Lakeview—L. S. Stitt, district freight and passenger agent for Southern Pacific here, is in Lakeview Wednesday, on business.

Police Court—David W. Eaton, Klamath naval air station, posted $5 bail to appear in police court Friday afternoon to answer a charge of running a stop sign at 11th and Klamath. L. H. Stone, 1503 Canby, paid a fine for running the same stop. Two drunks appeared in police court, two drunks bailed out of the city jail, and three traffic tickets were paid.

Attend Chiloquin Lodge—Alma Cofer, Ida Grimes, Virginia Brown and Rose Martin were visitors on Wednesday evening to Cascade Crest chapter of the Order of Eastern Star at Chiloquin, where they attended initiation and enjoyed supper after lodge. Rose Martin still retains her membership in the Chiloquin chapter.

Stamp Sale—Riverside students purchased $55.70 at the regular Tuesday defense stamp sale sponsored by the PTA, and purchases for the school year by students alone have totaled $1168.05. Teachers have purchased a total of $650 in stamps and bonds, it was reported.

Youth Sentenced For Assaulting Guard

GRANTS PASS, Feb. 9 (AP)—On a charge of assaulting a guard of the state industrial school at Woodburn with a deadly weapon consisting of a bar of hard soap in a sock, Otto Foster, 17, was sentenced by Judge James Crawford of Portland, in circuit court here to not more than one year in the state penitentiary.

The assault occurred, District Attorney Orval J. Millard said, while the youth was being returned to the industrial school from Medford, where he and other boys had been arrested for stealing two automobiles at Portland after escaping from the school.

The boy pleaded guilty when arraigned.

State police, investigating a call late Thursday afternoon that a car was in the government canal south of Midland, arrested David Edward Griffith, 43, who said he was a fire warden employed by the Klamath Forest Protective association. Griffith

Church Holds People Of Austria Together

PORTLAND, Feb. 9 (AP)—The church has been the strongest tie uniting the Austrians, many of whom feel this more of a religious than a political war, Archduke Felix of Austria said here last night.

He describes underground work as far less glamorous than Hollywood portrays it. "Our work does not consist of spectacular acts of sabotage but rather of hard work and countless little acts that combine to build morale and destroy that of the nazis," he said.

Marine Battalion Schedules Reunion
Forty members of the 9th defense battalion, United States marine corps, who served overseas for two years, will gather tonight at the Pelican party room for their first reunion. This is also the first reunion of any group of men who are stationed at the Barracks. Sgt. Major Dickson is in charge of the party tonight and arrangements for the affair were made by PFC Stephen Provostnick.

Clear, Cold Weather Forecast For Basin

Clear and cold was the weekend forecast for the Klamath basin and local gentry hoped for Friday's continued sunshine as they basked in near spring-like weather.

Pacific coast reports advised that the coast gale had somewhat subsided with only Seattle reporting an appreciable amount of precipitation. There was but a trace at Portland and Medford, according to the U. S. weatherman, who has had a field day the past week as far as rain went.

Metal alloys were used by the ancient Egyptians.
