WAGE EARNERS WARNED TO GET W-2 TAX FORMS

Wage earners and salaried persons filing 1944 federal income tax returns must have a statement of earnings on form W-2 from each employer for whom they have worked during the year. It is stated by Paul H. Wright, deputy collector in charge of the Klamath Falls internal revenue office.

Many taxpayers who are appearing daily at the tax office in the post office building requesting assistance in the preparation of their annual income tax returns have not obtained the required forms and find they are unable to file until so doing, Wright said.

The W-2 statements are furnished by all employers who have deducted withholding tax from the earnings of employees and show the correct amount of annual earnings and withholding tax credits. The forms as revised are furnished in duplicate to the employee, the original of which must be attached to the 1944 tax return filed by the taxpayer.

All persons are advised to obtain these statements before calling at the tax office for filing assistance.

AFL Longshoremens Charged With Trying To Disrupt Lendlease

SEATTLE, Jan. 19 (AP)—The AFL International Longshoremen's association was charged with attempting to disrupt lendlease and war supply shipments to Russia through the port of Olympia in a telegram sent by Rosco C. Graycraft, vice president of the International Longshoremen's and Warehousemen's association (CIO) to Adm. Emory S. Land, head of the war shipping administration.

Graycraft charged the AFL union with threatening to "strike Puget Sound ports" by ordering cargo checkers and supercargoes off ships unless they are allowed to replace ILWU longshoremen and checkers who have been performing that work for years.

In reply Pape Crummer, secretary of the ILA checkers association local, asserted the union had stood fast by a no strike pledge and the CIO union was attempting to win government support for "raiding of the rival union."

Soldiers in Italy Bitter Over Long Combat Service

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19 (AP)—Reporting that many soldiers are bitter because they are kept too long at battle, Rep. Clarence Boothe Luce (R-Conn.) called Thursday for a fixed limit on the time a man is required to serve under fire without relief.

In a statement prepared for the house on her recent tour of war zones, the blond congresswoman declared that, for example, the 34th division in Italy has had over 400 actual combat days. She continued:

"There is no overall or fixed policy which will get the individual soldier out of battle when he shall have reached the limit of his human endurance which is almost the limit of his individual efficiency."

"The combat soldier, she said, 'too often' comes to feel that 'he can't win,' that if his division fights on a front which will be bitterly contested for months his only future is to be 'replaced'—which generally means killed or wounded."

A member of the house military committee that visited the European war zones in December, Mrs. Luce reported "we discovered battle lulls and shortages," and she blamed the home front for "the battlefield shortage of whole blood—blood from O, or 'universal type' donors."

Mrs. Luce devoted much of her speech to a description of the valor of the American fifth army in Italy, which she described as "the bitterest as well as the proudest army in Europe."

Men of the fifth are bitter, she said, because many people at home "either have forgotten or underestimated the task they have performed, and that still remains before them."

She praised the performance of the British eighth army fighting with the American fifth in Italy.

Butter Racket Isn't Working In Portland
PORTLAND, Jan. 19 (AP)—The butter racket isn't working any more.

Grocery clerks said today they'd tumbled to a system by which women have been making off with double their butter buy.

The housewife pays money and points, takes the butter, then returns in a minute empty-handed. "Remember me?" she inquires. "I just bought a pound of butter. You took my money and ration points, but forgot to give me the butter."

For a spokesman, clerks said a trade copesman, clerks believed the story.

HOUSE TO DEBATE NATIONAL SERVICE

LARSONS RECEIVE WORD FROM SON

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Larson of 146 Octavia, were thrilled Thursday to receive the second word in more than three years from their 23-year-old son, FMI'er Ernest T. "Ted" Larson Jr., USMC, who has been a prisoner of the Japanese since December 7, 1941.

A letter, written in Ted's handwriting on paper which carried Japanese characters, was sent August 3, 1944. Larson was stationed with the marines at Tientsin, China, at the outbreak of the war and on the day the Japs bombed Pearl Harbor, his marine outfit was taken as prisoners. Ted gave his POW address as Asaka, Nippon. Here is the letter:

"Dear Folks: I take this opportunity to write to you again and I hope you get this one. All is well with me and I am looking forward to the time when we will all be together again. Don't worry about me at all.

"It will soon be my birthday again and it will make the third under these circumstances. Maybe I'll be home before the next one. Has Dot added any to her family? And has Pat got a beau yet? It seems funny to think about these things. Tell everyone hello for me and the best of luck to you all. Your loving son, Ted."
