

Mrs. Bathiany To Reside at Harbor

Mrs. Harry W. Bathiany, who has made her home in Klamath Falls for many years, said goodbye to friends here this week when she left for Harbor to take up her permanent residence. Mrs. Bathiany was accompanied to Harbor this past Friday by Mrs. Martha McCollum who will spend the weekend at the Bathiany coast house. Although Mrs. Bathiany has had her home at Harbor for a number of years, she seriously entered the business a short time ago and intends to devote her full time to this venture.

A number of farewell affairs were planned for Mrs. Bathiany prior to her departure. Sunday evening Mrs. McCollum entertained with a dinner party at her home on Jefferson street honoring Mrs. Bathiany. Other guests included Mr. and Mrs. Roy Schmidt of Medford, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Arnold, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Lorenz, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Backes, Mrs. Francis R. Olds, Mr. and Mrs. William Lorenz of Chiloquin, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Crawford and Ellen Upp.

Mrs. Sheldon Brumbaugh entertained with an informal luncheon at the Pelican last week and Mrs. Bathiany was honored with a shower. Places were set for the honor guest and Mrs. Erle Hamilton, Mrs. Stephen Sabo, Mrs. Charles Garcelon, Mrs. Emil Albrecht, Mrs. Earl Gardner, Mrs. A. C. Backes, Mrs. Clara Shaw, Mrs. Don Finch, Mrs. G. C. Lorenz, Mrs. Martha McCollum and Mrs. Brumbaugh.

The Edith Cunnning Book club, of which Mrs. Bathiany has long been a member, honored her at the last meeting which was held at the home of Mrs. Erle Hamilton. A book on collecting was presented the guest.

A shower of garden tools and gardening equipment was given for Mrs. Bathiany when Chapter U of PEO Sisterhood met with Mrs. Ralph W. Stearns for the January meeting. Twenty-two members were present.

Mrs. Phil Brinker entertained for members of TNT Bridge club at her home on Lakeshore drive and Mrs. Bathiany, a member of the group, was presented with a gift. A guest of the evening was Mrs. Robert Browning.

Stork Shower

In honor of Mrs. Fred Horn, a shower was given on Wednesday, January 31, at the home of Mrs. J. A. Balcom, 2215 Orchard, with Mrs. W. A. Ferrell assisting.

The gifts were presented in a dainty pink and blue basket and the favors were cleverly made storks. A number of interesting and appropriate games were played during the afternoon.

The invited guests included Mrs. Aldo Ferrari, Mrs. Gerald Coleman, Mrs. Len McKinnon, Mrs. Ben Runnels, Mrs. L. J. Brink, Mrs. Edith Pritchett, Mrs. Ray Migliaccio, Mrs. A. F. Bonotto, and Mrs. George Gerbino.

Merry Mixers

Jo Paup was hostess to the Merry Mixers club on Thursday evening, January 25, at her home on Madison and Cottage. A short business meeting was followed by pinocle. Two favors for high score were given to Dora Hillman and June Collins, who were two guests at the meeting. Ruth Anderson received second award.

The members attending were Ruth Lawrence, Dorothy Smith, Eleanor Curtis, Maxine Rose, Marie McDonald, Alberta Allen, Louise Cramblet, Ruth Anderson and the hostess, Louise Cramblet, 2117 Oak, will entertain the club at the next meeting night.

St. Paul's Women

The St. Paul's Women's auxiliary met at the home of Mrs. Horace Getz on Thursday afternoon. The business meeting was followed by a book review by Addie May Nixon, the children's librarian who spoke on Harry Emerson Fosdick's "On Being a Real Person." The author stresses the necessity for self study and understanding, and states that one must recognize his capabilities and shortcomings before he can begin to build his personality.

Happy Day

On Wednesday evening, January 31, the Happy Day Sewing club met with Mrs. Lloyd Allen on 2245 Orchard way, with Mrs. W. C. Little assisting. ## Newlyweds Visit

Visiting this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Brink on 2241 Orchard, are SK 1/c Robert Hanlin and his bride, the former Opal Mae Frost, both of Medford, and one time residents of Klamath Falls. Mrs. Hanlin is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Frost, and Mr. Hanlin is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hanlin.

They were married on January 22 at the home of her parents. Mrs. Hanlin chose a traditional white wedding gown of satin brocade with a fingertip veil which fell from a halo head dress of lace, and her arm bouquet was of orchids and gardenias. The father of the bride, who was formerly pastor of the Apostolic Faith church in this city, performed the ceremony.

Hanlin enlisted in the navy on December 28, 1941, and has been overseas for several months of service since that time. A part of their honeymoon was spent on the Rogue river and, at the close of the groom's leave, he is to report to Athens, Georgia, for pre-flight training.

Brother of the groom, Warren Lloyd Hanlin, returned from Missoula, Montana, for the wedding, and is also a houseguest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Brink.

Prosperity Lodge

Prosperity Rebekah lodge, number 104, met in regular session on Thursday, February 1, at 8 p. m., in the IOOF hall, with Nina Currier presiding in the chair of the lodge. One candidate to be initiated at this time was Kathleen Kriz of 1709 Mitchell.

The degree of honor was conferred upon Stella Dryden and Bea Templar by the lodge. The charter was draped in loving memory of Mary Langer, past noble grand, and Katherine Ess, past noble grand.

Four visitors who attended this meeting were Zella Blankenship, Alice Gowland, Maude Plyler and Esther Mast. Following the meeting, refreshments were served by Margaret Biden and Sadie Mae Rand. Pine cones and branches were used as the centerpiece and the valentine motif was present in the favors.

Social Club Meets

Seven tables of cards were in play at the February meeting of the Eastern Star Social club on Friday afternoon at the Masonic temple when Mrs. O. D. Matthews and Mrs. Leo N. Huls presided as hostesses.

Mrs. Walter Brown received the award for high score at the close of play and Mrs. W. L. Poole the special prize.

Colorful valentine decorations were used on the tea table, and Mrs. L. F. Willits who has long taken a prominent part in activities of Eastern Star, was presented with a birthday gift and flowers from the club.

MARRY IN RENO

Corporal and Mrs. C. L. Mahan, both of Klamath Falls, were married on Saturday, January 27, at Reno, Nevada. The bride is the former Mary Yerkovich. The groom is attached to the air corps.

Donations Still Needed at USO

Donations to the USO hit a new high last week, with a pleasing variety noticed in the show of generosity. In order to maintain a free fountain service for the eternally hungry boys, the USO must depend upon food donations.

Any and all donations from patriotic citizens are deeply appreciated by both the boys and the USO.

The week from January 21 to 27 saw the following donations from persons in and around Klamath Falls: Oddfellows and Rebekahs, 67 pies, 13 cakes, 14 dozen eggs and five pounds of cheese; Fluhrer's bakery, 110 dozen cookies; Altamont Girl Scout troop, 60 dozen cookies and two dozen eggs; the Girl Scouts of Altamont junior high school, 12 dozen cookies, and Ori Campbell continued with his daily gift of 5 gallons of milk.

The ladies of the First Methodist church, order number 2, gave four cakes on Wednesday, and the Catholic Daughters of America offered seven pies during this time. Other individual donations included six dozen eggs, two quarts of cream, 21 dozen doughnuts, one gallon of dill pickles and several varieties of vegetables, two chickens and ten pounds of meat were also donated for the cold storage lockers at the USO center.

Thus it can be seen that any donation, large or small, is needed and appreciated. Slack days are Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays, and in order to maintain service of 9000 sandwiches a and 16,000 beverages without charge, these days must be filled.

Townsend

The Townsend auxiliary met at the home of Mrs. Betty Allen on 5603 Harlan drive on January 14 for a potluck luncheon and social hour. After lunch, Viola Hermann opened many lovely birthday gifts, and bingo was played later by the guests.

Members present at this meeting were Eva Myers, Rhoda Teaney, Eve Webster, Alice Gray, Gertrude Morgan, Lillian Hayden, Bernice McCracken, Effie Anderson, Daisy Douglas and two children, Betty Allen and Viola Hermann. One visitor who also was included at this time was Leila Phelps.

The next meeting will be held on February 14, at the home of Mrs. Alice Gray. Everyone is asked to bring a valentine, and the birthday of Mrs. Gertrude Morgan will also be remembered.

VFW Auxiliary

On Thursday, February 1, the auxiliary to the Veterans of Foreign Wars met at 8 p. m., in the large clubroom of the city library for a regular business meeting, and Mrs. H. J. McGilvray, president, conducted the meeting. Two members to be initiated at this time were May Roark and Katherine Bruner.

Ella Munn, district president, read an interesting article from the department paper concerning life memberships. A letter from G. A. Myers of the Red Cross asked the members to attend a dinner and meeting at the Pelican cafe on February 8 at 6:30 p. m. All who can are urged to attend, and reservations may be had by calling Mr. Myers, Martha Barron, patriotic instructor, gave instructions on this subject to the new members. Bea Lambert of the Sojourners club, invited all auxiliary members, whether old or new residents, to join the club.

On February 15, the anniversary of the sinking of the Maine, members of the post are to entertain the auxiliary, as well as Spanish-American war veterans and their families, with a social hour and refreshments, following the regular meeting. An American flag is to be presented on February 12 to Margaret Larson's room at the Altamont school. This room includes the "Young American Citizen League" and the local branch is called "The Voice of the Cascades." The presentation will be made by Mrs. H. J. McGilvray, Mrs. William Barron and Mrs. George Osborn.

It was voted to send a year's subscription to two wards of the dispensary at the Marine Barracks. Later, Mrs. George Osborn read a letter from General Douglas MacArthur, a commendation addressed to the commander of the 7th fleet, for Quartermaster 2/c Gordon B. Prairie, USNR. It was sent from general headquarters in the South Pacific, and was given on Prairie's 21st birthday. Special award of the evening went to Mabel Brocktrup.

Friendly Circle

Members of the Friendly Circle who attended the luncheon and business meeting on Thursday, February 1, at the home of Violet Vance on Shasta way, were Velma Mitchell, Lizzie Little, Pearl Marin, Nona Hall, Fannie Goddard, Kathryn Billings, Ipha Brown, Arthur Stone and Violet Vance. Ruth Brown was a guest at this meeting, and the assisting hostess was Ipha Brown.

During the afternoon, two quilt tops were completed and ready for tying. When finished, they will be given to the servicemen's dormitory on Garden street.

Katherine Williams and Lydia McDonald will entertain at the next meeting on February 15.

Open House

Pvt. Harold H. Ogle, Jr., of the U. S. Army arrived home on furlough Sunday, January 28, to spend a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Ogle, Sr., of 822 High. Young Ogle is stationed at the University of Idaho at Moscow, Idaho, and arrived home just in time to celebrate his 18th birthday on Monday, January 29, with an open house which was given by his parents.

Several of his friends in high school called during the afternoon, and other relatives and friends were invited during the evening. Cake and punch were served to the guests as they arrived.

Pvt. Ogle will return to Idaho on Saturday, February 3.

TO MARRY

Dorothy Harsey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wes Harsey of 4525 Bisbee, has announced her engagement to PFC Robert E. Larson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Art Larson of Chicago, Illinois. The wedding date has been set for February 10. The groom, at present, is stationed at the Marine Barracks.
