Katherine Irene Ess, for many years a resident of the Keno-road district, died at Klamath Valley hospital Tuesday night following a lengthy illness. Miss Ess was 46 years of age at the time of her passing.

Ess was 46 years of age at the time of her passing. Miss Ess was born March 30, 1998, in Delta, Colo., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Ess of the Ashland route. She attended lo-cal schools, was a graduate of the old Klamath county high school in 1917, and Humboldt State Teachers college, Arcata, Calif. Miss Ess taught in the Orindale and Keno schools for six years but ill health kept her from following that profession. Several years ago, Miss Ess took an active part in Prosperity Rebekah lodge of Klamath Falls. She was a past noble grand and district deputy president of the lodge, as well as a member of the drill team. More than one and one-half years ago, Miss Ess underwent an operation from which she had never fully re-covered. She was moved to Klamath Valley hospital last Thursday. In addition to her parents.

Klamath Valley hospital last Thursday. In addition to her parents, Miss Ess is survived by one sis-ter, Mrs. Robert McGhehey, and two nephews, Donald of this city and Stanley who is in the South Pacific with the United States army. Final rites will be an-nounced by the Earl Whitlock Funeral home.

Much interest is being shown in the annual Doernbecher bene-fit bridge tea which will be given Saturday at 1:30 p. m., at the Willard under the sponsorship of the Klamath Falls Woman's Lithe Klamath Falls Woman's Li-brary club. Cards will start at 1:30 with tea served from 4 to 5 o'clock. Those not wishing to play cards are urged to come for tea. All proceeds will go to Doernbecher hospital for children in Portland. Those on the calling committee are Mrs. Loren Palmerton, 6624; Mrs. J. C. Hunt, 7428; Mrs. R. E. Oakes, 4334; Mrs. Effie Rideout, 5880; Mrs. Leo N. Huls, 5243. Mrs. Stephen Kasper, 3518, is handling the calling for navy and marine wives. Reservations may be made with any member of the calling committee.

be toastmaster for the occasion. At the student council meet-ing yesterday, Bob McLean, stu-dent body president, called for a straw vote regarding the year-book this year. It was the opin-ion of the council that more space should be devoted to the seniors, their class prophecy and will, and other articles pertain-ing to their class. Therefore, this year, as in the past two years, a senior yearbook will be published rather than a KUHS yearbook, which would contain group pictures of the other three classes.

ber of years jater. Mr. Langer's death occurred April 28, 1944. A short time before leaving Klamath Falls, Mrs. Langer dis-posed of her property interests here to a brother, Will Humph-rey of this city. The property included a quarter of a block on the corner of 7th and High, across from Fremont school. Mrs. Langer had resided at that place for many years. In addition to two daughters, Mrs. Hazel Alford of Gerber, Calif., and Mrs. Beatrice Tem-plar of Vallejo, Mrs. Langer is survived by three sisters, Mrs. Ida Howard and Mrs. Edith Cox of Portola, Calif., and two broth-ers, Will Humphrey of this city and Charles Humphrey of Red-ding. Mrs. Langer was active in affairs of Prosperity Rebekah lodge, No. 104, Aloha chapter, No. 61, Order of the Eastern Star, and Iadies auxiliary to Can-ton Crater, No. 7. Final rites for the beloved matron will be held from the chapel of the Earl Whitlock Fu-neral home. Thursday at 3 p. m., with the Rev. Victor Phillips of the First Methodist church of-ficiating. Interment will take place in the family plot at Link-ville cemetry. The remains were to arrive at noon today from the scuth.
