SOCIETY

By Joan Campbell

A CHRISTMAS TRADITION was begun by Mrs. George O. Van Orden after the family moved to California from Virginia several years ago. Colonel Van Orden missed the familiar surroundings, and particularly their home on the Potomac, so his wife decided to make a gingerbread house as an exact replica of their former home. He was so pleased with the results that Mrs. Van Orden has continued her project, which requires 15 hours of work, every year at Christmas.

Leaving Klamath

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Scharfenstein regret to learn that they will leave Klamath Falls soon after January 15, to reside in southern California.

The Scharfensteins have made their home here for the past six years. They will visit for a time with their daughter, Mrs. Charles H. Bishop and family of Los Angeles and plan one week in San Francisco before continuing south. Mr. Scharfenstein has served as manager of Mason, Elks and company and is leaving for the south in the hopes of benefitting his health.

USO Dance

The USO snowball dance was given at the armory on New Year's night, January 1, and was reported to be even more successful than was originally anticipated. Approximately 1500 guests attended the party, and included all of the local servicemen, as well as Junior Hostesses and other girls who are home from college.

The Tulelake Guardsmen played for the dance which lasted from 8:30 to 11:30. The snowball theme was carried out by the girls who wore clusters of white crepe paper snowballs on their wrists, and the hall had been decorated for the occasion by the Junior Hostesses.

An elimination dance was given during the evening, which proved to be amusing as well as competitive. Questions were asked of the group as a whole, and if the individual's answer was an affirmative, he or she must leave the floor. Questions included such things as "Are you wearing heels?" "Are you wearing a corsage?" "Are you from Illinois?" or "Did you drink milk for dinner?"

A conga line was also a part of the evening's entertainment, and several novelty numbers were given by the orchestra.

Special thanks go to the Boy Scouts who were in charge of the coat and check room during the dance.

Elks Formal

Invitations went to Klamath's three military installations this week for the enlisted men's dance, a formal affair to be conducted by the Klamath Falls Elks lodge next Friday night.

J. H. Robbins, chairman of the committee in charge, said that men in uniform with invitations, Elks' cards or Elks' courtesy cards, will be welcome at the dance. Invitations will be available from the recreation and personnel officers at the three posts.

Elks' courtesy cards are given to sons and brothers of Elks in the armed services.

Baldy Evans' orchestra will play at the dance.

Notices of the meetings appear in the social calendar of the newspaper and are announced over the radio.

The officers for the ensuing six months will conduct the next meeting to be held on January 10. They are Mrs. Byron Friedman, president; Mrs. W. B. Yates, vice president; Mrs. Andre Lambert, secretary; Mrs. Louis Sauer, treasurer. Chairmen who have been appointed for the new term are Mrs. R. E. Oakes, Mrs. Guy Harmon, Mrs. E. J. Howell, Mrs. Matt Finnigan and Mrs. S. D. Earhart.

The Sojourners extend a cordial invitation to all newcomers to join their organization, so everyone can get acquainted.

Helen Howry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Howry, had as her holiday guest this past week, Doris Premis of Salem. Both girls are students at St. Vincent's hospital in Portland.

Mrs. Richard Holt Wakefield arrived from South Norwalk, Connecticut to spend several weeks here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Groesbeck of 534 North 9th. Mrs. Holt graduated from KUHS, and is very well known in Klamath Falls.

Among other affairs which were enjoyed during their brief visit was a bridge party given by Mrs. Hopper on Tuesday afternoon, January 2, at the Johnson home. Two tables of bridge were in play with high score going to Merlon Albrecht, and low to Helen Moore.

Guests included Rose Macartney, Peggy Keating, Wanda Shaw, Helen Moore, Merlon Albrecht, the two houseguests, Enid Hoffman and Eleanor Williamson, and the hostess.

Enid Hoffman of Los Angeles and Eleanor Williamson of Chico, California, arrived at the home of Dr. and Mrs. E. D. Johnson on Pacific Terrace to spend a few days with Mrs. William Hopper, the former Mary Lou Johnson, who has been spending the holidays here with her parents. The three girls are students at Pomona college in Claremont, California, and left on Wednesday evening by train for San Francisco, from where they will drive to southern California.

Open House Given to Ring In New Year

Mr. and Mrs. Lane Warren entertained informally Monday evening, New Year's Day, from 5 until 9 o'clock at their home, 746 California avenue, when they invited a group of friends in for open house. The living room was attractive with a decorated Christmas tree and bowls of holly.

Dorothea Ellingson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Ellingson, was hostess at an open house on New Year's Eve at her home on Pacific Terrace. Approximately 20 guests were invited between the hours of 7 to 9. Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Ellingson Jr. greeted between 30 and 40 guests on New Year's Day, when they held an open house at their home or Del Moro from 2 until 6. Punch was served, and the living room was attractively decorated in the Christmas and New Year's theme.

A few friends were invited to the Martin Swanson home on 1940 Melrose for a dinner on New Year's Eve. Dinner was served at 7 o'clock, after which the guests attended the Reames' dance.

Twenty-four guests, including the board of directors and committee heads of the Kiwanis club, were invited to a stag party which was given by E. A. "Taxi" Thomas on Wednesday evening, December 27, at the Pelican party room. Cocktails were served between the hours of 5 and 6.

Cocktails were served in the playroom at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elton Disher on 7655 Fremont, when they entertained a number of friends before the formal dance at the Reames Golf and Country club. Those who were invited between the hours of 9 and 10 were Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Lamb, Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Wright, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Swanson, Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Epley and Lt. and Mrs. Altee Hendricks.

The Paul Farrens' home on 405 North 4th was the scene of an open house on New Year's Day. Cocktails were served to about 50 guests from 5 o'clock on, and a large roast turkey and other trimmings helped to lend a holiday atmosphere.

Wed Recently

Dea Jean Hardy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Hardy, was married on December 24 at 1 p. m. to Cpl. Jack Wright, USMC, son of Mrs. Dora Wright of Medford. The groom recently returned from 30 months of service overseas in the South Pacific.

The couple exchanged vows in the parsonage of the First Baptist church in Sacramento, California, with the Reverend Charles Carman officiating. A lighted Christmas tree served as the only decoration, and the bride was attired in a brown dressmaker suit with a lavender-pink blouse.

Mrs. Wright has taught school in Klamath county for eight years, both at Keno high school and the Altamont junior high. She is a graduate of Oregon State college at Corvallis, and a member of Delta Kappa Gamma sorority.

Cpl. Wright will be here until January 24 when he will report to San Diego for further orders.

Name Officers

St. Paul's Woman's Auxiliary met Thursday at 2 o'clock in the parish house at which time the executive committee entertained. Hostesses were Mrs. Raymond Reeves and Mrs. Lane Warren, assisted by Mrs. R. Heber Radcliffe and Mrs. Roy Lee.

Newly elected officers are Mrs. A. B. Hood, president; Mrs. Roy Lee, vice president; Mrs. Gaylord Upington, secretary, and Mrs. A. J. Lambert, treasurer.

Mrs. Charles F. Scharfenstein, diocesan chairman of St. Margaret's House, gave a full report of activities during her term of office. Mrs. Scharfenstein tendered her resignation at this time as she leaves soon to make her home in southern California.

Tea was served from an attractive table centered with heather and small chrysanthemums.

Barbara Linze and Bill McCully were married in Reno, Nevada on December 22. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Ione Linze of 4230 Austin, and has always lived in Klamath Falls. Mr. and Mrs. McCully are now residing in Dana, California where he is employed.

Newcomers Invited To Join Sojourners

The Sojourners have often been asked the purpose and goals of their organization, and thought that it might be of interest to all local people, as well as those who have arrived since the establishment of the Marine Barracks and Klamath naval air station, to learn something of its origin and aims.

The Sojourners club is a women's organization which was founded in 1937 by the late Mrs. C. E. Elliott, and is sponsored by the Klamath Falls chamber of commerce. The club is a social organization, and is not conducted for profit, but to help all newcomers to this city to become acquainted. A nominal fee is charged at each meeting to defray the expenses of the day.

The Sojourners meet at the Willard hotel on the second and fourth Wednesdays of each month at 1:45 p. m. A no-hostess luncheon is served in the dining room at 12:30 for those who wish to eat there before the meeting, and members are privileged to bring guests to the meetings and parties.

All ladies are eligible to join who have lived in Klamath Falls for less than 18 months, and may become members after attending three meetings.

Other social activities during the year include teas, a summer picnic for the children, and two dinner dances and an evening picnic to which the husbands are invited. Sojourners are active in civic and patriotic affairs, and time is donated to the Red Cross, the USO and the ration board.

Notices of the meetings appear in the social calendar of the newspaper and are announced over the radio.
