Commodity Price

Index Hits Record

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21 (P) The bureau of labor statistics commodity price index advanc-ed during the week ended De-cember 16 to the highest level since the war began, the labor department announced today. The increase of 0.2 per cent for the week was caused by sea-sonally higher prices for eggs and apples and upward adjust-ments in prices for wheat and hogs, the department said. The bureau's index at 104.4 per cent of the 1926 average was 0.3 per cent above the level of four weeks ago and 1.5 per cent higher than at the same time last year.
