Douglas MacArthur revealed that one Japanese division was captured by Yanks of the brigade defending the city. The Japanese had been "practically destroyed" in the long fight, the enemy has been forced to his northern reserves in the Baguio sector to support the remnants of his forces as the approaches northward.

Japs may be playing a game akin to that of the Hun who paced clear into camp before they were to be taken. They may be standing while we drive a deep into the Luzon plain, hoping in later from the bite off our salient as off Von Rundstedt's Belgium.

Other implication is they never did intend to dezone to the last ditch with us—and that suggestion optimistic to be safely with all we can do is to wait.

Washington over place grows in intensity. developments suggest senate is saying to "DR" have Henry as his No. 1 banker.

But not a realistic conclusion that if FDR a LIBERAL LENDER in the government's huge enterprises he will get the wants—for he has the power. If he doesn't place, he'll probably get by else of the same stripe. Don't forget that a too tenderly always sows at is harvested when the TO PAY UP comes.)

One sure thing is that we're getting the harmony President and congress are to forecast by return.

barely more than a half mile from the outskirts of Colmar (46,000), historic capital of upper Alsace. Colmar is 38 miles southwest of Strasbourg.

The third army reached the German-Luxembourg frontier on an eight-mile stretch of the Our river.

Closing Up
North of the first army, the U. S. ninth and British second were closed up to the Roer and through the Siegfried line in many places, potentially threatening the Ruhr and Rhineland and their great cities.

To the south, the third army was either near or across the border all the way to Saarbrücken.

Rest Allowed
Thus Gen. Eisenhower's forces were deployed along or beyond 200 miles of the Siegfried line all the way from Holland to the south part of the Saarland. The slow reversal of the Ardennes bulge had squeezed perhaps 20 American divisions from the straightened salient, allowing them rest for the next battle.

From dusk last night until dawn today allied planes swept over German areas behind the west wall, disrupting continued German movements from the Ardennes. Mosquitoes took up where 2000 bombers left off at nightfall.

Opposition to the pre-dawn onslaught which caught the nazis by surprise yesterday and gained two miles still was "light to moderate," Gen. Eisenhower's communique said. On all sectors, 16 villages were taken.

Bureau Plans No Water Diversion
SACRAMENTO, Calif., Jan. 29 (AP)—The U. S. bureau of reclamation has no plan for diversion of Upper Klamath river water in the near future into the Sacramento river basin, R. S. Calland, assistant regional director of the bureau, told a joint legislative committee today.

In later years, he said, the diversion may be necessary. But, he said, the bureau has been aiding U. S. army engineers in studies of the proposed diversion by furnishing data which the reclamation service has on hand.

A. D. Edmonston, deputy state engineer, informed the committee that diversion from the Klamath was included in the state-wide water plan, formulated over a period of years, but that he did not believe any action is contemplated within the next 10 years.

Exclusive School For Boys Closed By Board of Health
LENOX, Mass., Jan. 29 (AP)—The Duncan school for boys was ordered closed today by the board of health because of what the board chairman described as "very bad sanitary conditions."

Mrs. Elizabeth Flynn, the chairman, said the building, from which 22 boys were taken Saturday night by state police, would not again be used as a schoolhouse by William Duncan. Duncan returned to Lenox this afternoon from New York. He told newspapermen that "necessary repairs will be made in the heating system and the school will reopen in a week or sooner. The only trouble was with the heating system which broke down. We had sufficient fuel in the building."

MITCHELLS PLASTER SMALL JAP ISLAND

ELEVENTH AIR FORCE HEADQUARTERS, ALEUTIANS, Jan. 28—(Delayed)—(AP) Low flying army Mitchell bombers plastered tiny Torishima Retto island off Paramushiro with demolition bombs yesterday (east longitude time).

The island, believed to be a Japanese warning outpost, was hit by Mitchells Jan. 1. They strafed the 1000-foot island and dropped incendiary bombs. Eight Japanese fighters rose to intercept the bombers in the latest attack and the American planes probably destroyed two and damaged four. Inaccurate machine gun fire came from Torishima and two Mitchells were damaged slightly, but all returned to their Aleutians base.

Tokyo Says Japs Sink U. S. Ships
(By the Associated Press)
An unconfirmed Tokyo radio broadcast said today that Japanese submarines sank three transports and an oil tanker off the Pacific coast of the United States.

The broadcast, recorded by the federal communications commission, attributed its information to a Japanese Domei agency wireless dispatch from a certain base on the central Pacific front. It did not say when the alleged sinkings occurred.

Previously the Germans had announced that Schneidemuhl, inside the German border and on the same railway, had been encircled.

Swedish eyewitnesses said the way had moved close enough to Berlin for gunflashes to be seen at night from the German capital.

Pole Town Taken
Marshal Ivan Petrov's fourth Ukrainian army has captured Nowy Targ, Poland, 38 miles south of Krakow, Marshal Stalin announced in an order of the day.

German officials were moving their offices from the threatened capital and 20 trains evacuated of the populace, said a Swedish national just come from Berlin. Foreign diplomats were making preparations to leave and foreign correspondents were ordered to depart, he said.

Encirclement of Schneidemuhl, a city of 41,000, cut the main Berlin-Danzig railway at a point 135 miles northeast of the capital, but directly east of Berlin. German reports placed the Russians much closer, about 95 miles.

Bridges Wins Review of Case

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29 (AP) Harry Bridges, west coast CIO labor leader, today won a supreme court review of the legal fight he has made against deportation to his native Australia.

Bridges asked aid of the high tribunal in seeking to block a deportation order issued by Attorney General Biddle in May, 1942. Biddle at that time said Bridges was a member of the communist party and asserted the party advocated "violent overthrow" of the United States government.

In granting Bridges a review, the high court denied a request of the Communist Political Association that it be permitted to intervene in the case as a friend of the court. Justice Jackson took no part in consideration of Bridges' application.

Ban Lifted
The ban on reporting Hopkins' presence in London, imposed by the American embassy, was lifted shortly after noon. Hopkins himself made no great secret of his arrival here, even holding an off-the-record press conference early last week.

It was not until the Paris radio announced that Hopkins was reported conferring now with Gen. De Gaulle that this part of the preparations for the Big Three meeting would be disclosed.

Hopkins and U. S. Ambassador John G. Winant were closeted for long hours with Churchill and Foreign Secretary Eden during the week in a concentrated effort to reach a solid Anglo-American front before sitting down with Stalin.

approach to this problem by experts in the field of taxation would be of untold benefit to our state. I suggested nationally-recognized experts. If the report and subsequent action are to be fully effective as far as attracting industrial development is concerned, then the work and the report should be recognized and accepted nationally.

PARKER HELD BY FBI ON INVASION

Alonzo Parker, charged with grand larceny in a complaint signed by Seth Dixon, Fort Klamath rancher, was being held today at Fort Lewis, Wash., following his arrest by the federal bureau of investigation as a draft evader.

Emily Dorothy Riddle, who told Portland detectives that she was not Parker's wife although the complaint named her as Dorothy Parker, was also in custody, according to Sheriff Lloyd L. Low. Miss Riddle also faces a charge of grand larceny.

The couple was said to have stolen goods from the Dixon place after the owners had gone south for the winter. Miss Riddle took detectives to the place in Portland where she said she and Parker had disposed of the loot.

All was recovered but a typewriter and camera. Some $600 worth of guns and other articles have been located, the sheriff was advised.

Low said that Parker was picked up January 13 as a draft evader and moved to Fort Lewis. He then was reported AWOL from the post and officers alleged he went from Washington to Portland where he sold the goods taken from the Dixon ranch. He was arrested later in Portland.

Much Confusion
Dr. Rudolf Semmler, nazi commentator on the home service radio, said "rows" had developed in the handling of thousands of Germans in flight before the Russians and that there was considerable confusion within the reich.

Declaring that the migration was one of the greatest in history, the commentator said "It was unavoidable at the beginning that disorganization and rows ensued owing to incompetence."

Difficult Migration
The fear and suffering of the refugees was described by Semmler who said "Never before has such a peoples' migration from east to west taken place under such difficult circumstances."

"The suddenness of events prevented many women from taking anything with them. The roads were not safe. The means of transport utterly primitive. It was icy cold."

Wool Growers Called On to Protest Taking Of Needed Laborers
FORT WORTH, Tex., Jan. 29 (AP)—G. N. Winder of Craig, Colo., president of the National Wool Growers' association, today called upon leaders of the industry to take a "vigorous stand on the drafting of essential agricultural workers in violation of the Tydings amendment."

Winder spoke at the opening session of the association's 80th annual convention. The meeting ends Wednesday.

"It seems to me that before taking farm labor, the government should clean out some of the manpower in various government agencies. I am thinking of those who have to do with agricultural projects, such as the AAA soil conservation service, etc.," Winder said.

Stilwell Predicts Last Stand on Asia
WASHINGTON, Jan. 29 (AP)—General Joseph W. Stilwell predicted today the Japanese army of perhaps 4,000,000 men may make its final stand on the mainland of Asia.

The new commander of army ground forces and former commander in China told a news conference that the enemy "easily" can replace the manpower losses so far inflicted upon them.

Asked whether he thought there was any possibility that the Japanese would collapse before their defeat on the battlefield, Stilwell replied "No sir, I don't."
