BROWNELL PROGRAM APPROVED BY GOP

(Continued From Page One) had presented for their approval. Vote of Confidence—Walter Hallanan, West Virginia committee member, said the committee's action in effect constituted a vote of confidence for Brownell. Nelson was greeted with silence when he told the committee that because Brownell's law firm in New York represents large corporations, the retention of the present chairman might alienate labor votes.

"The chairman should determine now whether his personal interests are more important than the republican party's interests in the United States," Nelson declared. Almost without comment on this one-man revolt, the committee swiftly approved Brownell's program. Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York took hand indirectly today in the republican national committee's midwinter meeting by sending word to some members that Herbert Brownell Jr. is doing "a grand job" as chairman.

DAVIG CHARGED WITH SLAYING

(Continued from Page One) ploy has held steadfast in his denial that he killed Ewing who was found shortly after noon Friday, January 12, near the Kalpine plant southwest of Klamath Falls. Ewing died a few hours later at Klamath Valley hospital. Davig had previously admitted seeing Ewing the afternoon and evening of January 10, and said he had loaned him his car at that time. Turned in Gun—Davig had brought a .32 Smith and Wesson pistol to Sheriff Lloyd L. Low on Wednesday of last week and the gun was immediately forwarded to Dr. Joseph Beeman, criminologist, who advised the sheriff early Thursday afternoon that bullets found in Ewing's body came from the gun which Davig had said was in the car the night Ewing borrowed the machine. At a late hour Monday, Davig had not retained an attorney.

Sgt. Kujawski Held Prisoner

S/Sgt. Charles Kujawski, United States army infantry, who has twice been reported missing in action in the European theater, is now a prisoner of war in Germany, according to word received by his wife, the former Patricia Gheller, an employee of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company. Word came to the soldier's wife and three-year-old son, "Corky," Saturday night. Kujawski was first reported missing October 4, in Germany. He rejoined his outfit on October 20. At that time he was promoted from private first class to staff sergeant because of his combat service. Second report that Kujawski was missing, came to his family November 17, in a letter written by him from Stalag 11-B. They had not been informed by the war department, Mrs. Kujawski said. Her husband went overseas in June, 1944, took part in the liberation of Paris and then went into Belgium with the army.

Swift-Moving Yanks Capture Luzon Town

(Continued From Page One) Tarlac brought to five the American bases on Luzon for further air blows at Japanese troops and supplies. The largest is at Lingayen. Yank airmen have dominated the Luzon skies since invasion day. U. S. doughboys, pressing eastward toward another good highway to Manila—this one following a circuitous foothill route steering clear of rivers and swampland—captured Victoria La Paz east of Tarlac.

UNSENT HOLIDAY DECATUR, Ill., Jan. 22 (AP)—Lt. Wayne Hatfield, a naval flyer, wrote his parents that he didn't get to spend Christmas anywhere. He explained he crossed the international date-line in the Pacific about 20 minutes before midnight, December 24.

Schoonover offered $2500. Finally they agreed to flip a coin—double or nothing. Schoonover lost and paid $6000 for the stallion.

SYNTHETIC DIET

CHICAGO, Jan. 22 (AP)—Last week a chilly robin turned up its beak at crumbs proffered by Mr. and Mrs. Irv Bullard and began pecking forlornly at the snow in search of a worm. The Bullards, afraid the bird would starve, rolled pieces of meat loaf into worm shapes and tossed them into the yard. The robin ate the ersatz worms flew away, returned with his mate and later four other robins showed up for worms—and got them. "Keeping robins in the winter isn't so hard," said Bullard, "all you have to do is understand them."
