

Society

By Joan Campbell

Bride-Elect Is Honored at Shower

Of the many lovely showers and parties which have been given for Mary Lou Fowler, whose marriage to Sgt. Carl Smykil, USMC, will be an event of February 17, none was more enjoyable than that of Saturday evening, February 10, in the ladies' lounge of the American Legion hall.

Spring flowers and colors were used to decorate the rooms and the attractive tea table, as well as the table on which many lovely gifts were placed for the honor guest.

A piano selection was presented by Elaine Abbott, after which "When Irish Eyes Are Smiling" and "I Love You Truly" were sung by Patty O'Leary, accompanied by Miss Abbott at the piano.

Refreshments were then served by the hostesses Mrs. J. R. Abbott, Mrs. A. L. Paul, Mrs. William Long, Mrs. James Hunter and Mrs. Fred LaForge, assisted by Frances Ayris, Charlene Cain and Margie DuFour.

Those invited to the affair were Mrs. Keith Ambrose, Mrs. Lee McMullen, Mrs. Paul Otterbein, Mrs. Al Petersteiner, Mrs. A. P. Heup, Mrs. H. Petrick, Mrs. B. McNehey, Mrs. Carl Schubert, Mrs. Earl Tempel, Mrs. J. Cox, Mrs. H. A. Nitschelm, Mrs. L. Finley, Mrs. R. Motschenbacher, Mrs. J. Gallagher, Mrs. O. D. Matthews, Mrs. G. L. Britt, Mrs. Fred Heilbronner, Mrs. R. S. Hopkins, Mrs. John Schubert, Mrs. Marje Burleigh, Mrs. Melba Holbrook, Mrs. Thora DuFour, Mrs. Letha Landis, Mrs. Jennie Hurn, Mrs. Viola Dixon, Mrs. L. C. Cain, Mrs. Cressa Grubb, Mrs. Doris Peyton, Frances Ayris, Charlene Cain, Margie DuFour, Frances Glicerist, Joyce Cox, June Dixon, Elaine Abbott, Patty O'Leary, Mary Livingston and the guest of honor, Mary Lou Fowler.

Sojourners

With a lovely bright sun shining on Valentine's Day, a fine attendance at Sojourners was noted, when members and guests gathered at the Willard hotel on Wednesday, for their mid-February meeting. Hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. Frank Tarr, Mrs. F. A. Murphy, Mrs. Vera Wall, and from Medford, Mrs. E. N. DePrez.

Three new members to be welcomed were Mrs. Ray Brown, Mrs. O. E. Powell, and Mrs. C. B. Larkin.

Prizes, which are always defense stamps at the regular meetings of Sojourners, were awarded in bridge to Mrs. C. A. Landy and Mrs. Frank Tarr, and in pinocle to Mrs. A. J. Lambert.

Following the social hour, a brief business meeting was conducted by Mrs. Byron K. Friedman, president of the club. Ten volunteers for the February USO cookie project were called for in order to divide the work evenly among the members for the making of sixty dozen cookies, which is the club's weekly quota throughout the month.

Plans were discussed for the annual spring tea at the Willard hotel and the date was set for Wednesday, March 14. Chairman and committees will be announced at the next meeting, which will be February 28.

Sketches Sale

Kay Hoffman of Klamath Falls, a senior student of art at Montana State college, carried her studies far afield last Monday when she was one of five students chosen to sketch the largest horse sale of the year at the Bozeman livestock yards. Some 300 horses afforded interesting subject matter for the select group of artists, who rode to the sale yards in a stockman's truck, and sketched to the accompaniment of the crying of the auctioneer and the business of the ring.

The project was under the direction of Jessie Wilber of the art department of the college.

Costume Party

Camp Fire Girls and Blue Birds from all groups in the city enjoyed a Valentine costume party which was held on Friday, February 9, in the auditorium of Fremont school.

Following the grand march, prizes were awarded to Ann Galluspy for the most attractive costume, and Betty Franklin for the most humorous. Many varied and attractive costumes were worn, and members of the Wahanka group were distinguished from others by wearing a red heart upon which was printed the name of the group.

The girls were entertained with impromptu piano solos by Jean Selby, Mary Jane Howard and Susan Vandenberg and dancing by Jean Adams, Diane Oldenburg, Barbara Babcock, Joan Hawkins and Ann Galaspay.

After group singing and games had been enjoyed by the guests, refreshments were served to 120 girls by Mrs. R. W. Hooker, party chairman. Other leaders assisting during the evening were Mrs. Percy Murray, Mrs. Morgan Johnson, Mrs. J. K. McAndrews, Mrs. Harry Stoier and Mrs. J. F. Lovell.

Fire Makers

Six girls of the Wawakee Camp Fire group held their Fire Maker's dinner on January 22 at the home of their guardian, Mrs. J. F. Lowell on 708 Jefferson.

In order to fulfill this requirement, preparatory to taking Fire Maker's rank, the girls planned the well balanced menu, purchased the food, cooked and served the meal and cleaned the kitchen.

Candlelight tables added to the gaiety of the party, and 16 guests were served by the hostesses, Marilyn Hemmingsen, Betty Bennet, Catherine Blanas, Beverly Kohn, Dolores Kidder, and Sally Barnhisel, assisted by Mrs. Matt Kohn Jr. and Mrs. Lovell. Carol Reynolds, scribe, was asked to make a written report of the dinner.

Tau Chapter

The Tau chapter of Beta Sigma Phi met at the home of Mrs. George Allensworth on 1130 Lincoln street Thursday night. A very unique travel party was enjoyed by all and Mrs. Jules Napier was in charge of the games. Some very interesting travel games were played concerning spots of interest around Klamath Falls and cities of the United States. Prizes for the games were won by Mrs. George Allensworth and Mrs. Lloyd Smith.

The refreshments were served picnic style and marshmallows were toasted in the fireplace during the course of the evening.

Those present were Doris Yantis, Mrs. Russel Fairchild Jr., Lois Rumor, Mrs. George Allensworth, Mrs. Jules Napier, Lorna Halvorsen, Francis Ballin, Helen Crapo and Mrs. Lloyd Smith.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Scharfenstein have received notes from them saying that they have taken a house at Balboa Beach for six months. Their address is 927 East Bay drive, Balboa Beach, California. Mrs. Scharfenstein writes that her husband's health is greatly improved.

IN BOSTON recently were Master Sergeant and Mrs. Francis A. Deputy (the former White), who are here shown cutting their cake at a reception which was held for following their wedding. Mrs. Deputy is now making her home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James L. White in Watertown, Massachusetts. Mr. Deputy is a graduate of Klamath Union high school with the class of 1938.

Lisbony Honored at Farewell Parties

Farewell parties were given this week in honor of Lt. Lisbony Cmdr. and Mrs. Stephen T. Kaspar entering 14 guests with cocktails at their home on Pacific Terrace, where they met at the home of Lt. and Mrs. Earl Dornheim on Main street for a buffet supper. On Monday evening, Cmdr. and Mrs. L. T. Coggeshall were hosts in their quarters with guests present.

Lisbony left on February 13 for overseas duty. While here, he was attached to the medical department of the Marine Barracks from Washington, D. C.

March of 1944. He has had 14 years of service, and during that time he has seen duty in Hawaii, Samoa, the Philippines and South America, as well as a number of places in his own country. Mrs. Lisbony's daughter, Margo, will remain in Klamath Falls for the time being.

A Valentine party in the home of Mrs. Lisbony on Saturday, February 12, was a huge success. The entertainment consisted of several songs, and ended with an all-time community sing, and the playing of old songs were recalled. The main attraction of the evening was a hurdle dance, which was managed to go on without touching the ground. As it was lowered, won prizes, and Lt. Lisbony and Ann Dabel were the lucky winners. Mrs. J. M. Babcock was the special award of the evening. A delightful buffet dinner was served at midnight, and the decorations were in keeping with the Valentine theme. Congratulations go to Andrew Ginochio and his management committee for enjoyable party.

Mrs. Frank Blake of Santa Barbara, California, parents of Lt. P. Eliel, are visiting in Klamath Falls to see their new grandsons, Alan Blake, who came from the hospital here, and Mrs. Andrew Ginochio, who is recovering from his wounds.

Mrs. Andrew Ginochio, who is recovering from his wounds, was accompanied by Mrs. Stephen T. Kaspar and Mrs. Frederick G. G. with a dinner at their home on Laguna on Tuesday evening.

Mrs. F. G. Lewis of Klamath Falls is the hostess for 30 guests at a cocktail party for the officers that will be held at the quarters of the department and their families.

The table was decorated with red and white carnations and red and white candles. Small red hearts were scattered around the table to suit the Valentine motif.

Mrs. H. J. Carkou of Klamath Falls is the hostess for Cmdr. and Mrs. L. Coggeshall, Lt. Cmdr. and Mrs. J. Parsons and Lt. and Mrs. Jackson Norwood on Friday evening.

To Meet

Bert C. Thomas, regent of the Klamath chapter of Daughters of the American Revolution, has called a special meeting for Monday evening, February 19. The purpose will be to receive the annual reports of the various committees. Arrangements for the activities of the chapter must be filed with officers by March 1.

INVITATIONS ARE BEING RECEIVED for the wedding of Rose Durment Macartney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph R. Macartney Sr., and Ensign Denis C. Babson, USNR, son of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Perkins Babson of Los Angeles. Vows will be exchanged on March 1 at St. Paul's Episcopal church. —Kennell-Ellis

Luther League

The Luther League of the Klamath Lutheran church met at the church parlors on Tuesday evening, February 13, for a Valentine social. The program consisted of a discussion of "Ways and Means of Doing Missionary Work" by Donna Wilkes, and a flute solo by Ingrid Norland, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Hans Norland.

After a short business meeting, games were played, and refreshments served by Goldie Olson and Joyce Werner. The next meeting of the Luther League will be held on Tuesday, February 27, following the Lenten service at the church. Officers of the League are Virginia Oberg, president; Helen S. Simonson, vice president; Marilyn Olson, secretary; Judith Larson, treasurer.

Stork Shower

Mrs. Hugh Davis and daughter, Carolyn, were co-hostesses at a stork shower given at the Davis home on 2015 Herbert on Sunday afternoon, February 11, for Mrs. R. K. Johnson, the former Genesse Cahoon. Games were played, after which refreshments were served and the gifts opened by the guest of honor.

The guest list included Mrs. Douglas Evans, Mrs. W. R. Cahoon, Mrs. Charles Seaton, Mrs. Nick Nicholson, Mrs. Gerald Rainwater, Donna Burke, Helen Hasy, Sharon Willis, Marcey Wiggins, Barbara King, Edna Renner, Pat Richardson, Billie Lee McAdams, Beverly Zamsky, Marie Suty, the honor guest and the hostesses.

AT HOME IN OMAHA, Nebraska, are Lt. and Mrs. Jack Lindh, who were married in August of last year. She is the former Theresa Carlson of Hollywood. Lt. Lindh, son of Mr. Gus Lindh of this city, is now stationed at headquarters of the seventh service command in Omaha. He returned from overseas in December, 1943, after completing his missions with the United States army air corps, flying out of Africa.

Is Eighteen

Mrs. Bert Farris of Lakeshore drive entertained for her daughter, Nadine, with a party celebrating her 18th birthday on Wednesday, February 14. Valentine colors of red and white were used throughout the rooms, and luncheon was served to the guests, who arrived at 8:30.

Guests including members of the junior ambulance corps were Dorothy Schoog, Alice Mead, Lucille Beland, Ione Bawman, Lorraine Corday, Nadine Chastain, Alvin Rulard, a merchant marine who is here from Oakland, Calif., and PFC Arnon Goodwin, PFC Jack Gaughan and Pvt. Mason K. Hamilton, all of the Marine Barracks.

Couple Marry

Married at the Klamath Lutheran church on Wednesday, February 7, were Thomas Frank Howell of the Klamath naval air station and Edina Engel of Wing, North Dakota. The young couple were attended by Mrs. Leona Kolb of Portland, Oregon, and John T. Zebell, also of the air station. The Reverend S. M. Topness officiated at the simple ceremony.

At the organ was Mrs. A. H. Denison, who played the traditional wedding marches. Guests at the ceremony were Jean Alaman, Gwendolyn Haney, Mrs. Rauberta Jarde, I. Davis and A. Yesko, all of Klamath Falls.

The couple are residing at 2520 S. 6th for the present time.

Mrs. Moorhead Is Monday Speaker

Mrs. George R. K. Moorhead, president of the Oregon State Federation of Women's clubs, was the guest speaker at the Monday afternoon meeting of the Klamath Falls Woman's Library club in the main auditorium of the city library. Mrs. Moorhead has been in Ashland conducting a series of classes there, and spent Monday here, returning in the afternoon.

Mrs. Moorhead's talk was informal and centered around "Today's Family." She stressed the need of the "middle road" in the training and handling of young people of today and urged her listeners to be considerate of the problems which face young boys and girls in these times.

During the afternoon Mrs. David Bridge was presented in a group of delightful vocal numbers accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Don J. Zumwalt.

There was an interesting display of family heirlooms and also baby pictures of members of the Library club, this feature arranged by Mrs. Carleton W. Hornbrook and Mrs. Horace E. Getz.

At 12 o'clock noon, Mrs. Moorhead was complimented at luncheon given by Mrs. Glenn Kent, Library club president, at the Pelican. Guests included Mrs. Moorhead, Mrs. Walter West, Mrs. Emil Albrecht, Mrs. R. P. Ellingson, Mrs. Roland Oakes, Mrs. Guy Harmon, Mrs. Loren Palmerton, Mrs. Walter R. Brown and Mrs. Neal Stewart.

This group was invited to an informal tea at the home of Mrs. Brown, program chairman of the club, to compliment Mrs. Moorhead. Other guests included Mrs. E. D. Hamacher and Mrs. A. G. Proctor. Mrs. Glenn Kent presided at the prettily appointed tea table, centered with spring blossoms. Mrs. Moorhead left late Monday afternoon for Ashland and returned this week to her home in Salem.

Mrs. Brown announced that the annual spring play, presented for the pleasure of the club by the drama group of the American Association of University Women, would be given Monday, March 12, at the Little Theatre off Mon Claire, Klamath Union high school.

Navy Officers Wives Meet on Wednesday

The regular luncheon of the Navy Officers Wives club will be held on Wednesday, February 21, at the BOQ of the Klamath naval air station. Election of officers and general business will be in order during the meeting. Mrs. John F. Lynch, vice-president, will preside. The nominating committee includes Mrs. Lynch, chairman, Mrs. R. W. Murphy and Mrs. John Ingram. After the election, entertainment, including bridge and games will be enjoyed by the members.

A good attendance is urged, and reservations may be made by calling Mrs. Choisser at 6330.

Joint Birthday

Mrs. James Blair and her sister, Mrs. W. Canning celebrated their birthdays at a joint party on Monday, February 5, at the Blair home on Oregon avenue. More than 30 friends called during the afternoon to wish them each a happy birthday.

The guests included Mrs. Roy Cook, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Bridge, Adelle and Jody Bridge, Mrs. C. Martin and Larry, Mr. and Mrs. A. Oberg, Patsy and Virginia Oberg, Mrs. A. Simonson, Helen Simonson, Mrs. Anna Woolver, Mrs. Hudson, Mrs. C. Murdoch, Lloyd Woolver, Mrs. F. Weise, Mrs. Hoff, Mrs. Frances Hanson and son Roger of Eugene, Oregon, Mrs. S. Munson, Paul and Mary Ann Munson, Mrs. M. Adkisson, Betty and Calvin Adkisson, Mrs. Mucci, Mr. and Mrs. James Blair and Mrs. W. Canning.

Refreshments were served with Mrs. Bridge, Mrs. Oberg and Mrs. Cook assisting at the coffee table. Later Mrs. Bridge favored the group with a solo, and several numbers were sung by a quartet which included Mrs. Murdoch, Mrs. Hoff, Mrs. Weise and Mrs. Bridge.

Potluck Dinner

Captain and Mrs. Truman Runyan were the guests of honor at a potluck dinner which was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bryant Williams at Spring Lake on Saturday evening, February 10.

Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Martin Swanson, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mack, Mr. and Mrs. John Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. L. Orth Sisemore, Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Epley and Mrs. Jessie Lyle, who is the mother of Mrs. Runyan.

Captain Runyan is stationed at Fresno, California at the present time.

ANNOUNCEMENT was made of the engagement of Frances Gilchrist, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Gilchrist of 315 Grant, to Private Lowell Deets, U. S. army, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Deets, also of Klamath Falls. —Kennell-Ellis

Lt. and Mrs. J. F. Claeys have left for a 15-day vacation with friends and relatives in South Bend, Indiana. Mrs. Claeys is the president of the Navy Officers Wives club.

Lt. and Mrs. B. F. Johnson are receiving congratulations on the recent arrival of a baby daughter, which has been named Electra.

Plans are nearing completion for the Navy Officers Wives informal jamboree which is to be given at the BOQ of the Klamath naval air station on Saturday evening, February 17, according to Mrs. Shirley Congdon, social chairman. All navy wives and their husbands are asked to come prepared for a good time. The party will begin at 9 o'clock, and many choices of entertainment have been planned for every guest.

Roosevelt PTA

The Roosevelt PTA will observe National Founder's Day on Tuesday afternoon, February 20, at 2 o'clock in the school auditorium.

Mrs. Donald McKay, president of the Klamath League of Women Voters, will address the group on the Dumbarton Oaks conference. The school band directed by Mrs. Sherman Carter will play several selections. Special invitations have been extended to all past presidents of the school unit and recognition will be given to them. As tribute is paid at this time to the original founders of 1897, so it is deemed fitting to recognize our own pioneers and the contributions they have made.

Mrs. Edward Kliever and her committee will serve tea in the cafeteria, and as previously arranged, the Girl Scout troop with Mrs. Everett Vanderpool as counselor, will supervise the pre-school children in the girls' gymnasium.

A cordial invitation is extended to anyone interested in attending.

Honored

On Wednesday afternoon, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Keith Ambrose at 430 N. 3rd, was the scene of a lovely party when Mrs. Edgar Bingham and Mrs. Ambrose, assisted by Janice Barnstable, entertained a number of guests to honor Mrs. Lynn Bauman and infant son, Gary Lynn.

Novel games were played during the afternoon, after which courtesy prizes were awarded to Mrs. L. K. Phelps and Mrs. John O'Connor. Many beautiful gifts were received by Mrs. Bauman for her son.

Later in the afternoon, refreshments were served to Mrs. Lynn Bauman and son, Mrs. L. K. Phelps, Mrs. John Yaden, Mrs. Earl Redman, Mrs. Mary Noble, Mrs. L. D. Gass, Mrs. H. I. McKim, Mrs. Myrtle Duffy, Mrs. Dale Mattson, Mrs. Jack Dellis, Mrs. Elwood McKim, Mrs. Ted Blanchard, Mrs. W. T. Withrow, Mrs. Florence Terwilliger, Mrs. John O'Connor, Mrs. C. H. Barnstable, Mrs. Don Wideman, Mrs. Andrew L. Gray and the hostesses.