

Herald and News
SOCIETY

By Joan
Campbell

 Valentines

PEEKING OVER HER CRIB is seven-month-old Cheryl June, daughter of Major and Mrs. Joseph J. Foss, who are in the Marshall Cornett home on Lovey, while State Senator Cornett is attending legislature in Salem.
—Official Marine Corps Photo by Sgt. V. M. Hanks.

'T WAS QUITE AN EVENT in the E. P. Lee household when one-year-old Stephanie Lee (at left) took her first steps alone, so she decided to demonstrate her skill. Penny (at right) is three and a half, and both are the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Lee.
—Guderian

Library Club to Hear Mrs. Moorhead

"Today's Family" will be the title of a talk to be presented at the Klamath Falls Woman's Library club at the regular monthly meeting scheduled for next Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock, when Mrs. George R. K. Moorhead is the guest of the hostesses.

At usual meetings of the Library club are held in the main auditorium of the public library.

All women in the city are cordially invited to membership.

Mrs. Moorhead is well known to members of this club for her work, not only as president of the Oregon State Federation of Women's Clubs, but as executive director of the E. C. Brown fund of the University of Oregon school of medicine, Portland. She makes her home in Salem, where for many years she has been active in civic and educational affairs at the capital.

Highlight of Monday's program will be a display of baby pictures taken when the children were young, this feature under the direction of Mrs. Helen W. Hornbrook and

Evening Jamboree

The Valentine party, which was slated to be held on Saturday evening, February 10, at the BOQ, of the Klamath naval air station for navy officers and their wives, has been postponed one week. Instead, on February 17, an informal Saturday evening jamboree will be held.

Dancing, games and light refreshments are being planned as a part of the evening's entertainment by the social chairman, Mrs. Shirley Congdon. Her committee includes Mrs. H. L. Berry, Mrs. Paul Couey, Mrs. William Jenkins, Mrs. C. Frey, Mrs. B. B. Adams, Mrs. Gerald Barker and Mrs. H. Jones. Mrs. Congdon will also be assisted by Mrs. E. D. Harris, ways and means chairman.

All navy officers and their wives are cordially invited to attend the party.

Marry at Reno

Of interest to their many friends is the marriage of Nellie Maureen Ellison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. McGhehey of McMinnville, Oregon, to Jesse Allen Watters, son of Mrs. Severt Hagen of 1721 Wall street.

The marriage took place in Reno, Nevada, on December 28. Mr. and Mrs. Watters are residing at their home on 625 Mitchell of this city. Mr. Watters has been employed by the Weyerhaeuser Timber company for several years.

Marine Barracks Is Scene of Parties

CWO and Mrs. Waldo C. Perry were hosts at a cocktail party which was given at their home on Washington street on Wednesday, February 7, in honor of Mr. Perry's birthday. Forty guests called between the hours of 5 and 7.

Cmdr. and Mrs. Stephen T. Kaspar entertained Mr. and Mrs. John Houston, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Moore and Mr. and Mrs. Percy Murray at a dinner in the BOQ on Saturday, February 3. The dinner was followed by bridge at the Kaspar home.

A surprise party was given in the quarters of Major and Mrs. Clyde C. Roberts, honoring Eckka Gordon of San Francisco was a weekend guest at the home of Lt. Cmdr. and Mrs.

Stork Shower

Mrs. Carl Mason was hostess at a stork shower given at her home on Monday evening at 8 o'clock in honor of Mrs. Marvin Baldwin, the former Lillian Davis. Mrs. Baldwin was a visitor in Klamath Falls from Portland, where she is a member of the KGW radio staff.

The Mason home was decorated with bouquets of daffodils for the occasion. Bridge was played during the first part of the evening, after which Mrs. Baldwin opened her many lovely gifts, and refreshments were served by the hostess.

Guests at the affair included Mrs. Stanley Miller, Mrs. G. C. Lorenz, Mrs. Glenn Hout, Mrs. H. W. Bathiany, Mrs. J. Waggoner, Mrs. Charles Bailey, Mrs. Frank Rickey, Mrs. O. W. Spicker, Mrs. Leo N. Huls, Mrs. Walter Wiesendanger, Mrs. Newt Nelson, Mrs. Marvin Baldwin, Peggy Rakestraw, Virginia Tyrell, Mrs. Martha McCollum and the hostess, Mrs. Mason.

Box Social

The Lioness club is sponsoring a box social for members of Lions and their wives, which will be held on Monday evening, February 12, in the library club rooms at 8:30. There will be dancing during the evening, and each lady is asked to pack a box for the midnight lunch. All Lions and their wives are cordially invited to the affair.

Little Symphony Set February 21

Third of a series of concerts to be heard this winter, sponsored by the Klamath Community Concert association, is the program scheduled for Wednesday evening, February 21, when Adolf Busch and his Little Symphony will be presented at the Pelican theatre.

Adolf Busch, who appears in Klamath Falls with his Little Symphony, is a famous member of a famous family. His father was the violin maker, Wilhelm Busch. His brother Fritz, is a distinguished conductor, his brother Hermann the cellist of the Busch Quartet which Adolf founded. He himself is distinguished, not only as a violinist, but as a composer.

Born August 8, 1891, in Siegen, Westphalia, a small old town where the painter Rubens had been born four centuries before, Adolf Busch was a child prodigy, who, at three, had perfect pitch and, at seven, had played the Beriot Concerto in public. His talent, fortunately, was allowed to ripen slowly and naturally. At 11, he entered the Cologne Conservatory where he stayed for eight years, studying violin with Willi Hess and Bram Eldering; composition and conducting with Fritz Steinbach; chamber music with Carl Friedberg. Later he continued his studies in composition with Professor Hugo Gruthers of Bonn, whose daughter he was to marry in 1913.

At 21, with successes in London, Paris, Berlin and Vienna behind him, he was appointed concert master of the Konzertverein orchestra in Vienna, with the privilege of special solo appearances. That same year he founded his string quartet. Meanwhile, his concert tours became more and more successful and he was in great and growing demand all over Europe. After the war, he was the first German artist invited to play concerts in Italy, France

AT THREE YEARS OLD is little Suzanne Shaw, attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Shaw of 1930 Lowell, who, like most girls of her age, likes to look at her book of Mother Goose.
—Guderian

DIANE ABBOTT is the charming little daughter of Lt. and Mrs. L. W. Abbott, who are living in the R. S. Coold home on 614 Conger. Lt. Abbott is stationed at the Klamath naval air station at the present time.
—Guderian

A VERY WINSOME SMILE is being given to all of you by Marcia O'Sullivan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. O'Sullivan. Marcia is usually a very active little girl, but she consented to sit long enough to have this picture taken.
—Guderian