MEMBERSHIP FORUM SET BY C OF C

A membership forum of the Klamath county chamber of commerce will be held at the Willard hotel February 5. The session will be followed by a buffet supper.

Reports from each of the committee chairmen will inform members of what has been done, and what is being done by the chamber.

Arrangements for the meeting are in the hands of the forum's committee, under the leadership of John Ashley.

Many of the members have felt that the inside work of this organization should be shown to the membership. A similar meeting was held by the board of directors in December, and was so successful that there have been many requests to give the same type of a session to the members as a whole.

ADOLF BERLE NAMED BRAZIL AMBASSADOR

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10 (AP)—Adolf Berle, Jr., until recently an assistant secretary of state, was nominated by President Roosevelt today to be ambassador to Brazil.

Berle resigned as assistant secretary when the president and Secretary of State Stettinius reorganized the department a few weeks ago. He will succeed Jefferson Caffery, who left the Brazilian post to become ambassador to France.

Grandma Switches Millions of Mothers To Her Mutton Suet Idea For Chest Colds

Pioneer grandma liked to "rub more comfortable—(1) Penetro relieves colds' pain as its mutton suet helps carry medication to nerve ends in the skin. (2) Relieves muscular tightness and congestion through counter-irritation (increased blood flow). (3) Loosens phlegm, eases coughing through pleasant inhalation of instantly released vapor.

You'll feel relief so quickly—as painful misery eases, coughing is lessened, phlegm loosened, chest rawness soothed. You'll rest more comfortably, give nature a chance to restore vitality through sound sleep. That's why so many mothers thank Grandma for her idea—praise Penetro at drug stores everywhere. Penetro at drug stores everywhere. Relieve your chest cold miseries as millions are doing—today get your jar of white, easy-to-use Penetro.

HIGH SCHOOL News Notes and Comment

By BARBARA ROSKAMP

Juanita was lucky enough to have a brief vacation in order to go to Portland this week, so I will try to struggle through today's news, notes, comments.

An assembly was held for the benefit of sophomores, juniors, and seniors Tuesday morning. Guest speaker was Irish-born Dr. James Millar, world lecturer and traveler, who spoke on the part today's youth must take and is taking in a democracy.

H-S is holding a special election Thursday morning to elect a new president. Harry Tindall, head of the organization at the present time, leaves at the end of this semester to enter Pacific university. This group also met Monday night for the purpose of nominating new members. A nominating committee consisting of Jim Clabby, Iver Stride and Bill Abbey was appointed.

The bi-weekly meeting of Chess club was held last night. Plans concerning its formal banquet were discussed and it was tentatively decided to hold it January 26, in the Wi-Ne-Ma hotel dining room. This organization is also planning to purchase Chess club pins in the near future.

Keno was defeated by the Wildcats last night in a game on Pelican court. Final score was 40-20.

Thursday afternoon, the Krater staff will meet sixth period with C. P. Rowe, past advisor, who leaves January 19 to take over teaching duties at Pacific university, and H. O. Palmer, the newly appointed advisor. Plans and policies will be discussed at this time.

Battleship Oregon's Whistle In Use

PORTLAND, Jan. 10 (AP)—The whistle that sounded aboard the old battleship Oregon in the glorious days of her run around the Horn for the battle of Santiago is back on the job again.

Salvaged from the once-proud battlewagon, the whistle is mounted on the sternwheeler Jean, of a Willamette-Columbia river fleet.
