ESTABLISHMENT OF AIRPORTS PROPOSED

OLYPMIA, Feb. 16 (AP)—Creation of a state aeronautics department to establish an airport system in Washington state consistent with the federal program is sought in a bill introduced today in the 29th legislature by the senate committee on aeronautics.

The bill as introduced provides for appointment by the governor of a director of aeronautics and a six-member aeronautics advisory committee.

Companion bills submitted by the senate committee, of which Sen. Ernest Thor Olson is chairman, call for adoption of a zoning act and a comprehensive revised airports act designed to unify aeronautics laws and regulations of this state with other states and with the federal government.

The aeronautics department bill specifies that the person selected for the position of director must have a degree in engineering or a license to practice in this state and must have had at least three years of administrative experience in civil aeronautics affairs. The regular code head salary of $7500 is stipulated. Director and committee members would serve at the pleasure of the governor.

Red Winter Drive Aided by Lend Lease

WASHINGTON, Feb. 16 (AP)—Russia's winter drive into Germany, Admiral Emory S. Land informed congress today, was bolstered by 3,447,000 tons of lend-lease cargo shipped during the last six months of 1944.

Urging extension of the lend-lease program for another year beyond its June 30 expiration date, the head of the war shipping administration told the house foreign affairs committee the shipments to Russia were "substantially in excess" of earlier goals.

They included, he said, urgently needed foodstuffs for the red armies, munitions, equipment for soviet war industries, railway equipment and motor trucks.

Yank Raid On Tokyo Monopolizes News

LONDON, Feb. 16 (AP)—The American attack on Tokyo monopolized London headlines today. The Star commented editorially that the carrier-borne operation was an "outstanding example of naval skill and daring whose morale effect may be incalculable."

SON OF CARDINAL MANAGER KILLED

NEW YORK, Feb. 16 (AP)—Major Billy Southworth, Jr., son of William H. Southworth, manager of the St. Louis Cardinals was identified today as one of five crew members missing after the crash of a Superfortress in Flushing bay yesterday.

The air transport command at LaGuardia field said Southworth, of Sunbury, Ohio, was the pilot of the B-29, which overshot the airport in attempting an emergency landing, crashed into the bay and exploded. He listed his father as next-of-kin. He was about 25 years old and was a professional baseball player before his enlistment in the army air force in 1941.

Police and coastguard crews today grappled through the icy waters for their bodies.

Of the five survivors, four were crew members and the fifth a civilian, identified by the ATC as W. A. Burkus, technical expert for the Bendix corporation, South Bend, Ind.

The B-29 was en route to Florida from Mitchell field, Long Island, about 15 airline miles from LaGuardia field.

Washington Lawmakers Send Fiery Reply to Floridan

OLYMPIA, Feb. 16 (AP)—An offer from Rep. Joe C. Jenkins of Florida to assist Washington legislators to put through an "anti-closed shop" law, such as Florida recently adopted, drew a fiery eight-page reply from legislators here this week.

Jenkins' offer was contained in a mimeographed letter to all legislators here.

The reply, signed by 36 Washington representatives and senators, headed by Rep. Max Wedekind (D-King), advised the Florida legislators in effect to "look for the mote in his own eye."

It listed labor records of the southern states, including Florida, and described them as "a story of medieval conditions and want in a land of plenty," it advised Jenkins against attempting "a nation-wide campaign," to introduce anti-labor laws while many working men are abroad with the armed forces, and continued: "Any fair-minded person claiming to have the interests of the people foremost in his mind should first look to his immediate surroundings and carefully note changes presently needed to make that area a better place in which to live."

"Abraham Lincoln's proclamation of emancipation was for all the people of the south, not just the slaves," the letter said in part.

At another point it mentions: "You make no mention of the bar association or the medical association which are absolute closed shops. Regardless of title these groups have powers far beyond anything labor may endeavor to apply."

Guerrilla Fighter Scores New Success

PORTLAND, Feb. 16 (AP)— A 26-year-old navy officer who also was a guerrilla chief on Leyte was still a little breathless today, but from his good luck as an author—not his escapades overseas.

Last night Lt. Iliff Richardson, Los Angeles, learned that his book, "American Guerrilla," would be listed by Book-of-the-Month club, Inc. The information came from Ira Wolfert, Pulitzer prize-winner and war correspondent who was Richardson's "ghost writer."

Richardson's here on a four-day speaking tour of the area's war plants.

Brother-In-Law of Governor Snell Dies

PORTLAND, Feb. 15 (AP) — Merrill D. Rose, 44, secretary-manager of a morticians firm here and state game commissioner, died last night after tumbling from a horse at Oswego Lake Hunt club.

Hospital attendants said death was caused by a heart attack, not the fall. Rose, brother-in-law of Governor Snell, was born at Corning, Iowa, and had lived here since 1916. His home was at Oswego.

Survivors include the widow, Beatrice, sister of Governor Snell; two children, Sally Anne and Merrill D. II; his parents, a brother and a sister, all of Portland.

Chinese Couple Wait To Become Americans

CHUNGKING, Feb. 16 (AP) — Newspapers featured the American carrier attack on Tokyo today as "an almost unimaginable epic of American might and daring." Great rejoicing prevailed in this Chinese capital, which still bears scars of Japanese bombing attacks of 1941.

BOYS SNATCH PURSE FROM WOMAN HERE

Mrs. Katherine Hanks, Evans apartments, reported to city police Thursday that two boys snatched her purse, containing about $80 in currency and nearly $1000 in war bonds, as she was entering the Evans building Thursday night. One boy fled after taking the purse, with Mrs. Hanks in pursuit, and the other boy ran in another direction.

Mrs. Hanks was unable to catch the thief and a city-wide search for the boys has brought no result as yet. Very little description of the culprits was obtained, other than that both boys were bare-headed and one seemed to be about 14 years old and the other was younger and smaller.

The purse is blue in color and the currency was in denominations of ones, fives and two twenties. The bonds were thought to include 16 $25 bonds, two $100 bonds and the balance in $50 bonds. The serial numbers will be secured soon. Any person finding any of this property should notify the police department at once.

Arguments Heard In Fight Over Judgeship

SALEM, Feb. 16 (AP) — The state supreme court heard arguments yesterday in the suit of Circuit Judge Franklin C. Howell, Portland, who is trying to void the election of District Attorney James R. Bain to the judgeship now held by Howell.

Howell, who was defeated by Bain last November, contends the election was illegal because Bain was nominated by assembly. Howell contends that the judiciary laws do not provide for such nominations.

The Multnomah county circuit court ruled in favor of Bain.
