

Lois Phillips Is Bride In Ceremony

Friends here learned of the wedding in Portland at the First Methodist church on Monday, January 29, when Lois Beryle Phillips, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Victor Phillips of this city, was the bride of Private Corydon M. Blodgett, United States Army, son of Dr. and Mrs. C. L. Blodgett of Salem.

The new Mrs. Blodgett has returned to Klamath Falls to reside while her husband is in service. He has now returned to Ford Ord, California. Her marriage, Mrs. Blodgett was assistant manager of the department of Olds, Ford and King in Portland. She was the story from the Statesman, Salem.

The bride's father performed the ceremony before a gathering of relatives and friends of the couple. The church altar was decorated with baskets of white chrysanthemums and white tapers in candelabras. The bride wore a white crepe dress with a panel in the bodice which extended into a full skirt. The fitted bodice was with a sweetheart neckline and long sleeves with points at the wrist. Her fingertip tulle veil cascaded from a Juliet cap. She carried a Bible which was marked with an orchid.

William Laughlin (Ruth) was the matron of honor. She wore a blue starched dress enhanced with blue flowers. She carried a bouquet of pastel spring flowers and wore a wreath of roses in her hair. Bridesmaids were Miss Mary Jean Johnson, who wore blue maroon, and Miss Jan Johnson, whose dress was of yellow maroon. The girls are all sisters of the bride. The attendants carried large spring bouquets and wore matching bands of flowers.

Arthur Utley of Salem with his nephew as best man. Ubers were Mr. Clifford of Portland and Mr. Elmer of United States navy, who is home on leave from duty. They were classmates of the groom at Willamette university.

Several members of the Stingerette club were entertained on Friday evening, February 2, at the home of Mrs. P. W. Jones. An enjoyable evening was spent playing bingo, and Mrs. L. H. Craver received the award for high score. A tamale supper was served later to Mrs. A. B. Guthrie, Mrs. C. H. Rasmussen, Mrs. F. E. Wilkes, Mrs. Fred Genereux, Mrs. E. B. Snyder, Mrs. L. H. Craver, Mrs. M. D. Kious and the hostess.

Private and Mrs. Corydon M. Blodgett, (Lois Phillips), cut their cake at a reception held for them following their wedding in Portland on January 29. Mrs. Blodgett is now here to make her home with her parents, Rev. and Mrs. Victor Phillips, while her husband is stationed at Fort Ord, California. —Betty Pipes Picard.

Founder's Day Meet Held at Mills School

Educational, legislative and juvenile matters highlighted the business meeting of the Klamath county council of PTA on February 5 at Mills school. Wyatt Padgett, legislative chairman, discussed state bills relating to education, after which it was announced that the radio program, "Youth Talks It Over," of special interest to teen-agers and their parents, will be broadcast in March. Mrs. Rollin Thompson, state and local Founder's Day chairman, was then presented by Mrs. Frank Peyton.

The meaning of Founder's Day and reasons for originating the national congress of PTA were explained by Mrs. Henry Gerber. Then, as now, improved child welfare is of first concern, according to Mrs. Gerber.

Mrs. Walter Guyer presented details of outstanding interest in local PTA history from its origin in Klamath county in 1917.

Mrs. Burt Hawkins, pioneer of the local PTA, was presented by Mrs. Thompson, and expressed her pleasure in the continued activities of PTA. Mrs. B. L. Herrington, as a past president of the county council, was also a special guest.

The Founder's Day cake, decorated with blue and gold, was then served by Mrs. Burt Hawkins, Mrs. Charles W. Thomas and Mrs. Frank Lambro.

Serve at USO

On Wednesdays, ladies of the First Methodist church serve as hostesses at the USO center, and their home-made cakes are always appreciated by those who visit the center. On January 31, Mrs. Cleo Dunlap, Mrs. Moccabee, Mrs. W. E. Withrow, Mrs. L. A. Brannan, Mrs. A. G. Proctor, Mrs. Earl Redman, Mrs. John Riach and Mrs. S. R. Redkey served, and February 7 found Mrs. S. A. Gaster, Mrs. L. K. Phelps, Mrs. A. G. Proctor, Mrs. John Yaden, Mrs. I. W. White, Mrs. L. W. Johns, Mrs. Victor Phillips, Mrs. Walter Herndon, Mrs. S. R. Redkey and Mrs. John Riach in charge.

VFW Contest

Again this year, the auxiliary to the Veterans of Foreign Wars, will sponsor a national essay contest, which is open to all high school students, public, private or parochial. The theme this year is "What Americanism Means to Me," and must be not less than 500 or more than 1000 words in length.

Mrs. A. A. Myers is the local chairman of this contest, and anyone wishing more complete information as to rules and awards, may call her at 4207. More details as to time, local and national awards, and so forth, will be announced later.

Farewell Party

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hellbroner and Mrs. E. S. Robinson were hosts at a farewell party given for Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schaal. Pinochle was played during the evening, with scores going to Melvin Howie, E. S. Robinson, Mrs. Charles Schaal and Mrs. Gene Hill.

Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Howie, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wright, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wiesendanger, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Hill and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schaal.

Stingerette

A gift was presented by the group to the honor guests at the close of the evening.

PNG Club

Alfreda Steinmetz and Nellie Wattenburg were hostesses to the Past Noble Grand club of the Rebekahs when they met in the IOOF hall for a potluck luncheon on Tuesday, February 6, at 1 p. m. Fourteen members attended and enjoyed a social hour after luncheon. Martha Baker and Stella Dryden are to serve as hostesses for the March meeting.

Fremont PTA

A Founder's Day program, dedicated to the founders of PTA, was presented at the February meeting of the Fremont PTA on Thursday afternoon in the school auditorium, and was presided over by Mrs. Henry Gerber, president.

Rev. Howard Hutchins gave an inspiring talk on "Our Children," and Mrs. Donald McKay discussed the Dumbarton Oaks plan, illustrating her talk with a chart.

Tea was served at the close of the meeting with Mrs. George Blanas and Mrs. Frank Peyton, past presidents, presiding at the tea table. Assisting Mrs. Keva Hutchinson with the refreshments were members of the Girls' club, Marcella Murray, Shirley Hutchinson, Barbara Dodson, Phyllis Adams, Mildred Burgess and Marilyn Hayden.

Eldine Souder and Priscilla McDonald of Girl Scout troop 2 cared for the small children while their mothers attended the meeting.

ANW Club Meets

A cheerful glow from the fireplace, rare family heirlooms of furniture, old china, and silver pieces, made the rooms of the C. H. Underwood home an interesting background for the regular meeting of the Art Needle Work club on Wednesday afternoon, February 7, when Mrs. Underwood, club president, was hostess to the members and a few special guests.

At 4 o'clock Mrs. Underwood served refreshments at beautifully decorated tables to the 16 members and to Mrs. F. R. Hamblett, Mrs. G. Logan Black and Mrs. Laura Chamberlain, who were special guests.

Mrs. Charles J. Martin will entertain the club at the next bi-monthly meeting on Wednesday afternoon, February 21.

CE Society

Young People's day was observed on Sunday at the 11 o'clock church service of the Altamont Presbyterian church. Those young people to take part at this time were John McClellan, who presided over the service; Ruth Patterson and Dorothy June Pugh, who read the Scripture; Morris Wenkley, David Patterson, Bruce Crawford and Carol Lee Reeves, who presented talks upon the subject, "Since Christ Is Lord."

The Sunday school orchestra, directed by Mrs. Hugh Mitchellmore, also played a number at this time. The 64th birthday anniversary of Christian Endeavor was celebrated on Sunday, February 4, by both the junior and high school Christian Endeavor societies of the Altamont Presbyterian church in special programs. A large birthday cake was a feature at the junior CE meeting on Sunday afternoon, and was also shared by the high school society at their meeting in the evening.

Double Shower

The Charles Mack home at 1940 Lowell was the scene of a double baby shower on Tuesday evening, January 30, when a number of guests were invited to honor Mrs. Fred Burgoyne and Mrs. Charles R. Kingan. Mrs. Mack and Mrs. W. R. Hibbs were co-hostesses at the affair.

Guests included Mrs. Ed Schneebeck, Mrs. John Shaw, Mrs. Howard Dixon, Mrs. Greer Drew, Mrs. Richard Maxwell, the two guests of honor and the two hostesses. Mrs. L. Orth Sisemore sent shower gifts to Mrs. Burgoyne and Mrs. Kingan.

Kappa Chapter

Kappa chapter of Beta Sigma Phi held its regular meeting at the home of Mrs. Lloyd Drew. Following the meeting, the program consisted of a discussion of modern composers, and several records were played as a means of illustration. Games were played later, and the prize was awarded to Helen Grumbles.

Mrs. Lloyd Drew was chairman of the committee, and was assisted by Mrs. Lawrence Albritton and Elenora Weatherford. Those present were Mrs. Arthur Moore, Mrs. Norman Moty, Mrs. Howard Pernell, Mrs. Don Divens, Mrs. Lawrence Albritton, Mrs. Warren Dalcour, Mrs. Max Saunders, Mrs. Ed Charron, Elsie Kurnick, Helen Grumbles, Elenora Weatherford, Lillian Redkey, Kay Kaylor, Lois Cody and the hostess, Mrs. Drew.

The next meeting will be held on February 22, at the home of Mrs. Norman Moty.

New Choir

The Sacred Heart parish is proud to present a new all-service men choir, which will sing at the 12:15 mass on Sunday mornings. This is the only choir of this type in Klamath Falls, and will be conducted by one of the Sisters of the Sacred Heart academy, with the assistance of Mary Mahoney.

Members of the choir are PFC Dave Curtis, Cpl. Vincent Quinn, Cpl. Vance Sprath, PFC John Flaherty, Sgt. Paul Smith, Cpl. Herman Lipps, Cpl. Ken Farrell, PFC John Baroni, PFC William O'Brien, Cpl. Louis Betley, PFC John Dardzinski, Sgt. Milan Cihak, Paul Sklenko, Cpl. Ervin Mertes, PFC Carl Bihner, Cpl. Charles Kohler and Cpl. Frank Kukilnsko.
