To Meet

Members attending the dinner meeting of the Klamath County Business and Professional Women's club, Monday evening, December 18, at the Willard hotel, are reminded to bring a photograph record, wrapped in holiday papers and ribbons, to be presented as gifts to the Marine Barracks.

This meeting will be the annual Christmas party, but the giving of records will take the place of the customary gift exchange among members.

The program is being arranged by Evelyn Hudson, chairman of the Girl Scout-Camp Fire Girls' committee, and the executives of these two organizations, Emma Carter and Jewel Cantrill, will be guests.

The holiday party is looked forward to as one of the outstanding meetings of the year, and members who do not have standing reservations, are reminded to call Jacquelin Newcom by Monday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Frank Adams have spent the past month in San Francisco. They are expected home just before Christmas.

In Indiana

A wedding of interest here took place November 25 in Vincennes, Indiana, when Sgt. Byron C. Ody of 1660 Portland, took as his bride the former Laura Belle Riggs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Riggs of Vincennes.

The vows were exchanged in the North Methodist church in the late afternoon with Rev. Frank Little officiating. The double ring ceremony was used. Attending the couple were Mrs. Edwin Riggs, sister-in-law of the bride, and Corp. Larry Mobbe of George Field, Lawrenceville, Illinois, close friend of the groom.

The bride wore a powder blue suit with black accessories and a corsage of red rosebuds. Sgt. and Mrs. Ody left on a brief wedding trip and are now at home in Vincennes while the groom is stationed at nearby George Field.

Sgt. Cody returned recently from 18 months' service in the Aleutians where he served as crew chief on a C-47 with the army air corps. He is a graduate of Klamath Union high school, class of 1940.

The annual Christmas Pageant presented by the church school of St. Paul's Episcopal church, will be given at the regular Sunday morning service at 11 o'clock December 24. It was announced by the Rev. Frederick C. Wisenbach.

Exec. In Office

Mrs. Jewel Cantrill has taken over the duties of Camp Fire Girls executive for Klamath Falls, following her appointment at a recent meeting of the local Camp Fire council, in lieu of Mrs. John Kellison who has served in this position for seven years.

Mrs. Cantrill is well known in this city as an accomplished vocalist, and has been president in a number of musical organizations. It is her intention to organize a group singing in the Camp Fire organization. Mrs. Cantrill just recently returned from a visit to Hollywood, in which she had several auditions with station KLLD church soloist and radio work, qualifying for both positions.

In announcing the change of Camp Fire leadership, the executive of the local board expressed their appreciation to Mrs. Kellison for her excellent work as executive. Previous to that position, she had served as camp counselor. Mrs. Kennedy has accepted a time teaching position that felt didn't allow her time to continue her occupation work.
