PFC Earl McCracken received his wounds even before getting on the beach. The LVT he was coming ashore in swerved to avoid a shell blast in the water and overturned, tossing its occupants into the water.

PFC Wilbur Kinney was slightly injured by a Jap hand grenade on Guam, then fractured an ankle jumping off a cliff. Sgt. Lawrence Odor was shot in the shoulder on Saipan when he exposed himself looking over a rock he was hiding behind. The bullet entered his shoulder and came out a few inches further down his back.

Loss of blood from a shrapnel wound across the face caused PFC Eugene Newell to be evacuated after one night on Saipan. The other marines wounded on that island to be decorated tomorrow are Sgt. Jimmie Owens, PFC Miles O'Hara, Sgt. Felix Krane and Sgt. Eugene Leo Fritz. The Tinian casualty was PFC James Mueller, who was struck in the right leg by grenade fragments.

The parade and presentation ceremony is scheduled to start at 10:30, with Capt. Edwin A. Pakola as commander of troops and 2nd Lt. Claude H. Leath as adjutant. The medals will be pinned on by Col. George Van Orden.
