of the entertainment.

Patrons and patronesses for the dance included Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Robbins, Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Cook, Mr. and Mrs. Roland Oakes, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Linman, Mr. and Mrs. Estlin Kiger, and Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Schubert.

H. Dance

Nearly 300 invitations were sent to the Junior Hostesses, and their guests of the marines to attend the post gymnasium at the Marine Barracks on Friday evening, December 8.

The marine orchestra, under the leadership of Sgt. Julius Amow, played from 8 until 12 o'clock, and the dance was divided into groups of five numbers, two waltzes, two foxtrots, and one "jitterbug."

A buffet lunch was served to the marines and their guests at 11:30.

A Christmas dance is to be given at the Willard hotel, December 22, at the Marine Barracks, with Sgt. Major Thomas in charge of the arrangements, and other similar dances have been planned throughout the winter months.

The Sojourners will hold their annual Christmas party and installation of officers on December 13, at 7:45 o'clock in the room of the Willard hotel.

Those who plan to attend are urged to bring a small gift. Santa Claus will officiate at the party.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a powder blue tulle with a corsage of pink roses and white carnations. She was attended by her mother, Mrs. C. E. December Meet Of Library Club

An interesting program is anticipated by members of the Klamath Falls Woman's Library club when they gather at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon in the main auditorium of the public library to hear Commander Lowell Coggeshall of the Marine Barracks speak on "Africa."

This talk, combined with the annual presentation of music by the a cappella choir from Klamath Union high school, should make one of the most well rounded programs of the year. Andrew Loney Jr., will direct the choir which has won an undisputed place in the affection of music lovers.

Commander Coggeshall, national authority on tropical diseases, has been stationed at the Marine Barracks since the post's inception. He is an excellent speaker and well versed on the topic which he will present Monday.

The choir will sing a group of Christmas songs including the beautiful "O Bone Jesu," "Palestrina," "Jesus, My Lord, We Adore Thee," "Will James," "O Come, Emmanuel," an ancient plains song, and "Gloria In Excelsis," ancient carol. And by special request the choir will sing that thrilling arrangement of "The Battle Hymn of the Republic." The choir's rendition certainly places that group in the upper bracket of musical groups ever heard in Klamath Falls.

All members of Library club are asked to remember the contributions which will be accepted Monday for the children at Doernbecher hospital in Portland. They may bring toys, books, dolls or stuffed animals. Mrs. Rollo C. Groesbeck, state chairman for Doernbecher hospital, will accept the gifts and all money donations are to be given directly to her.

Any woman in the city is eligible for membership in Library club and is cordially invited to attend the Monday program.

Soroptimist

The Soroptimist lunch on a meeting on Thursday, December 7, was an enthusiastic rally for the 6th War Loan bond drive, and the members bought bonds amounting to $20,725. Chairman of the defense committee, Annabelle Newton, announces that there are still more subscriptions to be added to this total.

Klamath Falls Soroptimists have recently mailed to their sister club in Brighton-Hove, England, several Christmas packages for distribution to its members. A letter, thanking the Klamath Falls members for a former shipment of tea to that club, said it had all been served to rescue workers after a bomb devastation in that area.

Working in shifts, the Soroptimists served at the USO center on Sunday, December 3, and were assisted by members of the Business and Professional Women's club and Tau chapter of Beta Sigma Phi. The Soroptimist House, established as a temporary home for relatives and friends of service men, is splendidly fulfilling this mission, and is one of the Soroptimist contributions to war service.
