

CITY BRIEFS

Helts to Leave—Aviation cadet Charles T. Helts, son of Mrs. Myrd Helts, who with his wife and little daughter, have been on leave in Tulalake visiting relatives, will leave this week for San Angelo, Texas, to begin his advanced training as a bombardier in the U. S. army corps. He has just recently completed a course at a flying school at Kingman, Arizona. Helts' family will go south with him. He has been in the service 15 months, and prior to enlisting, farmed here.

Visiting—Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Singleton of Conesville, Ia., have arrived here to visit their son and daughter-in-law, Sgt. and Mrs. Richard Singleton and infant son, Michael Robert, born December 1 at Klamath Valley hospital. Sgt Singleton is stationed at the Marine Barracks and is a veteran of South Pacific fighting. His wife lives at the Stratfield apartments, 210 Main. The Singletons will visit here over the holidays.

To Have Party—The Shasta New Grange Christmas party for members and families will be held Friday, December 15, at 8 p. m., at the Shasta school. There will be a Christmas play and musical numbers presented by the children. All are requested to bring a gift for the exchange. Refreshments will be served.

To Meet—The Eagles auxiliary will meet Friday at 8 p. m., in the upper FOE hall. After the meeting, there will be a Christmas party with gift exchange. Silent auctions should bring a gift for their sister. There will also be a lunch and entertainment after 8 o'clock.

Program Tonight—The Junior High and grade school annual Christmas program will be presented at 7:30 p. m. sharp tonight, Thursday, in the Klamath Union high school auditorium. Those planning to attend are asked to note the time and all are asked to be in their seats by 7:15 o'clock.

Christmas Program—Grace McMillan of Bly was among members of the University Singers women's choral group to appear in a special Christmas program on Friday evening, December 8, in the school of music auditorium on the campus of the University of Oregon at Eugene.

In Concert—Grace McMillan of Bly, Bella Martin of Merrill, and Gerald Einarsson and Lewis Fogler of Klamath Falls were among the students of the University of Oregon at Eugene to appear in a band concert Sunday, December 3, at the school music auditorium.

Auxiliary—Members of the Eagles auxiliary will hear the seventh grade mixed chorus from Hills school in a program of Christmas carols, Friday at 8 p. m., in the upper FOE hall. The chorus is directed by Mrs. M. Monroe. This is to be a Christmas party.

In Hospital—Beverlee Neal, daughter of Mrs. Neva Neal of 21 Owens, is in Klamath Valley hospital recovering from an emergency appendectomy which she underwent this week. Miss Neal is a senior at Klamath Union high school.

From Sacramento—M. J. Horn and W. G. Wagner, both connected with the regional office of the bureau of reclamation in Sacramento, are in Klamath Falls Thursday making a tour of inspection over the Klamath project.

To Portland—Arthur Greenbank, drag-line operator for the Klamath office of the bureau of reclamation, will leave next Monday for Portland for examination for induction into the armed forces.

NEW kind of ASPIRIN tablet doesn't upset stomach

When you need quick relief from pain, do you hesitate to take aspirin because it leaves you with an upset stomach? If so, this new medical discovery, SUPERIN, is "just what the doctor ordered" for you.

Superin is aspirin plus—contains the same pure, safe aspirin you've long known—but developed by doctors in a special way for one upset by aspirin in its ordinary form.

This new kind of aspirin tablet solves more quickly, lets the aspirin get right at the job of relieving pain, reduces the acidity of ordinary aspirin, and does not irritate or upset stomach—even after repeat doses.

Keep this out to remind you to take Superin today, so you can have your hand when headaches, colds, flu, strike. See how quickly it relieves pain—how you feel after taking it. At your drug store, 15¢ and 39¢.

In Hospital—PFC Marshall S. Upp, member of a well-known Klamath family, is now a patient at Bushnell general hospital, Brigham City, Utah, according to word received here. Marshall was injured in France when a large sliding door in a warehouse slipped off the track. He suffered a broken left leg, fractured vertebrae and other injuries. The accident occurred October 6.

Expected Home—Rollo Englund, apprentice seaman, who is attending the navy's V-12 program at Whitman college, Walla Walla, Wash., is expected home for Christmas. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. F. England of 2746 Kane. Prior to his enlistment, Rollo was employed at The Herald and News.

Holiday Guests—Erna Leese of Everett, and Edna Roeske of Seattle, Wash., are guests over the holidays of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Leitzke at their home on Fairhaven Heights. Miss Leese is the fiancée of T/Sgt. Leonard Leitzke, who is now in Italy, and Miss Roeske is a niece of H. A. Leitzke.

Meeting—The Jayceettes will meet tonight at 8 o'clock, Thursday, in the library club rooms. This is the regular December meeting and all wives of Junior chamber of commerce members are invited to attend.

Christmas Program—The students at Roosevelt school will present their Christmas program on Friday evening, December 15 at 7:30. This will be an all-school program, and parents and the general public are invited.

The present consumption of aviation gasoline by our air forces is over 150,000,000 gallons a month in the theaters of operations only.
