AWARDS SET FOR MARINES AT BARRACKS

Three Bronze Star medals and lour Purple Hearts are scheduled to be awarded to seven marine veterans Saturday at 10:30 s. m. in a ceremony on the barracks parade grounds.

The Bronze Star—a heroism award originated in this warwill go to 1st. Lt. Anthony Joseph Castagna, Ty Sgt. Euborn Lester Boro, and PFC. Paul Richard Dineen.

Castagna was leader of an infantry platoon which bore the brunt of numerous Jap attempts to attack or infiltrate during the Marshall islands fighting. His platoon later ran into an ambush while on a mopping up patrol, but managed to break it up without serious loss.

T/Sgt. Boro was cited for working three days and nights on Saipan, carrying heavy radio equipment to the front lines to replace damaged gear. He made numerous trips from the beach to the front under constant mortar and small arms fire.

Dineen was an automatic rifleman in the Marshalls and was instrumental in breaking up several Jap counterattacks with his fast-firing weapon.

Purple Heart decorations will go to three men wounded on Saipan and one Guam veteran. Cpl. Abner J. Flowers is to receive a Gold Star in Ileu of a second medal, having been wounded on Guadalcanal by machine gun fire and on Saipan by shrapnel.

Cpl. Bruce Peters was a victim of one of the war's freakish accidents. On Suipan he saw a booby trap exploding and yelled a warning to another marine nearby. Rock and shrapnel flew into his open mouth and a fragment lodged in his throat. Peters was evacuated to a hospital ship and operated upon.

Cpl. Clyde Corr, veteran of En i we to k and Guam, was slashed by Jap saber on Guam, and Cpl. Robert J. Rotchford was wounded at Saipan by shrapnel in the arm, eye, hands and neck.

The presentations are to be made by Col. George Van Orden.
