

Get Dimes (and Dollars) Marching

Swing into that March of Dimes that helps fight infantile paralysis. Every cent is needed, that disease requires more costly treatment than almost any other, averaging $1000 a case. Contributions of Mr. and Mrs. America have enabled the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis to make this costly care available. Keep up the good work!

Salem Man Trees, Shoots Cougar on Squaw Point

MERRILL—What is believed to be the first cougar killed on the west side of Upper Klamath lake in 30 years was treed and shot January 18 on Squaw point by Lewis Wampler, Salem. Wampler, son of W. H.

Bill Prepared to Drive Out Illegal Pinball Machines

SALEM, Jan. 25 (AP)—Rep. John Steelhammer, Salem, who is disappointed that his two-year-old pinball tax law isn't producing much revenue, said today he is preparing a bill to drive out illegal pinball games and slot machines. The new bill would require state tax commission agents to make weekly reports on the illegal machines. These reports would be turned over to the governor for prosecution. Steelhammer said the illegal machines are driving out the legal pinball games, and thus depriving old age pensioners of the tax revenue.

Red Ambassador Returns to Moscow

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25 (AP)—The soviet embassy disclosed today that Russian Ambassador Andrei Gromyko has gone to Moscow for consultations. London reported earlier that Fedor Gusev, soviet ambassador to Britain, has returned to the Russian capital, presumably in connection with plans for the forthcoming "Big Three" meeting.

Nazi War Prisoner Dies of Tuberculosis

FORT LEWIS, Jan. 25 (AP)—In accordance with terms of the Geneva convention, a German prisoner of war who died of tuberculosis was buried yesterday at the post cemetery with full military honors. The body of PFC Gefreiter Karl Simon lay in state under the official German flag in the stockade chapel attended by a guard of fellow prisoners. Catholic services were held at the chapel by Chaplain Leo Hansen, and the prisoner was buried with the sounding of taps and a salute fired by U. S. army troops.

Former Eagle Squad Member Killed

PORTLAND, Jan. 25 (AP)—Lt. Benjamin A. Taylor, 27, who left Albany and Salem to gain fame as a war flier, has been reported killed in an army airplane crash in England, December 22. Lt. Taylor joined the famed RAF Eagle Squadron and flew in the first British air raid over Germany. After transfer to the United States air force he piloted General Eisenhower on several missions.

Portlanders See Tub Travelling On Street

PORTLAND, Jan. 25 (AP)—A series of Portlanders reported to police that a bathtub was whirling along the street all by itself. Police squads went out to the different streets where passers-by had spotted the tub, but didn't catch up. Apparently, said police, the tub was at the end of a long tow rope attached to an automobile.

Flashes of Life

By The Associated Press
FIRST AID
SPOKANE, Wash., Jan. 25 (AP)—Robert Iif, watchman at a market, challenged a burglar. The bandit attacked him with a flashlight and knocked him to the floor. Then, before leaving, the bandit helped the watchman to the sink, washed his cut and gave him first aid.

MODERN GRANDMA
LONG BEACH, Calif., Jan. 25 (AP)—None of this rocking chair and knitting business for white-haired Mrs. Laura E. Burwell. Mrs. Burwell, mother of nine children and with three great-grandchildren, operates a drill press at an aircraft plant. Her age? Well—she'd rather talk about the drill press.

THANKS, COME AGAIN
LOS ANGELES, Jan. 25 (AP)—Forty years ago the Los Angeles county board of supervisors constructed a county highway bridge. Recently they rebuilt it. Now the board finds they went over into neighboring Orange county to do all of that work. Supervisor Raymond Darby wants to know, won't Orange county at least take over maintenance?

SPECIAL DELIVERY
KANSAS CITY, Jan. 25 (AP)—Henry Stern, executive of a bond investment concern, spent some months trying to locate a client who held $5000 in bonds which had been called. Stern wanted to pay him his money. He finally got a clew—a faint one. "Last time I heard of him, he was in some nudist colony out near San Diego," an acquaintance told Stern. So Stern addressed a letter to the customer "Care of nudist colony in vicinity of San Diego." The post office found his man.

COULDN'T RESIST
PITTSBURGH, Jan. 24 (AP)—When asked to explain why she was a half hour late for jury duty, Mrs. Katherine Murry proudly displayed a package and said her housewife instincts would not permit her to pass up a butter line. The judge forgave her tardiness.

DISABLED
TULSA, Okla., Jan. 25 (AP)—Frank James II, of Black Springs Ark., can't enter the checker tournament next week. James explained: "A tree fell on me and injured an old hurt. I thought I could make it, anyway, but a horse hurt me again trying to throw me and I was told not to do anything to hurt myself again, but unfortunately I did."

To help maintain your highest vitality
HELP GUARD BLOOD'S "IRON LEVEL" WITH THIS DELICIOUS CEREAL

One-ounce dish of KELLOGG'S All-Bran gives over 1/3rd your daily minimum iron needs
YOUR blood wears out just like most other parts of your body. It must be replenished daily—to keep vitality up to par. To make this new blood, iron is one of the essential things. The best way to get iron is in foods. But few foods provide significant amounts of iron. Thus, your diet can be poor in iron without your knowing it—and your "iron level" may decline. Fortunately, however, there is one well-known breakfast cereal that is extra rich in iron. And that is KELLOGG'S ALL-BRAN, which provides even more available iron than spinach. In addition to being rich in this vital element, KELLOGG'S ALL-BRAN is an important, natural source of calcium, phosphorus, vitamins B, B, and niacin. This nut-brown crunchy breakfast cereal is made from the vital outer layers of finest wheat . . . chock-full of nutritive elements.

DONOR OF 16 PINTS OF BLOOD
IF HEALTHY, WHY DON'T YOU DONATE BLOOD?
Mr. John P. Issel of 4428 N. LaPorte, Chicago, Ill. has given 16 pints—has been donating regularly since Pearl Harbor. Such patriotic men and women, everywhere, can tell you that anyone in good health can give blood. For the fluid part of the blood is restored in a few hours; the red corpuscles are soon rebuilt if the "iron level" of the body is properly maintained.

KELLOGG'S All-Bran is made from the VITAL OUTER LAYERS of finest wheat
You know that the skin of a potato and the peel of an apple are richest in vitamins and minerals. Into the vital outer layers of the wheat, as well, Nature has packed some of the richest gifts of sun and soil. ALL-BRAN is made of these vital outer layers and is more abundant in many needed food elements than even whole wheat itself.
America's Great Regulating Food
Besides being a storehouse of important food elements, delicious KELLOGG'S ALL-BRAN is Nature's great regulating cereal. Millions eat it regularly. A one-ounce serving is usually adequate for satisfactory laxation. ALL-BRAN, triple-milled for golden softness, does not interfere with normal digestion. Make sure your family gets a good start on its daily quota of iron and other vital elements so plentiful in ALL-BRAN! Serve KELLOGG'S ALL-BRAN regularly at the breakfast table, beginning today!

Relaxation of Rules On Liquor Proposed

OLYMPIA, Jan. 25 (AP)—A bill designed to enable non-residents to purchase liquor in Washington without delay was introduced Wednesday in the 29th Washington legislature by Rep. Edward F. Riley (D-King). The proposed legislation would direct the state liquor control board to set up rules permitting non-residents to make purchases for at least 10 days, or until valid usable permits have been issued. Blood tests for syphilis would be required of all applicants for marriage licenses under terms of a bill offered by Sen. Donald Black (D-Clallam) and licenses would be denied those infected to such a stage that their infection is communicable or potentially so. An appropriation of $1000 is sought to carry on the examination program.
