Club Meeting

FORT KLAMATH—The regular monthly meeting of the Civic Improvement club was held Friday afternoon, with an exceptionally good attendance, and the president, Mrs. Lloyd Nicholson, in the chair.

During the routine business session, several club members were chosen to serve on various committees. Mrs. C. L. Blickenstaff was appointed on the hostess committee, and will arrange the refreshments committee for each meeting. She succeeds Mrs. R. O. Vatum who recently moved to Bly.

Mrs. Frank Denton was chosen to take charge of the service-men's correspondence committee. Each month a community news letter is sent to all service-men of Fort Klamath, and these letters from home have been greatly appreciated by their recipients. Mrs. Carl Wilson was formerly in charge of this project.

Mrs. William C. Hackler will be in charge of sending flowers and remembrances to those who are ill or in need of help during the coming year, and has held this responsibility for several months.

It was decided that a community Christmas tree and program will be held in the clubhouse on Friday evening, December 22, in cooperation with the local school teacher, Mrs. Anna Strahan and her pupils. The usual treat of candy, nuts and fruit will be given to the children this year, it was decided.

Installation of officers to serve for 1945 was held, with Mrs. Frank Denton and Mrs. Ray Loosely acting as installing officers. Both incoming and outgoing officers were presented with lovely corsages at the close of the ceremony.

Refreshments were served later in the afternoon, assisted by Mrs. Frank Edwards and Mrs. Bert Gray. The Christmas motif was carried out in Yuletide decorations, candies and greenery, with lovely cut flowers centering the table.

Merrill Bazaar

MERRILL—Highlighting the beginning of the holiday season, guests were entertained Saturday afternoon and evening, December 2, at the annual card party, bazaar and supper sponsored by the Altar society of St. Augustine's church, Merrill.

Prior to the opening of the afternoon's entertainment, booths for the sale of aprons, other hand work and cooked foods were open.

Bridge and pinocle were in play, with guests present from Klamath Falls, Merrill, Malin and Tulelake. High score in bridge went to Mrs. J. H. Barkwell, Tulelake, with Mrs. W. J. Grove, Merrill, taking second.

In pinocle, high went to Ann Smithson and second high to Mrs. John Stolt, Merrill. The traveling award went to Mrs. Lester Schreiner, Malin.

Refreshments were served from a white covered table centered with an arrangement of pyracantha and red tapers. Pouring were Mrs. Mamie Giacomini and Mrs. E. M. Hammond.

Assisting on the card party committee were Mrs. Hugh O'Connor, chairman, Mrs. George Yost, Mrs. Al Porter, Mrs. W. C. Dalton, Mrs. Halene Beimler.

Chairmen of the dinner committee for the evening were Mrs. W. E. Hammond and Mrs. Jess Dieter. More than 300 guests were served between the hours of 6 and 8 o'clock.

Woodcraft

Neighbors of Woodcraft met Monday evening, December 4, in the KC hall for a short business meeting with Alta Clark, guardian neighbor, presiding. Observance of hospitality night followed the business meeting, and Sylvia Clayton and Stella Wells were in charge of arrangements and refreshments.

Whist and pinocle were played and Ruth Stanley held high score at whist, Willan Floetke low. At pinocle, high score went to Jerry Ann Mayhew, second to Leola Thompson, and low to Verna Wenner.

The Christmas theme was used for decorating, and very original and clever place cards afforded much amusement.

At the Christmas party, December 18, each member will learn the name of her silent sister for the past year.

Stork Shower

ALGOMA—A stork shower was given on Tuesday, November 14, for Mrs. Dorothy McCollum at the home of Mrs. John Hazelstein.

Church Council

The United Council of Church Women held a general council meeting in the parlors of the first Methodist church, Monday, December 4, at 2 p. m. Mrs. Paul Edwards conducted the devotional services and read the Christmas story, and Mrs. W. L. Terwilliger led the group in singing Christmas carols, with Mrs. Earl Redman, accompanying.

Mrs. R. H. Radcliffe gave the treasurer's report, Mrs. R. P. Ellington reported on work of the projects committee, and Hazel Morrison for the educational committee. The nominating committee, consisting of Mrs. R. H. Reeves, chairman, Mrs. Dale Mattoon and Mrs. S. D. Earhart, submitted the following names: Hazel Morrison, president; Mrs. R. P. Ellington, first vice president; Mrs. Kenneth Lambie, second vice president; Mrs. A. H. Denison, secretary; Mrs. Effie Rideout, treasurer. All of these were duly elected, and Mrs. John Ya don, outgoing president, thanked the members for their loyal help and support during her term.

Mrs. F. L. Van Doozer and Hazel Morrison closed the meeting with a responsive act of worship in the Lord's Prayer, and tea was then served, with Mrs. Paul Edwards and Mrs. John Ya don presiding at the table.

Will Wed

On Sunday, December 10, Margaret Evelyn Peterson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Peterson of Spokane, Washington, will become the bride of PFC Robert Eugene Pease, USMC, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Pease of Riverton, Connecticut. The Reverend D. F. Barnett of the Presbyterian church will officiate at the ceremony which is to take place at 4 o'clock in the afternoon.

Miss Peterson will be dressed in a light blue wool with brown accessories, and will wear a single white orchid. Gayle Galoway will be the bride's only attendant, and will wear a gold dress with brown accessories and a corsage of talisman roses. PFC Jack M. Perry of the marine corps, will be best man.

The couple plan to remain in Klamath Falls for the present time.

Juveniles

Juveniles of the Neighbors of Woodcraft met Wednesday, December 5 at 4 p. m. at the home of the senior guardian, Mrs. C. O. Dryden, 610 North 11th, for a regular business meeting, and to practice for the Christmas party, Monday, December 18, in the KC hall. Neighbors of Woodcraft will hold their Christmas party at the same time and place. Alta Clark assisted Mrs. Dryden in serving refreshments to the juveniles.

4-H Clubbers

The following is a report submitted by Frances Stearns, 4-H club reporter from Roosevelt, concerning the activities of that busy group of young women:

"The 4-H club members of Roosevelt school met in the art room Wednesday, December 6. We elected the following officers: Ann Newman, president; Helen Bertram, vice president; Bonnie Warnstaff, secretary, and Frances Stearns, news reporter. We are planning to sew a pin cushion first, and are trying to reach the top of the ladder of success."

The Degree of Honor will hold a regular meeting Monday, December 11, at 8 o'clock in the KC hall. There will be nomination and election of officers and a gift exchange during the entertainment hour. Estelle Smith is in charge of this feature and chairman of refreshments is Caroline Peterson.

Women's Club

LANGELL VALLEY—The Langell Valley Women's club met at the parish hall on November 29, with Mrs. Edna Conley and Mrs. Norma Campbell as hostesses. The meeting was conducted by the vice president, Zula Kyler, and club members voted to start repair work on the community hall. They plan to raise the necessary money by continuing to hold dances.

During the refreshment hour, the former secretary of the club, Cora Leavitt, was presented with a lovely all-wool blanket from the club in appreciation of her fine work.

The next meeting of the club will be the annual Christmas party which is to be an all-day affair on December 28. This meeting will be a no-hostess potluck dinner at the parish hall, and members will exchange gifts.

Guests who enjoyed the hospitality of Mrs. Conley and Mrs. Campbell were Christine Brown, Bobbette Gift, Bessie Campbell, Nettie Davis, Mildred Novotny, Rebecca House, Charlotte Fitzhugh, Zula Kyler, Grace Dearborn, Margaret Burnett, Myrtle Johnson, Madge Monroe, Hattie Walker, Lela Murray, Edith Jones, Mary Dearborn, Mary Leidy, Theresa Teare, Nellie Quick and Cora Leavitt.

Women's Club
