

MAYOR NAMES NEW OFFICIALS FOR KLAMATH

One new name appeared in the long list of municipal official appointments, that of City Attorney Henry Perkins, as Mayor Ed Ostendorf named the city family as he took office last night. Perkins replaces J. H. Carnahan, who served for four years under Mayor John H. Houston.

Orville Hamilton was presented with the chief's star to wear during his office as acting chief of police. Mayor Ostendorf made no mention of an appointment to this office, probably the most important on the list.

Hunt Continues
Dr. Calvin Hunt will continue as meat and milk inspector, and other re-appointments include O. D. Matthews, plumbing inspector; E. A. Thomas, city engineer; A. W. Downs, building inspector; Dr. Peter H. Rozendal, city physician; Jack Moore, electrical inspector.

Following are the other appointments which bring into the picture active citizens of the town who will serve on various committees during Mayor Ostendorf's term:

HUNTERS PAROLED FOR MANSLAUGHTER

ALBANY, Jan. 3 (AP)—Four deer hunters who drew maximum penitentiary sentences of five years each after a woman was shot fatally in her trailer home are free on parole today because of a courtroom plea by the victim's husband.

"That's what my wife would have wished," Charles Duncan said in court yesterday. The four, who pleaded guilty to manslaughter, were fined $100 each.

Police said Lee J. Matthews, who fired the shot, told them he mistook a window reflection for the eyes of a deer at a distance of about 500 yards Monday night. Several bullets crashed into the trailer, just missing one of the Duncans' two sleeping children. The husband and a neighbor, Merle Janness, also were in the trailer.

Because spotlight hunting is illegal, Matthews' companions, Clarence Moline, Fabian Cottinair and Arthur R. Andrews, all loggers, were charged jointly. The Duncan trailer is on a logging road 30 miles east of here.

Japs Go From Making Silk to Aircraft
By The Associated Press
Japanese propagandists reported today that half of the nation's silk reeling industry "which formerly served the vanity of American womanhood by making possible the manufacture of superb silk stockings" is manufacturing war planes.

A Domei news agency dispatch recorded by the federal communications commission said: "Young girls of 16 and 17 who used to toil to make it possible for American stenographers and society matrons to flaunt their legs with sheer silk hosiery are already fabricating and riveting aircraft."

Flashes of Life

VICE VERSA
NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 3 (AP)—Mrs. Juliette Aucoin left a war job with Higgins aircraft today to begin basic training in the WAC at Fort Oglethorpe, Ga.

Her husband, Joseph, blind since birth, will travel with her as far as Chattanooga, Tenn., where he plans to work as a machine operator—taking his wife's place in war industry.

SMITH VS. SMITH
MIAMI, Okla., Jan. 3 (AP)—Richard W. (Dick) Smith, 23, youngest man ever to hold the office of county attorney, won't waste any time having his mettle tested.

One of his first cases involves manslaughter. And representing the defendant is a former district judge and one of the ablest criminal lawyers in this section—J. J. Smith, Dick's father.

JOKER
SALT LAKE CITY, Jan. 3 (AP)—Eight persons, including a 78-year-old woman, showed up at a department store, asked for the $50 they had won in a popularity contest. Seems some alleged joker had phoned anonymously, told them to come on down and get their dough.

ROCKFORD, Ill., Jan. 3 (AP)—When the judges finally decide who was the first baby born in Rockford in 1945, the infant's father will be the recipient of an award.

Two cartons of cigarettes are among the prizes to be given to the proud papa.

$165,210 receipts, $159,284 expenditures—New York independent republican committee, receipts $32,136, $31,211 expenditures.

CAMPAIGN FUND REPORTS FILED BY COMMITTEES

WASHINGTON, Jan. 3 (AP)—Democratic and republican national committees spent $4,884,773.14 in the 1944 presidential campaign.

Reports filed with congress today—exclusive of state campaign expenses—showed the democrats spent $2,056,121.58 to re-elect President Roosevelt to a fourth term.

The republican committee said it spent $2,828,651.56 in its unsuccessful campaign for Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York.

The two reports were filed as a special house committee proposed legislation to bring all political campaign organizations under the scrutiny of the corrupt practices act.

The major party reports showed the republicans took in $2,999,999.48—52 cents under the $3,000,000 legal ceiling—in contributions and other receipts for the 1944 campaign.

Democratic contributions and other receipts were listed at $2,056,121.58.

The democratic accounting showed National Chairman Robert E. Hannegan's weekly campaign salary at $384.61. No salary was listed for Republican National Chairman Herbert Brownell.

Other separate accountings filed today—deadline for campaign reports—included: The democratic congressional campaign committee, $134,164 receipts, $132,250 expenditures; Businessmen for Roosevelt, Inc.,

Captain Mutt Leads Dash For Navy's Liberty Call

TREASURE ISLAND, San Francisco, Jan. 3 (AP)—When the call "Liberty party fall out for inspection" is sounded, Captain Mutt leads the wild scramble.

For Captain Mutt is an Australian shepherd and, according to his owner, Bruce A. Young, MM3/c, USN, of Hillsboro, Ore., is strictly a "liberty hound."

"On Captain Mutt's first liberty in San Francisco," Young recalled, "he was AOL (absent over leave) for six days. When he was finally picked up by the shore patrol they threw him in the brig at Yerba Buena. At the time he had a rating of ship's cook, third class, because of his ability to put away the skipper at mast, and was busted to a seaman first and restricted for a week."

Captain Mutt wears 22 tags, bearing names like Guadalcanal and Tulagi, where Mutt was wounded in action as a piece of Japanese shrapnel hit him in the shoulder. He wears the Asiatic campaign ribbon with one battle star, and the Purple Heart.

At the U. S. naval air station, Klamath Falls, the dog was given the run of all civilian and navy transportation.

"It was funny," Young said, "how that dog would tell what bus to get. Just about every day at 1630 he'd run out and jump into the bus, sitting in the seat and looking out the window just like any other sailor going on liberty. And at midnight he'd catch the right bus back to the station."

Morse to Work For More Airline Service
WASHINGTON, Jan. 3 (AP)—Sen.-Elect Wayne Morse (R-Ore.) will work for increased airline service into the Pacific northwest during his senatorial term.

The Oregonian told reporters yesterday he felt air traffic, freight as well as passenger service, would have a great bearing on the future of his region.

Morse, still without a house and as yet unassigned to a legislative office, made his headquarters in the office of Senator Cordon.
