Whytals

LINEN-LIKE dresses are so attractive . . . And unlike linen they don't wrinkle at the slightest provocation . . . And the new ones at Whytals are so darling . . . I'm going to do a little raving about them.

There are some 2-pieceers, with poplins, that are utterly adorable and very flattering on . . . Some have red jackets, navy skirts of crepe, and navy polka dot scarfs . . . Others have red jackets, black polka dot skirts and scarfs . . . Still others brown jackets with brown polka dot skirts and scarfs . . . And so on . . . They're $19.95 . . . And you'll wear them all Spring, Summer and Fall.

There are washable "linen" print dresses of Crown spun rayon . . . Very colorful to the eye, and made in darling styles . . . Only $19.95, too.

One dress I really fell in love with has wide pastel stripes crosswise . . . (I mean, not up-and-down) . . . Tan, pink, yellow and blue stripes . . . Just breathtaking it's so lovely, honestly . . . The material is wool and rayon, so it will have to be cleaned instead of washed, but who cares when she can have a dress like that? . . . It's $19.95.

Of course, there are all kinds of new Spring clothes at Whytals . . . About 16 different styles came in just during the last week . . . And more are arriving every day . . . And if you're looking for some lovable styles, you'd be wise to drop in and look at them.

At Whytals . . . Main and Ninth Streets . . .

Garcelon's

YOU people who have been wanting a fill for your Red Wing ovenware . . . Whether the dishes or bowls . . . Will be glad to know that Garcelon's has received a shipment of this sturdy, attractive green and brown pottery . . . Plenty for seekers of complete sets, too.

Last year a shipment arrived a month after Christmas and was gone almost immediately . . . Because so many people like it for the cabin, barbecue, porch meals and other very informal times.

Any of the pieces can be used for oven cooking, you know . . . Even the plates and cups and saucers . . . But you'd never think it to look at them.

It's not expensive, either . . . Cups and saucers are 65c, for instance.

I caught Mrs. Garcelon for a minute there . . . They've sold the store to Mr. and Mrs. Ed Bell, you know . . . And I think she looks rested already . . . Although that might be due to the trip she took to the market and to see her daughter in the marines.

Garcelon's is at 407 Main Street . . .

Currin's

A LOVELY Valentine present for any gal of any age would be one of the Renee Thornton perfumes or toilet waters . . . A line that is entirely new on the Pacific Coast . . . And available at Currin's.

The fragrances are White Orchid, Mistress of the Night, Meadow Sweet and Symphonie de Fleurs Blanches . . . Which you can sample at the cosmetic department from little tester bottles.

At Currin's For Drugs . . . 840 Main Street.

Bly

Mr. and Mrs. M. Mullins entertained a group of friends at a pinocle party Saturday night. Enjoying the evening were Mr. and Mrs. C. Smith, Loye Smith, Mr. and Mrs. G. Madison and Ruby Hanon.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Smith and children arrived home Tuesday evening. Smith's mother, Florence Smith, accompanied them for a visit here.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Proebstel and Jessalee Keffer left Tuesday to visit relatives in Portland.

Art & Gift Shop

SOMETHING entirely new to me, which it's a wonder somebody didn't think of before this, is a guest powder box containing four different shades of powder . . . It's such a wonderful idea that the box would be ideal for a bride prize, although face powders aren't considered, usually, when one shops around for prizes.

The powder is one of the delightful Linnea line which The Art and Gift Shop now is stocking in its entirety . . . Which is news in itself, because now the Linnea fans won't have to send away for certain items.

Linnea, you may know, is the little pink fairy-like flower that perfumes the clear air of the woodlands of the Scandinavian countries . . . And the name has been given to the entire line of toiletries and cosmetics, although there are three other fragrances besides linnea.

Besides the luscious powder, there are lipsticks, cologne, perfume and dry perfume, bath powder and salts, deodorant and other cosmetics and toiletries.

At The Art and Gift Shop . . . 519 Main Street.

Currin's

JUST in time for Valentine's Day, a new shipment of Mem's toiletries for men has arrived at Currin's . . . The first since before Christmas, when the store sold out the line completely.

If you know "A Man's" line of Mem products, I don't need to tell you that it is just wonderful . . . The fragrance is a special one designed for men . . . And every man I know who has used the after shave lotion, soap, talc, cologne, shaving soap, etc., has raved about it.

Men's "A Man's" line comes in goodlooking containers, singly or in sets.

Currin's For Drugs is at Ninth and Main Streets.

Moe's

IF YOU'VE been looking for baby clothes, you know they're rather hard to find . . . But there are lots of stamped things in the Art Department on Moe's mezzanine, for embroidery and applique . . . Which I'll tell you about.

The baby dresses, all made up and stamped, come in nainsook, organdy, dotted swiss, etc. . . . Others are just stamped and you are supposed to cut them out yourself.

Gertrudes, too. There are pink and blue blankets, which are stamped and include the pieces for appliqued bunnies and baby chicks . . . Amazingly inexpensive, too . . . Only $1.50.

The stamped crib covers are $1.00 to $1.98 . . . And stamped baby pillows are 39c to $1.00.

Of course the department has more than just baby things . . . You'll find stamped luncheon cloths from $1.00 to $2.50 and stamped dresser or table scarfs from 39c to $1.69, for instance.

And knitting bags, too . . . Good-looking, sturdy ones from $2.25 to $4.95.

If you've been reading the paper you MUST have seen the advertisements of Cal-Ore's reopening a week ago . . . And that Abbie Green and his orchestra are there again . . . So I won't remind you today!

PORTLAND AREA LABOR NEEDS TO DECREASE

PORTLAND, Ore., Feb. 8 (AP)—Employment at Portland area shipyards, which have attracted streams of workers from all over the country, will drop 90 per cent by next December unless new war contracts are awarded, the district director of the U. S. employment service said today.

James H. Bagan predicted the decline would begin late in April, explaining the job situation has reached its peak.

"The overall picture is the best now it's ever been," he declared. "There's not a single industry engaged in war production that is behind schedule because of lack of manpower."

A few isolated cases where war plants are short of manpower will be cleared up quickly, Bagan said confidently.

He also announced that the employment service has been authorized by the war manpower commission to recruit shipyard workers here for the Todd yards in Seattle and Tacoma.

Bagan's statement bore out a report from L. C. Stoll, state war manpower director, that the shipyard boom which nearly doubled this region's population was drawing to an end.

HIGH SCHOOL News Notes and Comment

By JUANITA SHINN

All next week, beginning Monday, orders will be taken in home rooms for the senior cards and announcements. The personal cards are priced according to the style of engraving or printing.

If students plan to leave school early, they should arrange to pay on their order in advance. No deposit of any kind is required. Seniors will pay for their cards and announcements when they are delivered in the spring.

A representative in each home room is responsible for the orders.

The Hi-Y is presenting a "style show" on February 14, with proceeds to go toward the YMCA World Service fund. On that same day, the Hi-Y is having its tag day, with tags presented to those students who contribute 10 cents or more to the World Service fund. All students making this donation will be excused to attend the show, which is a parody of a style show. The boys in Hi-Y will dress like girls and women and show the latest fashions.

The tentative date for the King of Hearts, annual formal dance sponsored by Jobs Daughters, has been set for the evening of March 2. The king and knights have not been elected by the members of Jobs yet, but balloting will take place on Thursday, February 15.

'Picnic Hamper' Feeds Tokyo Raiders

In early war days, when American long-range bomber flights were new and rare, chow call aloft meant breaking out and eating the cold sandwiches which air crewmen had stuffed in their flying suit pockets. These gave little nourishment or comfort to men fatigued from long hours of coping with flak and enemy fighters. But today Superfortress crews, off to bomb Tokyo, enjoy hot meals. scientifically devised to restore combat-depleted energy. They are carried in the new B-2 food warmer, pictured above. Filled with hot food at the bomber base kitchen, just before the takeoff, the warmer is plugged into the plane's electrical system, which maintains the heat level. Measuring only 16 inches long, 11 3/4 wide and 14 1/2 inches high and weighing only 30 pounds, the food cabinet was perfected in the Air Technical Service Command laboratories at Wright Field, Ohio. Each carries enough food for a six-man meal. On long missions, B-2's carry two of the glorified "picnic hamper."

Sheriff Ends Water Trouble In Jail, Fails to Find Keys

There's trouble up at Crescent, and the sheriff went up that way Wednesday to straighten things out.

It seems that the last jailer at Crescent, Tommy Reed, left some time ago and Crescent folks can't find the keys to the place. In the meantime, the pipes "froze up," they broke and water ran all over the place.

Sheriff Lloyd L. Low was advised. Yesterday the sheriff stopped at Crescent, couldn't get in the jail himself, but managed to turn the water off outside. No, he didn't find the keys.
