Word Received From Man In Jap Prison
Mrs. Lloyd F. Pepple, 1985 Auburn, has received the first word in three years from her husband, who was a construction worker on Wake island when it fell about three years ago. Pepple is now held in the Fukuoka prisoner of war camp on Honshu island. His mother and father live on Summers lane.

Part of the card, written in July, 1944 follows:
"Dearest Katie and all,
"Another chance to write a few words. How are you getting along? Send three late snapshots. Hope to hear from you soon."
Mrs. Pepple believes that the snapshot reference is a request for pictures of herself and their two sons.
