

Couple United at Home of Friend

The home of Mrs. B. F. Pernigotti, 2419 Reclamation, was the scene of a lovely double ring ceremony when Mabel Irene Soderstrom became the bride of Joseph Vincent Watcher at 1:30 on the afternoon of December 10. The Reverend Victor E. Phillips officiated at the wedding, which was performed before a few of the most intimate friends of the couple.

For her wedding the bride chose a gold gabardine suit with brown accessories, and a single purple orchid was pinned to her shoulder. The matron-of-honor was Mrs. Pernigotti, who was dressed in a slate blue gabardine suit, and wore a corsage of gardenias and rosebuds. Sgt. Noel White was best man for the ceremony.

Following the wedding, a reception was held at the Pernigotti home, which had been decorated in yellow and white chrysanthemums for the occasion.

Guests included Mrs. Alice Soderstrom, mother of the bride; Mrs. Mott, Mr. and Mrs. K. A. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Houston, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gordon, Mrs. Zissos, Sgt. Cuola, Sgt. Taylor, Mary Sacher, Mary Trulove, Bernice Heidemann, Flo Ann Eaton, Louise War and Mrs. Terry Ireland. The Watchers have made their home at the Royal Arms apartments, where they plan to remain for the present.

Nurse's Party

The Oregon State Nurses association, district No. 8, held its annual Christmas party on December 21 at the home of Mrs. Katherine Wilson, 421 Alameda.

A musical program was followed by bridge and pinocle. High prize in bridge was won by Inez Edwards, and low by Blanch Howard. High score in pinocle was awarded to Margaret Strode, and low to Margaret Calahan.

A buffet supper was served later by the hostess to Pauline Elkins, Margaret Elkins, Margaret Everett, Jane McKibban, Mary F. Sharp, Lillie Herrington, Gene McEwen, Carol Anderson, Jessie O. Lamb, Marjorie Grover, Helen Thorne, Esther Hunt, Margaret Strode, Iva Olson, Gertrude Whistler, Blanche Howard, Ethel Millar, Inez R. Edwards, Dale Smelcer, Del Campbell, Helen Mount, Lydia Howard, Jean Yates, Katherine Hlatt, Lillie Chilberg, Margaret Calahan, Rose Davis, Mary Adams and Katherine Wilson.

Married

Margaret McDonald, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alex McDonald, 912 Walnut, became the bride of Pvt. Marshall Powell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Powell of Cass Lake, Minn., in a lovely ceremony which took place at the Christian Alliance church in Cass Lake. The wedding was an event of December 10, and the Reverend Howard Batdorf officiated.

For her wedding ensemble, the bride chose a dusty blue dress with light brown accessories, and a corsage of pale yellow roses and purple heather was pinned to her shoulder. Pauline McDonald was her sister's only attendant, and wore a gold dress with black accessories. Her corsage was similar to that of the bride. William Icnsee was best man for his brother-in-law.

The wedding march was played by an Indian missionary from Squaw Point, Minn. "I Love You Truly" was sung by Mrs. Ness who is also of Cass Lake.

A wedding dinner was held immediately following the ceremony at the home of Mrs. William Icnsee, and the table was centered with a military wedding cake.

Pvt. Powell is stationed with the quartermaster corps at Camp Lee, Virginia. Mr. and Mrs. Powell are making their home at Petersburg, Virginia for the present time.

Aloha OES

Aloha chapter No. 61, Order of the Eastern Star, will meet in regular session Tuesday evening, December 26, at 8 o'clock, in the Masonic temple, Klamath avenue. Officers for the ensuing chapter year will be installed at this meeting.

Mrs. Arthur R. Dickson, worthy matron, and Mr. Earl J. Templar, worthy patron, extend a cordial invitation to all members and visiting members to attend the meeting.

Fall Tea

Mrs. John Schubert and her daughter, Nannette, entertained at a fall tea for Mrs. Bert Schultz and Marjorie, who left Friday for San Jose, California.

The tea was an event of Sunday, December 17 and guests arrived between the hours of two to five. The rooms were decorated with holly and evergreen and the tea table was centered with a large red candle tied with a wide red satin ribbon, with small pieces of holly, evergreen and pine cones attached to the streamers.

Invitations were extended to nearly 40 intimate friends of Mrs. Schultz and her daughter, Silvia McClellan poured from three to five, June Dixon from three to four, and Patricia Benoit from four to five.

Marjorie is the present queen of Jobs Daughters, and Mrs. Schultz has been very active in Klamath Falls during her residence here. For the past year she has been a guardian at the Jobs Bethel, and was a member of the high school board, as well as vice president of the Oregon Congress of PTA.

Mrs. Schultz and her daughter are to join Barbara Schultz, an older daughter, in San Jose, where they are planning to make their home for the duration.

Birthday

Patricia Diane and William Douglas Boyer were given a birthday party on Monday, December 18, by their mother, Mrs. William L. Boyer. The affair which was given at their home on Alameda was the celebration of the children's fourth and second birthdays, respectively.

The table and birthday cake were decorated in the pink and blue motif, and places were set for Marietta O'Neil, Jerry and Lowell Uhlig, Martin Snyder, David and Judy Schnebeck, Jean Gardiner, Paula and Duane Cook, Carol Stok, Stuart Melchert, Roberta Tucker, Mrs. Troy Cook, Mrs. William Stok, Mrs. M. H. Melchert, Mrs. Edwin Schnebeck and Mrs. George Tucker.

Mrs. Tucker was presented with a corsage, honoring her birthday which is also on December 18.

League Serves

Sunday, December 17, members of the League of Women Voters and their husbands served at the USO center. Workers included Mr. and Mrs. Godfrey Blohm, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Dennis, Mrs. Twyla Ferguson, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Geary, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Gralapp, Mrs. E. P. Livingston, Mr. and Mrs. John McFee, Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Loosley, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Odell, Mrs. Dean H. Osborn, Mrs. Rose Poole, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd C. Ranker, Mr. and Mrs. Laton Stephens, Mr. and Mrs. Donald F. McKay, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Woodruff and Mr. and Mrs. Roland E. Wright.

Homemade cakes were donated by those who worked at the center, and several other members who could not be present.

VFW Party

The VFW, Pelican post 1383, and the ladies auxiliary held their annual open house Christmas party on Thursday, December 21. Over 250 were present for the long form initiation which was put on by the men. Four service men were initiated at the beautiful and impressive ceremony.

A buffet luncheon was served later, which was followed by dancing. The rooms were decorated in red, white and blue to carry out the patriotic theme of this organization.

Mr. and Mrs. Max McKenzie arrived Saturday to spend the Christmas holidays with Mrs. Chester Burman, mother of Mrs. McKenzie. Mr. McKenzie is a petty officer 3/c in the Coast Guard, and is stationed at Coos Bay, Ore. The young couple plan to remain here until Tuesday.

RECENT BRIDE

Mabel Irene Soderstrom became the bride of Joseph Vincent Watcher, USMC, in a lovely double ring ceremony held at the home of Mrs. B. F. Pernigotti. The Reverend Victor E. Phillips of the First Methodist church officiated at the wedding which took place on December 10, at 1:30 in the afternoon.

Members Enjoy Holiday Program

Ushering in Christmas week in holiday style, a large group of Klamath County Business and Professional Women gathered about pine bough and cone-bedecked tables at the dinner meeting held Monday evening, December 18, at the Willard hotel.

Evelyn Hudson and Pat Hudson, co-chairmen for the evening, presented groups of Camp Fire Girls and Girl Scouts in a program of songs and music, and introduced the two executives of these organizations, Jewel Cantrell, new Camp Fire executive, and Emma Carter of the Girl Scouts, both of whom spoke briefly.

Joyce Lamb, Darlene Watson and Mary Louise Gernue of the Fremont Brownie troop, appeared in a tap dance, accompanied by Marie Wilson. Four members of the Fremont Bluebird group, Sue Ramsby, Lynedie Kohn, Theresa Morgan and Gail Damon, sang a Christmas song, followed by a Christmas Eve recitation by Mary Jo Ogle of Altamont Girl Scout troop 9. The Senior Girl Scouts, recently reorganized, appeared on the stage in uniforms where they sang several numbers, accompanied by Irma Beasley on the accordion. Betty Glytton, in the uniform of the Mariners, a branch of scouting for the older girls, told of plans for the reorganization of this group in the high school.

"White Christmas," one of the most popular of popular holiday songs, was sung by four Camp Fire Girls, Nora King, Harriett Lavenik, Darlene Smith and Patricia O'Leary.

The Merrill Camp Fire Girls presented a tableau from the Christmas story, of the shepherds and wise men gathered about the Christ child's manger, with Patty O'Conner playing a musical accompaniment on the marimba. Beverly Kohn and Catherine Blanas, in Camp Fire garb, entertained with a piano duet as the closing number of the program.

Contrary to the custom of holding a gift exchange, members of the club this year purchased phonograph records for the Marine Barracks to be presented as a gift from BPW. Gifts were presented to the president, Norma Miller, from the

AT FIRST SIGN OF A COLD USE 666 Cold Preparations as directed.

WOOD Is Not Stationed at Dorris, California FIR and PINE SLABS 16" Slabs $1.50 Per Cord Dry or Green No Deliveries Burt Peterson Dorris, Calif.

College Girls Arrive Home

(Continued From Page Three) of Malin, and Shirlev Dalton of this city.

Mary Awdry and Helen Radcliffe, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Radcliffe, were home Saturday morning, December 23. Mary Awdry is a student at Oregon State college at Corvallis, and Helen is completing her studies at Monmouth Teachers college at Monmouth, Oregon. Others who arrived from OSC earlier in the week were Letty Linman, Patty Shoop, June Van, Patricia Sexton, Betty and Martha Ray and Jean Wiesendanger.

Mrs. William Hopper, the former Mary Lou Johnson, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. E. D. Johnson of Pacific Terrace, arrived home from Pomona college in Claremont, California, on the morning of December 18.

Saddle Club

A very gay and lovely Christmas party was given at the Lakeshore inn Saturday night, December 18, by the members of the Saddle club. Husbands of the members were the guests of honor, and music was furnished during the dinner by Charlie Read.

Several duets were sung later in the evening by Helen Perry and Beth Chase. Cecil Matt played the role of Santa, and distributed a number of attractive presents.

Dancing was enjoyed by all, and a few specialty numbers were given during that time. A few of the members competed for the spinning of tall western yarns.

Those present were Blanche Harmon, Elmer Balsiger, Beth Chase, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Drew Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Read, Mr. and Mrs. Pat Hogue, Mr. and Mrs. Keith Moon, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Ray, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Perry, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Matt, Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Paddock, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Mattoon, Mr. and Mrs. E. McNeely, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Liskey and Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Drew.

Teen-Age Party

(Continued From Page Three)

ney Bell, Roddy Ellis, Kenneth Torgerson, John Young, Douglas Barber, Robert Darron, Bill Ledbetter, Boyd Carstensen, Dick Coggeshall, Bob Hilton, Bruce Irving.

Those who have recently become new members of the club are Gwendolyn Wright, Josephine Smith, Dortha Ackerman, Ruth Berry, Alice Miles, Evelyn Tekes and Cleona Gaston.

The next meeting of January 3, according to announcement by Anne Hallett, chairman, will be an inter-club banquet to be held at the Wi-Ne-Ma banquet room, sponsored by BPW, the Soroptimist club, American Association of University Women and the League of Women Voters.

Guest speaker on this occasion will be Dr. James Millar, field representative for the Oregon Council of Churches, whose topic will be "Our World of Today." Dinner will be served at 6:30, reservations to be taken care of by the individual clubs. Both members and their husbands are invited.

Shower

A bridal shower was held Thursday afternoon, December 14, for Virginia Watts at the Pankey home at Beatty. Hostesses for the affair were Helen Pankey and Jean Gline.

Games were played during the afternoon, after which Mrs. Watts opened her many lovely gifts. Refreshments were served later to Francis Shellhorn, Audrey Anderson, Lila Ross, Doris Staub, Margaret Stiles, Mrs. James Watts, Mrs. Joe Taylor, Mrs. Basil Hall, Mrs. Jody Owens, Lyndell Harrison, Elizabeth Campbell, Veda Dixon, Carrie Smith, Mrs. Arnold, Mrs. Everett Bell and the honor guest.

Last Session of Year Held Wednesday

Friendship Court No. 11, Order of the Amaranth, held the last regular session for the year of 1944, on Wednesday, December 20. The meeting was held at 8 o'clock p. m. at the Masonic temple.

The degree of the order was conferred upon Dr. Dean H. Osborn, Cpl. Donald Finch, Catherine Jackson, Phyllis Poole and Helen Crapo.

Honored Lady Bernice Finch, past royal matron, was given the honor of conferring the degree upon her husband, Cpl. Finch. Honored Lady Lois Cassel, grand musician, and Honored Lady Eva Lea Long, grand truth, were escorted and introduced.

Officers elected at the meeting for the ensuing year were Honored Lady Edith Cassel, royal matron; Sir Knight Clemens Lundy, royal patron; Honored Lady Flo Anne Eaton, associate matron; Sir Knight Jack Schulze, associate patron; Honored Lady Anne Pierce, conductress; Honored Lady Charlotte Martin, associate conductress; Honored Lady Ruth Stanley, secretary; Honored Lady Ellen Gaster, treasurer, and Sir Knight H. E. Jones, trustee.

The room was decorated with fir boughs and cones, with a beautiful Christmas tree laden with gifts, placed on the throne. Following the session, a program, under the direction of Irene Markham, was enjoyed by members and guests, and later a gift exchange was held.

Jennine Selby played two numbers on the piano, and Laverne Ackerman, accompanied by her mother at the piano, sang two Christmas carols. Sanford Selby played several numbers on the saxophone, and was accompanied by his daughter at the piano.

Several members of the organization served punch and cookies from a beautifully decorated table at the close of the evening.

Home for Week

Among the holiday visitors in Klamath Falls will be Pvt. and Mrs. Robert David Payne, (Virginia Bubb), who will arrive Christmas eve from Portland to spend one week with Mrs. Payne's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest M. Bubb of High street.

Janice Bubb will be home to stay after December 23, when she graduates from Stanford university. Janice is also expected Christmas Eve.

St. Paul's Party

The Wednesday club held its annual Christmas party in the parish house of St. Paul's Episcopal church on Wednesday evening. The room and tables were decorated with holly, green and Santa Claus candles, and large bubbling punchbowl, and red and white centered interests on the blazing fireplace.

After a delicious dessert was served to members and guests, gifts were distributed from the beautifully decorated Christmas tree. Twelve tables were in play. High score in pinocle was awarded to Mrs. A. L. Brundt, low score in pinocle went to Mrs. A. L. Brooks, and consolation to Mrs. Frank Niles.

Hostesses for the party were Mrs. William Boyer, Mrs. L. L. Juniper, Mrs. A. G. Wiggin, Mrs. R. C. Ward and Mrs. P. W. Schnebeck.

COOL • COMFORTABLE • SO COMPLETELY BEAUTIFUL

Rilling COLD WAVE

The new Rilling COLD WAVE is the comfortable way to hair beauty. Yes, so cool, so comfortable you will want to enter. Acclaimed by thousands of women the nation over. Call today for your appointment.

Metropolitan Life Insurance
HARRY PELTZ
723 Washington Phone 7844

Palace Beauty Shop
626 Main St. Phone 3111

Christmas 1944
Once Again We Extend Best Wishes
To Our CUSTOMERS and FRIENDS

WITH the breaking of the war clouds and the promised dawn of V-Day, we are given reason to hope for the lifting of the shadow that has darkened most homes.
THEREFORE, we hope for you and yours not only a joyous Holiday Season, but an exceptionally Happy and Prosperous New Year.

MOE'S
THE WOMAN'S STORE, INC.

We Will be Closed on Christmas Day
SARI'S

Moeller's Klamath Flower Shop
Will Be Open Sunday
Dec. 24, from 9 A. M. to 5 P. M.
Closed All Day Christmas Day