

Fiat Lux" Will Be Presented

As a holiday gift to the townspeople, the drama department of Klamath Union high school will present a modern mystery play in one act, "Fiat Lux," or "Let There Be Light." Mrs. B. B. Blomquist has directed the play which will be given this coming week at numerous performances in the Little Theatre off Main street.

Principals are Jack Bronson, Bill Gillette, Lew Harper, Fred White, Mary Jo Hallett, Elaine Goddard and Jimmy Epley Jr.

There is an elaborate setting for this play, three stages appearing under varied lighting conditions. Other students of the drama department are credited with this unusual staging of the art work on the second stage was done by Ted Reeves, on the third stage by Malcolm Epley Jr. "Fiat Lux" is playing to the parents and public without charge. Mrs. Blomquist said the department would be glad to have guests at any of the performances. The play will be given Monday at 1 o'clock with two other performances at 2 and 3 o'clock. A performance for Lions club will be given Monday night. Tuesday morning the play will be given from 9 o'clock until 12 noon, and again all day Wednesday from 9 to 12 and from 4 to 8. Saturday performances will run from 2:30 to 3:45 p. m. and again at 8:15 p. m. The Tuesday performance will be given in the gymnasium with Christmas music concert given by the music department at 8 o'clock.

VFW Auxiliary

On Thursday evening, December 7, the auxiliary to the Veterans of Foreign Wars met in the very club room for a regular meeting and initiation of candidates with the president, Mrs. J. McGilvray, in the chair. Albert Downs, Mrs. Alvin W. W. J. Willard and Aaron Thomas were received into membership in the auxiliary at this time.

Junior Matrons

The Junior Matrons club of the First Methodist church met Monday evening, December 7, with Mrs. Bruce Binkley, 915 1/2, with Mrs. M. H. Melchert as guest. Mrs. Christ Huck, assisting. The evening opened with the singing of Christmas carols by Mrs. Melchert and the reading of Christmas, as given in the Bible. She also conducted business meeting. The place for the next meeting was not decided but the hostesses will be W. L. Terwilliger and Mrs. Tomlin.

Meet Mr. Showoff

Mr. Showoff sounded a trumpet and the crowd came to admire as he counted out to himself all his gain and hid it into the treasury of God. By his trumpet, Mr. Showoff wanted all mankind to look at that despised and despised man. He was not so much as lift up his hand to heaven but he beats his breast crying—God be merciful to me, a sinner.—"I know this man went down to the house justified rather than I." From the penalty, the man is saved from the penalty of sin. God put the sins of your lifetime on Christ. Lord hath laid on Him the iniquity of us all.—BIBLE. forgiveness on the ground Christ paid the penalty for God forgives since Christ the debt. From the POWER. From the grave Christ arose as well all who receive Him and Saviour. As the dead yield their lives over Him, they live by Power. On High, He becomes sustaining strength. From the PRES- of sin. On Judgment the lost face the sins of their days and go out into all woe. For the saved—In comes to God is to the saved the amazing of his grace. In his goodness to them through Christ.

Christian Society

The general meeting of the Women's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist church, held on Friday, December 1, was opened with a no-hostess luncheon at the Wisconsin hotel at 12 noon.

Mrs. Meeker, the guest speaker for the afternoon, was unable to reach Klamath Falls in time for the luncheon, but arrived before the afternoon meeting at the church, which was held at 2 p. m.

Mrs. Walter Herndon conducted the devotional service and Mrs. L. K. Phelps presided over the short business meeting. She appointed a committee to serve for the Christmas party to be given at the church for service men and women. The members of the committee are Mrs. C. H. Barnstable, Mrs. Earl Redman and Mrs. W. T. Withrow.

Mrs. Edwin Schnebeck sang a group of lullabies, accompanied by Mrs. Redman, and Mrs. Meeker then spoke upon the subject "The Part Women Must Play in the Crusade for Christ."

Tea was served by circle 2, whose chairman is Mrs. John Riach. Holiday greenery served as the background for the tea table, which was centered with an arrangement of white chrysanthemums, and Mrs. Victor Phillips and Mrs. Earl Redman presided over the tea service.

No-Host Dinner

A group of long-time friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Cofer on High street Saturday evening for a no-host dinner, followed by several hours of cards. Places were set for Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Garcelon, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Richardson, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Moss, Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Evans, Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Evans, Mrs. J. J. Parker, Mrs. John H. Hamilton, Mrs. Ruby Kenyon, Mrs. Grace Berkman and Mr. and Mrs. Cofer.

TO MARRY

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Burger of Rockville, Minnesota, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Burdette Marie, to RT 3/c Andrew Soule, USN, and son of Dr. and Mrs. Andrew A. Soule, 1945 Main. Miss Burger is employed at the Barnes-Hind laboratories in San Francisco, and was a houseguest at the Soule home while Andrew was home on a 15-day furlough from Treasure Island, California, where he has just finished radar training. No wedding date has been set.

Friendly Circle

Members and guests of the Friendly circle met Thursday, December 7, at the home of Lirie Little, 2444 Orchard way, for luncheon and the annual Christmas party and gift exchange. Pearl Marin was the assisting hostess. Luncheon was served at one o'clock to Iphia Brown, Arthur Stone, Violet Vance, Estelle Smith, Agnace Lowe, Grace Beck, Nona Hall, Fannie Goddard, Alberta Allen, Lydia McDonald, Kathryn Billings and Roy, and Ruth Berry, and after the exchange of gifts Mrs. Little, president of the club, conducted the business meeting.

Wed in November

Genevra Whiteley, daughter of Mr. Charles Martin of Stockton, California, became the bride of T/Sgt. Randall B. Jigger, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Jigger, 1847 Earle. The ceremony took place early in November at the local chapel at Stockton. Mrs. Jigger is a graduate of the San Joaquin General School of Nursing, and was a recent recruitment secretary of the Red Cross. She is now on the staff at St. Joseph's hospital in Stockton. Sgt. Jigger was at Chanute Field in Rantoul, Illinois, for six months, and is now attached to the training aide's office in Stockton. The young couple went to Monterey, California, for a short honeymoon.

At a beautiful ceremony on Sunday afternoon, December 3, Patricia Kitchin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Kitchin, 2128 Madison, became the bride of James L. Reed, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Reed of Prineville.

The bride was lovely in a black velvet suit with yellow accessories, and wore a corsage of yellow rosebuds.

Mrs. Gerald Scholton was matron of honor, and wore a corsage of white carnations. Ray Reed, brother of the groom, was best man.

The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Orrin Kitchin, and the young couple were married by President E. E. Burroughs of the Mormon church.

A reception immediately followed the wedding, and the large wedding cake was cut by the bride and groom, and served to their friends, and later the bridal party enjoyed a chicken dinner at the El Padre.

Out-of-town guests included the mother and sister of the groom, Mrs. John Reed, and Elizabeth, and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Reed of Prineville.

Other guests were Mrs. A. M. Nesline, Mrs. E. E. Burroughs, Mrs. Curtis Daniels, Mrs. Julius Bradshaw, Mrs. William Olson, Mrs. D. E. Weathersbee, Mrs. Harry Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Cox, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Brink and family, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Kitchin and family, Mrs. Orrin Kitchin, and Mrs. Gerald Scholton.

The groom is a MM2/c in the navy, and is home on a 30-day leave. Mrs. Reed plans to remain with her husband until he is again called for further overseas duty.

Merry Mixers

Mrs. Douglas Froberg, 225 East Main, was hostess to the Merry Mixers club Wednesday evening, December 6. Attending were Mrs. Frank Beard, Mrs. Plez Chamberlain, Mrs. Howard Cramblett, Mrs. Homer Stiles, Mrs. Clayton Ward, Mrs. Reuben Stevenson, Mrs. Ernest Zerble, Mrs. Clifford Case, and Mrs. Lloyd Allen. The guest award went to Mrs. Homer Stiles. The Christmas party, December 20, will be held at the home of Mrs. Chamberlain, 1654 Portland, and will be the last meeting of the year.

ENGAGED

Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Massey, 739 Eldorado, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Jo Ann, to John Tworek, chief mechanic 1/c of the U. S. navy. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Tworek of Crosswell, Michigan. No wedding date has been set.

Ten Years Old

Celebrating her tenth birthday, Loralee Rolph, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence A. Rolph, was hostess to a group of her schoolmates at a Sunday afternoon theatre party on December 3.

After the theatre, guests returned to the Rolph home, 234 No. 8th, when gifts were opened, and the birthday cake was served at a table decorated in Christmas colors to Barbara Ford, Darlene Watson, Nellie Wong, Joyce Lamb, Mary Louise Gerrie, Carol Guderian, Denise Kenyon, Jeannine Newcom, Florence Johnson, Janet Mitchell, Shirley Westfall, and the guest of honor.

Council Lunch

The Girl Scout council entertained the leaders and assistant leaders of all local troops with a dessert luncheon at the Episcopal parish house on Saturday afternoon, December 2. Hazel Morrison, program committee chairman, assisted by Mrs. K. E. Hutchinson and Mrs. D. H. Osborn were in charge of arrangements.

Mrs. D. W. Holloway, training committee chairman of leaders, gave a talk about planning activities for scout groups, and troop leadership.

Hazel Morrison discussed program plans for the year, Mrs. L. F. Carter made general announcements, and Mrs. Lowell Kaup disclosed plans for several Christmas vacation parties for the troops.

An interesting display of articles, made by Girl Scouts and Brownies, filled a large table, and included tray favors, table decorations, Christmas gifts, Christmas cards, and calendars. Council members present were Mrs. R. H. Radcliffe, Mrs. Paul Buck, Mrs. H. S. Stone, Mrs. Charles Ogle, Mrs. J. P. Wells, Mrs. K. E. Hutchinson, Mrs. D. H. Osborn, Mrs. L. E. Kaup, Mrs. A. L. Wacs Are Going Places!

Around the world— a glorious war record

IN LABRADOR, a Wac helps speed a B-24 on its way overseas... Behind the lines in Italy, a Wac flashes a message from General Clark to the storm center of battle. "Somewhere" in New Guinea, a Wac speeds mail to the men at the front. In Normandy, India, Australia, Honolulu, England, North Africa, New Caledonia — Wacs are helping our fighting men hasten the hour of victory. Working in highly skilled jobs that require nimble fingers, keen minds, steady nerves. Keeping at the work of war with an inspired spirit. With a red-white-and-blue courage that will know no letdown until the fight is won... Across the seas and around the world — they're making a glorious war record. The Wacs — gallant soldiers of the U. S. Army — the women all America is proud of.

A NEW PLANET rises in the DIAMOND skies

NO EXTRA FACETS AROUND EDGE

Multi-Facet DIAMONDS

Cut with 98 facets instead of the usual 58

A diamond derives its brilliance from its facets. There you have the secret of the extra brilliance of Multi-Facet diamonds. For these fine diamonds are distinguished by 98 facets — 40 more than in diamonds of ordinary cut. Laboratory tests conclusively prove that Multi-Facet diamonds have measurably greater brilliance. The extra facets afford increased color intensity and help prevent chipping.
