

ALL TO OUST JACKSON HOLE PASSES HOUSE

WASHINGTON, Dec. 12 (AP)—A bill to abolish the Jackson Hole national monument, created in Wyoming by President Roosevelt, passed the House today by a vote of 178 to 107.

The bill, which would abolish the 10-acre tract which the monument occupies, was introduced in March, 1943.

Even should it clear the Senate, it faces the virtual certainty of a presidential veto. The House debate on the measure was crowded with criticism of the monument and its secretary of the interior, Harold L. Ickes, for creation of a national monument which opponents said was one of the greatest usurpations of legislative authority.

Mr. Machinist, put your calipers on THIS job
If it doesn't measure up to something better than most, we mean this Machinist's shop with Southern Pacific... your shops or roundhouses... you work on locomotives with good equipment... with men who can fit 'em tight and close. This is railroading on the ground floor... rolling for the enormous war loads which S.P. is carrying for a long time. Good wages—regular R.R. standard. Good work appreciation. Good working conditions. Good pass privileges. Fine pension plan. Medical and hospital services. A good job for a good Machinist—no railroad experience required. Many other good things.

RIGHT OF WAY EYED IN VEHICLE CRASH

Just which vehicle has the right of way, a fire truck or a police car, was discussed at last night's council meeting. The point arose following an intersection collision of the truck and prowl car at 4th and Main late Sunday morning. Both vehicles were en route to a fire and sirens were screaming which prevented either driver from hearing the other.

J. D. O'Neal, 223 Lincoln, was driver of the prowl car, John Mitchell, 1039 Washington, operator of the truck. There were no injuries but damage was done to both machines. The pavement was frosty at the time. Mayor John Houston said he would look into the matter.

The Finest Christmas Gift in all the World

No jewel sparkles with as bright a light as the torch in the Statue of Liberty. A watch can do no more than count the minutes till the day of Victory. No ring can bring a millionth part of the joy that will be ours when the bells ring out the news of the war's ending.

There'll be plenty of watches and jewels and rings to buy on the day when your War Bonds fall due, and you'll enjoy them the more because your money has been enlisted in our country's cause until that day.

Give a War Bond and you give the one gift that will delight everyone.

REMEMBER! This is the last week of the 6th War Loan Drive.
