ter. Most of these are Japanese citizens but some are Japanese-Americans who, despite having once become American citizens, have decided that their national feeling is with Japan. Of the total, about 5000 are under 18, and have been placed at Tulclake because of the status of relatives.

It appeared certain today that substantial numbers of present Tulclake evacuees will be among those permitted to return to their homes.

To Close Camps

The WRA plans to close its eight other relocation camps within a year.

Maj. Gen. Henry C. Pratt, chief of the western defense command, announced yesterday that the war department had decided to revoke its security order, under which the persons of Japanese ancestry were evacuated. The move, General Pratt said, was because of 'favorable progress of the war in the Pacific, as well as other developments."

Personally Dangerous

California Gov. Earl Warren in a formal statement at Sacramento said the army's decision had been reached on the basis of the "military situation as it exists today," and appealed for "an attitude that will discourage friction and prevent civil disorder."

Spokesmen for the western defense command said that lifting of the ban will not mean a sudden return of population, adding further strain to war-taxed housing conditions. The defense what it is all about. ing conditions. The defense command said it expects the war relocation authority to see that the process is gradual, and add-ed that those permitted to re-turn will be carefully investigat-ed.

coast states.

It was uncertain how many evacuees would be affected by the order. More than 115,000 persons of Japanese ancestry were evacuated in the order of March 24, 1942, and it was estimated that there are now approximately 119,000 under jurisdiction of the war relocation authority.

"Vindication"

diction of the war relocation authority.

"Vindication"

At Salt Lake City, Saburo Kido, president of the Japanese-American Citizens league and a former San Francisco lawyer, termed the action "a vindication of the loyalty of the Japanese-American population to the United States."

But at Kent, Wash., Benjamin Smith, president of the "Remember Pearl Harbor" league, declared the Japanese are still dangerous to the war effort, and added that his organization has pledged 500 persons not to sell, lease or rent farms, homes or stores to the returning evacuees. He said that "further steps" might be taken.

Discharged Army Man to Face Murder Charae

PENDLETON, Orc., Dec. 18
(P)—Richard C. King, 36, formerly of Paris, Tex., but recently medically discharged from the army after serving at the Pendleton airfield, was held in the county jail today on an open charge in connection with a Saturday night shooting and beating in which Pete Doshen, 51, received fatal injuries, and Mrs. Myrtle Wallace, about 35, received injuries of a serious nature. Doshen died late Sunday. District Attorney C. C. Proebstel was preparing to file first degree murder charges against King.

Police Chief Charles Lemons said that what at first was thought to be bullet wounds in both Doshen's and Mrs. Wallace's heads were instead wounds from blows apparently struck with King's 41 caliber revolver. A night stick at the Wallace home also showed bloodstains.

Yank Subs Down 33 Jap Vessels

WASHINGTON, Dec. 18. (P)
A merican submarines have sunk 33 more Japanese ships, including a light cruiser, three destroyers and six escort vessels, in their latest forays in the Pacific, the navy reported today.

The new tally brings the total of enemy ships of all types sunk by submarines since the start of the war to 907, with 94 of them warships.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 18 (A)—
The supreme court today declared justified an order excluding Japanese from the west yesterday.

The court's 6-3 opinion by Justice Black on the issues of exclusion did not rule on the constitutional questions involved.

In another opinion, the justices ruled unanimously that an American woman of Japanese descent was entitled to unconditional release from a war relocation authority center — because she was conceded to be a loyal citizen.

The opinion holding exclusion justified was given in the case of Fred Toyosaburo Korematsu, who was removed from his California home to a war relocation authority center in Utah.

KEEPING such things secret

Personally Dangerous
Henceforth, he said, they will be excluded only when the army genoisers them, personally, dangerous. All persons not specifically excluded will be permitted to return.

Reception of the announcement throughout the west was varied. In Los Angeles, outspoken Mayor Fletcher Bowron declared that if the government permits the Japanese to return it should send troops to protect them.

Protection Uncertain

"If they come back and start moving war workers to get a place to live. I don't know what the result will be," Bowron said, adding that because of inadequate police facilities "we just can't guarantee them protection."

California Gov. Earl Warren in a formal statement at Sacramento said the army's decision had been reached on the basis of BRESENT secrey arouses the PRESENT secrecy arouses the suspicion that we HAVE NO FOREIGN POLICY and are just drifting along from day to day. That probably isn't true, but BELIEF that it is true will do irrangrable damage.

CONTROL OF TOMORROW'S MILITARY SITUATION."

DOMEI, Jap news agency, mutters nervously today of ANOTHER U. S. FLEET sighted in the SULU SEA.

Our navy can be expected to hit hard and often in these days when the Japs are REPAIRING their ships that were battered in the naval battles of Leyte. We AREN'T going to wait until they get them all repaired and ready for business again.

ON the home front, the war department today revokes the order under which the Japanese were evacuated from the Pacific coast—thus opening wide the Pandora's box that we've known had to be opened sooner or later.

What are we going to do with these American-born Japanese when they start coming back to their homes?

DANIEL McDADE, immediate DANIEL McDADE, immediate past Oregon department commander and a national vice-commander of the American Legion offers the best answer that is immediately forthcoming. He says in Portland today:
"Sooner or later we have to learn to LIVE with the Japanese if we're going to solve the Pacific problem."

EITHER that or we'll have to fall back on the INSANE European hatreds of "enemy" peoples—hatreds that for centuries have kept Europe bathed in blood.

If we can't find a better solution of this problem than Europe has found may God help us.
