

Midland Empire News

Midland

The Midland Grange Home Economic club met at the home of Mrs. Lee Sutton last Monday with a Christmas party. Those present were Mrs. Largent, Mrs. Ely, Mrs. Katy Phipps, Mrs. Mary Heavely and son Donny, Mrs. Roy Huff, Mrs. Marie Andrieu, Mrs. Minnie Andrieu and children, Mrs. B. H. Mistler and son Ralph, Mrs. Emma Lamm, Mrs. Pearl Burnett, Mrs. Anna Hickman, Mrs. Nellie Moteschenbacher, Mrs. Amy Crapo, Mrs. George Andrieu and Mrs. Sutton. Mrs. Huff will be hostess in January.

On Tuesday the home extension unit met with Mrs. Lee Sutton with Mrs. Gillen as leader, and the lesson was on how to have fewer colds. Attendance was good. The next meeting subject will be on oven meals and will be held at the home of Mrs. Pearl Burnett. All homemakers are urged to be present.

The Midland Victory club held its Christmas party at the home of Mrs. Phil Moteschenbacher. Gifts were exchanged and the children enjoyed a tree loaded with homemade candy and toys. Mrs. Lena Houck, who has been a member of the club since it was organized, was presented with a gift by the club. Mr. and Mrs. Houck sold their ranch and moved to Ashland on December 15. Those present were Mrs. Pearl McPherson and daughters Marilyn and Nancy, Mrs. Thelma Houck and son Leland, Mrs. Lena Houck, Mrs. Katy Phipps, Mrs. Blanche Flowers and daughters Donna Jean and Georgia Lee, Mrs. Pauline Flowers and son Frankie, Pauline Grey and daughter Charlene, Mrs. Louise Malani and daughter Katherine and son Wynn, Mrs. Barbara H. Mistler and son Ralph and grandsons Eddie and Gary Burke, Mrs. Vada Schneck and son Vaughn, and Mrs. Moteschenbacher.

Mrs. Edward Burke returned to Midland Thursday after a month in the University of California hospital at San Francisco. Mrs. Burke is recovering from rheumatic fever.

Arthur Malani will soon be home. He has been a patient in the Stanford hospital at San Francisco.

State officers of the grange met at Henley grange on Wednesday afternoon and evening for the purpose of installing new officers. A good attendance enjoyed a fine supper prepared for them.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Malani left Sunday for Portland to spend a few days at the home of Carroll Mistler made a trip to Grants Pass and then to Bandon.

Cascade

PFC Roland L. Porter spent a 15-day furlough at Cascade Summit, visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Porter. He was stationed at Upper Darby, Pennsylvania, but was to be sent across as soon as he returned to his department camp. He is in the radio installation department. Groups of 11 men are sent to install radio stations for the air force, each man performing a certain duty. His duty will be that of installing the high-power transmission wires. So far, there have been only two men killed in this particular kind of work.

Mrs. Miller Cordova underwent an operation for appendicitis in the Eugene hospital Tuesday. She is recovering nicely, according to word from the hospital. The two little Cordova girls, Julia and Helen, are staying with their grandmother, Mrs. Joe Giron, in Oakridge, while their mother is in the hospital.

The cold weather at Cascade Summit plunged the mercury to 10 degrees above zero, but there was no wind accompanying the cold as in the surrounding territory.

Mrs. Roy Temple spent the fore part of the week in Eugene doing her Christmas shopping.

Mrs. R. L. Porter shopped in Portland and Eugene, Monday and Tuesday.

Cleo Hebert, who has been visiting her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Bennie Benson, here, is now in Portland assisting her sister, Mrs. Herbert Lee, who has just returned from the hospital with her small son. The Lees have two other children.

Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Hall are expecting Mrs. Hall's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Walker, for the Christmas holidays. Walker is in the air service.

While in Portland, Mrs. R. L. Porter learned from her niece that the latter's husband, Harvey Christensen, who is in the Seabees, is stationed on an island in the Marianas and that only 200 yards from his camp are some Japs in a cave. He also wrote that he had been living on K rations and was losing his excess weight.

Pvt. Glenn Hebert will be home on furlough in Oakridge this week. He is stationed in Wyoming.

How To Relieve Bronchitis

Creomulsion relieves promptly because it goes right to the seat of the trouble to help loosen and expel germ laden phlegm, and aid nature to soothe and heal raw, tender, inflamed bronchial mucous membranes. Tell your druggist to sell you a bottle of Creomulsion with the understanding you must like the way it quickly allays the cough or you are to have your money back.

CREOMULSION
for Coughs, Chest Colds, Bronchitis

Bonanza

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Satterfield went to Dallas, Ore., last week to spend the winter with their son, John Satterfield, and family. Satterfield is reported as improving in health since going there. He suffered a partial stroke a week before he was taken south.

Kenneth Bradshaw spent his furlough last week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Bradshaw, and family. He left Thursday to resume his training at Farragut, Idaho.

The Bonanza school will present a Christmas program Thursday evening, December 21, in the grade school auditorium.

A Christmas operetta, music by the rhythm orchestra and a Christmas pageant will make up the evening's entertainment.

All students will have a part in the program. Everyone is invited to attend.

Mrs. John Brown and daughters, Adelle and Margery, have moved into the Satterfield home for the winter months.

Mrs. K. I. Bold has returned from an extended visit to Portland and vicinity.

Buddy Rueck went to Henley Thursday evening as the only Bonanza athlete to be initiated into the Lettermen's club. Several girls went to Henley high school from Bonanza on Friday attire for initiation into the Girls' league.

Mrs. John Turnage is spending a couple of weeks with Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Simmons and new son, Edward Eugene.

Langell Valley

Deepest sympathy is extended to Mr. and Mrs. Barney Brown in the loss of their infant daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Herb Johnson and children of Ely spent Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Wesley Dearborn and family. Mrs. Dearborn and baby daughter, Margie Sue, came home from Klamath hospital on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Frazier and Mrs. Mary Smith were Saturday evening dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Reg. Thomas and family.

Kenneth Hriciszec ran into a barbed wire fence while sleigh riding Saturday afternoon and had to have eight stitches taken in his face.

Mr. and Mrs. Veril Bell of Klamath Falls spent Sunday with Mrs. Ella Roads and Joe Roads.

Mrs. Ruby Brown of Bonanza is spending a few days with her son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brown.

Dick Pepple of the U. S. N. of Astoria spent Saturday night with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Owen Pepple and brother Ted.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Georges and Joylene of Klamath Falls

Fort Klamath

Mrs. Willard Beckman of Klamath Falls, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Maynard Fryer of San Diego, Calif., visited friends here Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Beckman moved recently from Pocatello, Idaho, where Beckman was with the U. S. engineers corps until being transferred to the U. S. naval air station at Klamath Falls. He was for many years employed as maintenance foreman in Crater Lake park before joining the engineer corps. Their son, Sgt. Samuel Emerson, U. S. marine corps, is on active duty somewhere in the South Pacific.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Sismore and daughter, Jo-Ann, left Sunday for Berkeley, Calif., where they will spend the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Bressler, and Mrs. Sismore's other daughter, Bonnie Jean Stewart, who makes her home with her grandparents.

W. Heccock is now employed at Leo's garage in Klamath Falls, and drives back and forth daily between Fort Klamath and his work.

Orville Schroeder returned home Sunday from the Hillside hospital in Klamath Falls, where he recently underwent surgery. He is feeling fine.

Mrs. R. S. Ballou is a patient at the Klamath Valley hospital, where she was taken a week ago, suffering from a painfully infected foot. At latest reports, she is resting comfortably.

BM 1/c and Mrs. Leon C. Bishop are the proud parents of a baby girl, born December 10 at Pasco, Wash. The new arrival, the first child of the young couple, weighed seven pounds four ounces at birth, and has been named Susanne Elizabeth. Bishop is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bishop of Fort Klamath, and has been for some time on shore patrol duty at the naval station at Pasco until he was called to Bremerton, Wash., on December 9 to report for overseas duty.

W. D. Hooper of Tulelake, Calif., was a business visitor in Fort Klamath on Friday in connection with his drayline operations near here.

Mrs. E. M. Jackson returned Saturday evening from Portland, where she spent a week visiting relatives and attending to business matters.

James Wampler, oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wampler, has enlisted in the U. S. navy, and is now awaiting his call to spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Bill Burnett and sons.

Mr. and Mrs. Bud Peterson arrived last week from Los Angeles to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Nork and family.

Martin Brown and Walter Smith Jr. enjoyed a trip to San Francisco last week.

Shoots for 300 Victories

This is only way Ted Atkinson can cool off. With the year's jockey championship sewed up, the Toronto-born, Brooklyn-raised reinsman was aboard first winner when he resumed riding at Gulfstream Park following a two-week vacation. He'll crowd his goal of 300 winners.

report for his physical examination. Wampler was a senior at Chiloquin high school.

Word has been received by friends here of the death of Mrs. Edson S. Turner, former local resident for many years. Mrs. Turner passed away Sunday, December 17, at Eugene, according to information received. Mr. and Mrs. Turner for many years owned a ranch west of Fort Klamath, selling their property here and moving to Klamath Falls several years ago, and more recently moving to Ashland to make their home. A wide circle of friends throughout Klamath county will be grieved to learn of Mrs. Turner's death.

Tuesday evening dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Guss Page were Mr. and Mrs. William C. Hackler and Mr. and Mrs. A. F. MacQuiston. Following dinner, pinocle was enjoyed until a late hour. Refreshments were served the guests after the game, in addition to the following young people who dropped in after attending the basketball game in Chiloquin: Miss Joan Pierce, Jimmie and Billie Wampler and Gene Page.

On Friday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Page entertained a group of friends on the occasion of their 19th wedding anniversary date. A large poinsettia decorated cake, a gift from Mr. and Mrs. Page's son, Gene, was served at the close of dinner. For the occasion, the Christmas motif was carried out in decorations, including a miniature Christmas tree and other Yuletide decorations. Following dinner, cards were played until a late hour. Guests for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Dixon, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Zumburn, Mrs. Joe Taylor, all of Fort Klamath, and Mr. and Mrs. Guy Steiger of Chiloquin. Miss Joan Pierce, Jimmie and Billie Wampler and Gene Page enjoyed refreshments at the

Sprague River

Mr. and Mrs. Wade Crawford and daughter have returned to their home in Medford after spending several days here visiting Mrs. Crawford's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Skeen and a sister, Mrs. Doug Hess and Timmy. Mario Carnini has returned to work after recovering from the flu.

PFC Bobby Claus, son of Mrs. M. Carnini writes that he is now stationed in southern France.

Mrs. Grace Reynolds and daughter Janice have returned from Portland where she spent a few days buying merchandise for the Variety store and visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ramond celebrated their wedding anniversary Wednesday evening with a dinner. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Karpala and Erwin Hageman.

Blanche and Agatha Scotchin, daughters of Mrs. Calvin Barney, have returned from Riverside, Calif., where they have been attending school.

The Sprague River fire equipment has been moved up town. It is to be repaired. Improvements are being made on the building housing the equipment.

Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Michaels were here on Sunday visiting Mr. and Mrs. Charles Borrough and Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Welch. Rev. J. H. Hamilton was able to return to work Monday after being confined to his home with pleurisy.

Mrs. Anna Wolford and Pauline Gran were business visitors in Klamath Falls Saturday evening.

Bobby and Charles Barney visited the past week in Quincy, Calif., with their aunt, Mrs. Joseph De Larne and family. They accompanied their uncle, Pvt. Theodore Barney, there.

Mt. Laki

The Mt. Laki Sunday school will give a Christmas program at the church Friday night, December 22. All are most cordially welcome.

Dorothy Dixon of the University of Oregon, Eugene, is spending the Christmas vacation with

CIO RECOGNIZED

COOS BAY, Ore., Dec. 21 (AP)—The CIO International Woodworkers of America has been recognized as bargaining agent for the employees of H. W. Powell, logging operator for the Bridge Logging company of Reedsport. They recently struck for one day to support demands for recognition of their union.

INDUSTRIES HEAD NAMED PORTLAND, Dec. 21 (AP)—Thomas C. Young, Portland, was elected president of Columbia Empire Industries here last night. Lloyd Riches, Salem, was named first vice president.

Preparing for Santa at Sea

(USCG Photo from NEA) Anticipating Santa Claus—via the funnel of their ship, no doubt—are the above Coast Guardsmen, who are placing gay bangles on the cargo vessel's Christmas tree somewhere in the southwest Pacific. Left to right, they are Curtis Tucker, kneeling, of Alahapa, Ga.; Edward F. O'Reilly, of Roxbury, Mass.; and Carmichael Spicer, of Ames, Iowa.

$100 a Month for Life

The Golden Years Plan gives you:

1. Definite monthly income for life when you wish to retire.
2. Protection for family now.
3. Pays double for accidental death before retirement age.
4. Builds up large cash reserve.
5. Pays steady income if you are permanently disabled.

Oregon Mutual Life INSURANCE COMPANY

LYNN ROYCROFT
EVA L. LONG
118 North 7th Street
Klamath Falls, Ore.

EAGLES ATTENTION!

3 BIG PARTIES FOR YOU
FRIDAY, DEC. 22 — STARTS 7:30
CHRISTMAS PARTY
EATS - DANCING - ENTERTAINMENT

Something for the Children

SPECIAL MEETING

Friday, December 29

JAMES W. BRYAN JR.

Grand Trustee

Will Make His Official Visit
Big Class - Sandwiches - Coffee

Annual New Year's Dance

December 30 — At Armory

Season's Greetings

To all our good friends everywhere we send our deepest best wishes—for the health and safety of loved ones; for the welfare of our great nation; for a speedy Victory and a just peace.

BUY
WAR
BONDS

SICKS' BREWING
SALEM

COMPANY
OREGON