sador in London the text of that decision.
The intention of the three powers to create a Polish provisional government of national unity "can only legalize soviet interference in Polish internal affairs," a 500-word statement from Socialist Premier Tomasz Arciszewski of the London group declared.
"As long as territory of Poland will remain under the sole occupation of soviet troops, a government of that kind will not safeguard the Polish nation, even in the presence of British and American diplomats, in the unfettered right of free expression," it said.

MOTION FILED TO SET ASIDE VERDICT

A motion was filed in circuit court to set aside the verdict in the case of Davis vs. Lavenik in which damages to the amount of $10,000 were awarded in favor of the plaintiff.
Circuit Judge David R. Vandenberg will hear the motion at 10 a. m. Wednesday.
The case concerns an accident in which young Dale Davis lost a leg when his bicycle collided with a car operated by M. F. Lavenik. The motion was filed by Richard B. Maxwell, attorney for Lavenik.

CIVIL SUITS SET FOR CONSOLIDATION

Two civil suits, brought against Manson James Young by George Hixson and Clara McPherrin, administratrix of the estate of W. H. McPherrin, deceased, will be consolidated by stipulation of both parties and date of trial is set in circuit court for Monday, February 19.
Hixson is asking for $15,000 damages, Mrs. McPherrin for $10,000. Both cases grew out of the fatal accident on September 27, 1944, which resulted in McPherrin's death and in which Hixson suffered injuries.
The case of state vs. M. J. Young, charged with negligent homicide and scheduled for February 19, has been continued and time for trial will be set at the March 5 calendar call, Judge Vandenberg stated.

JUDGE INSTRUCTS GRAND JURY HERE

Circuit Judge David R. Vandenberg, who called the Klamath county grand jury to reconvene at 10 a. m. this morning, Tuesday, gave special instructions to that body.
The court read various sections pertaining to escape and sodomy for the benefit of the jurors who went into session later than scheduled as one member had difficulty in getting to Klamath Falls due to muddy roads.
Jurors were not expected to return indictments until Wednesday, in the opinion of the court.

WOMAN GRANTED TIME TO PLEAD

Emily Dorothy Riddle, indicted by the Klamath county grand jury on a charge of grand larceny in a secret indictment returned January 31, was given statutory time in which to plead when she appeared before Circuit Judge David R. Vandenberg at 10:30 a. m. Tuesday. The woman is represented by Attorney Joseph C. O'Neill.

When the indictment was returned, the court issued a bench warrant and set bond at $2500. Miss Riddle was, at that time, held by Multnomah county officials on a warrant issued from Klamath county and signed by Seth Dixon, Fort Klamath rancher, who claimed that the woman and her companion, Alonzo Parker, stole articles from the Dixon ranch where they were left in charge. Parker is held by Fort Lewis, Wash., officials and will be returned here within a short time.
In the meantime, Miss Riddle

Victory Theme

The Pallas Athene of the Women's Army Corps and the Caduceus of the Army Medical Department are working side by side in the job of helping our wounded fighting men back to health. It's another typical example of the cooperation between the services which will eventually mean victory. But thousands more qualified women are needed, and needed urgently, in the Women's Army Corps to serve as medical and surgical technicians. Will you help, too?

Women between the ages of 20 and 49, with or without previous medical training are needed in the Women's Army Corps today to serve with the Medical Department. Mail the coupon now!
