

Business Women Hear Speakers

"An Enlightened World" is the program topic for Monday evening's dinner meeting of the Klamath County Business and Professional Women's club at the Willard hotel at 6:30 o'clock. Lucile Tweed, chairman of the international relations committee, will be in charge of the program.

At the club's last meeting on February 5, the evening's program topic was under the direction of Stella Bowne, property committee chairman, assisted by Miss Tweed who arranged for the various speakers.

Frances Peterson of Salem, state supervisor of distributive education, was a guest speaker, and other business women of this city who outlined opportunities for women in their various fields were Charlotte Marshall of the U. S. employment office; Lorraine Quillen who is employed in the office of Weyerhaeuser Timber company; Dorothy Kerns, home economics teacher at KUHS; Ensign Eagan, a nurse at the Marine Barracks; Polly Schroeder, a member of the staff in the OPA office, and Yeoman 1/c Marietta Conklin of the naval air station.

Musical numbers for the evening were provided by Violette Moore who entertained with two vocal selections, and Sgt. Barnack of the Marine Barracks, a member of the Marine band, who played instrumental solos.

In observance of Valentine's Day, table decorations were carried out in red and white, with carnations and lighted tapers centering the speakers' table. Also assisting the program chairman were Nell Olson, Mable Humble, Josephine Penrod and Vida Hansen.

Members of the club's executive board met Monday evening, February 12, at the home of Joy Ralph on North Eighth, with eleven in attendance including Norma Miller, president; Lelia Robinson, Hazel Morrison, Veneta Hunter, Mabel Humble, Willie Uhlig, Ann Price Hallett, Jacqueline Newcom, Madge Boley, Lucile Tweed and the hostess.

New members being welcomed into BPW include Lorraine Quillen, Lois B. Hunt of Bonanza, Asta Kierulf, Lillian La-Claire and Ina A. Patti.

Throughout Sunday, February 18, the club will provide assistants at the USO center with Bertha Geiger, Delphia Hoyt, Lorraine Quillen and Jacqueline Newcom acting as heads of the four groups of workers.

Aloha Chapter

Aloha chapter, Order Eastern Star, held its regular meeting at the Masonic hall on Tuesday evening, February 13. A letter was read from Mrs. Hazel Foster, worthy grand matron of Oregon, stating that she would make her official visit to Aloha on April 10.

Mrs. Minne Ward and Mrs. Laura Willis are the only two charter members in Klamath Falls at this time. Mrs. Willis was presented to the chapter after which she was presented with a gift remembrance on her birthday.

After the business had been concluded, a program was given, with Alpha Phelps in charge. She introduced Wendell Smith who sang "Sweet Phyllis" by Lily Strickland and "Romeo in Georgia" by John Prindle Scott. He was accompanied by Mrs. Elbert Veatch at the piano.

A very amusing skit, "The Ten Dollar Kiss," was then presented by a group of students in dramatics from the high school. Kelly Farris, who acted as master of ceremonies, introduced the cast which included David Williams, Helen Knowles, Naomi Kinsley, Monnette Galmes, Glen Rouse and Charles Blackstone.

Refreshments were served by the committee including Laura Black, Sue Chilcote and Helen Anderson. The next regular meeting will be held on February 27, when Helen Listoe will be program chairman.

Past Matrons

Mrs. Wilbur A. Jones, Mrs. Robert E. Wattenburg, Mrs. George Chastain, and Mayme Whittington will be the hostess committee for the regular monthly meeting of Aloha Past Matron club, to be held on Friday, February 23, at the Masonic temple on Klamath avenue.

The meeting will begin with a one o'clock luncheon. Mrs. A. B. Epperson, club president, will arrange a special birthday table for all members whose birthdays come in December, January or February. The luncheon will be followed by a short business session and an afternoon of cards.

Friendship Club

Bertha Bishop of 429 No. 9th, was hostess to the Friendship club on the evening of Friday, February 9, and she was assisted by Ruth Stanley. Three tables of auction bridge were in play during the evening, and high score went to Idoline Schupp, second to Mrs. O'Neill, low to Blanche Molschenbacher and the special award to Stella Dryden. Following cards, refreshments were served by the hostesses.

Allen Adding Machines
Friden Calculators
Royal Typewriters
Desks - Chairs - Files
For those hard-to-get items
PIONEER PRINTING AND STATIONERY CO.
124 So. 9th Klamath Falls

Wed Saturday

February 10 was chosen as the date for the wedding of Mary Lou Rusco, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kermit Rusco of St. Francis Park, and I. E. Kitching, ADM 2/c, U. S. navy, son of Mrs. Alice Hawley of Los Angeles. The simple ceremony took place at Reno, Nevada, and for her wedding, the bride chose a traditional white wedding gown of satin and chiffon trimmed with lace. Her fingertip veil of net was held in place by a coronet. The young couple was unattended.

Mrs. Kitching graduated from Klamath Union high school with the class of 1944, and later attended SOCE where she pledged Delta Gamma. The groom is originally from American Falls, Idaho, and attended the University of Idaho before being called into the service. At present he is attached to the Klamath naval air station.

Several lovely affairs have been planned for the newlyweds since their return to Klamath Falls.

Baby Shower

Mrs. Noel Turner and Mrs. Melvin Buell were hostesses at a stork shower given at the Turner home on Monday evening at 7:30, in honor of Mrs. Arthur Millard. The shower was miscellaneous, and during the evening pinocle was enjoyed by the guests.

Those present at the affair were Mrs. Carl Ewing, Mrs. I. J. Ezell, Mrs. Lloyd Seely, Mrs. Jerome Henry, Mrs. Chris Litzenberger, Mrs. Earl Adams, Mrs. Eppendahl, Mrs. Otto Clawson, Mrs. Gilmore Gundersen, Mrs. Melvin Buell, Mrs. Arthur Millard, Mrs. Noel Turner and Mrs. Roy Turner.

Pinocle Party

BLY—Mr. and Mrs. Garold Madison entertained a small group of friends with a pinocle party on Saturday, February 10. Refreshments were served to Mr. and Mrs. Max Cline, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Rouse and Mr. and Mrs. Red Smith. High score was held by Jim Rouse and low award went to Garold Madison.

CHRISTENED IN JANUARY

Kurt Allan Dornheim, 5-month-old son of Lieutenant (jg) and Mrs. E. H. Dornheim of 1726 Johnson, was christened at St. Paul's Episcopal church in the month of January by the Reverend Frederick C. Wissenbach. Lt. (jg) Dornheim is attached to the Marine Barracks. —Kennell-Ellis

The "Scotch" Evangelist
Lt.-Colonel James Bell
will conduct a series of meetings at
The Salvation Army
400 Klamath Avenue
Tuesday, February 13th
through
Sunday, February 18th
Every Night at 8:00 P. M.

The Colonel will hold a Spiritual Clinic every day this week from 10:00 to 12:00 A. M. Interviews will be confidential, and each case will be given careful consideration.

The public is invited to attend these meetings.
DON'T FAIL TO HEAR HIM!

MARRIED RECENTLY

Mary Lou Rusco, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kermit Rusco of St. Francis Park, became the bride of I. E. Kitching, ADM2/c, U. S. navy, son of Mrs. Alice Hawley of Los Angeles. The ceremony took place at Reno, Nevada, on Saturday, February 10. —Evergreen

USO To Honor Volunteers at Party

USO volunteers are being entertained at a dessert party on Thursday, February 22, in the banquet room of the Willard hotel. All Senior and Junior hostesses are cordially invited to attend, and are asked to make their reservations at the USO center. There is a sign-up list posted in the kitchen. All reservations must be made by Monday morning, February 19.

Entertainment is being furnished to the service men and women with Lynn Roycroft, chairman of the program committee, as emcee.

Clarence Humble, chairman of the operating committee will present pins to those hostesses who have served more than fifty hours at the USO club. Hostesses are urged to check their hours with Alice Miles to ascertain whether proper credit has been given to them. It is upon the basis of the records posted in the kitchen at the center that these volunteer pins are awarded.

The USO Turf club had its gala opening Wednesday evening at the USO center with many service men and women witnessing the races, and cheering their favorites to victory. The sturdy wooden steeds that ploughed their way across the ping-pong table were Gallop, Anopholes, Leathernecker, Lady Wave, Klamath Falls and Dawg Face. The Klamath Sweepstakes and the Tulelake Derby were examples of the races that were run.

The winners of the races were presented theatre and dancing tickets, while the grand winner, Sgt. George Matthews, USMC, was given a free telephone call to his home in San Francisco. Those USO hostesses who participated in the operation of the races were Mrs. Otto Ellis, Dannie Hall, Marjorie Ongman, Joy Gwyn, Evelyn Dirschl, Mary Ann Lion, Verda Heidlund and Virginia Crawford.

The hungry spectators were served later by Mrs. S. R. Redkey, Mrs. W. E. Beck and Lee Robinson.

Bridge Party

BLY—Mrs. Jay Hughes entertained a group of friends with a bridge party on Thursday evening, February 8, in honor of her husband's birthday. Two tables were in play, and at a late hour, refreshments were served from a cleverly decorated table carrying out the Valentine theme.

Enjoying the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Herb Hadley, Mr. and Mrs. Clark Abbott and Mr. and Mrs. Spike Armstrong. High scores were held by Clark Abbott and Jay Hughes, the traveling prize by Betty Armstrong and consolation award went to Herb Hadley.

DUSHARME
HAIR-SHEEN WAVE-CREME
IT'S THE TALK OF THE TOWN
Discriminating women are raving about the new Dusharme Hair-Sheen Wave-Creme that restores silken beauty and shimmering highlights to dull, tired hair.
Easy to apply and economical to use, Dusharme is a modern beauty essential. A small amount applied to the hair before combing brings out the natural loveliness of the wave and makes tired-looking locks sparkle. Get a jar today for a real beauty "lift."
27.95
HOUSTON BEAUTY SALON
114 N. 8th St. Ph. 3916

VFW Dinner

Veterans of Foreign Wars, meeting in the KC hall on Thursday evening, February 15, had as their guests the Spanish American War veterans, their auxiliary, and members of the VFW auxiliary. On February 15, 1898, the battleship Maine was sunk, and this meeting was in commemoration of the event.

Cmdr. Walter Thompson introduced Cmdr. John Simmons of the Spanish American veterans, who expressed appreciation for the evening's invitation, and, in turn, introduced Cmdr. Frank Superior, a member of the second Oregon regiment to leave for this historic war. He as well as several other members spoke briefly to the guests.

Cmdr. J. H. Cunningham then gave a very interesting talk, stressing the fact that the Veterans of Foreign Wars was organized by Spanish American War veterans in St. Louis, Missouri in 1900.

Later in the evening, members of VFW post served a delicious supper to 150 members and guests.

Social Club

The Rebekah social club met in the IOOF hall on Wednesday, February 14, for a potluck luncheon with Alfreda Steinmetz and Cora Gehrke as hostesses. As the Red Cross had no work ready for the club to do, the afternoon was spent in visiting and individual handwork. Ora Sweet and Ruby Kenyon were appointed to have charge of refreshments at the meeting of Prosperity Rebekah lodge on February 16, as the social club is to serve at this meeting.

The next meeting will also be potluck, and hostesses will be Edith Ward and Mary Curtis.

Wednesday Party

MALIN—Ronald Kalina, Ruth Kalina and Joan Freitag entertained on Wednesday afternoon with a delightful Valentine party given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Freitag of Malin.

Games were played by the guests, and prizes were won by Karin Miller and Leslie Myers. A Valentine box had been attractively decorated for the occasion, and each of the guests received a valentine from the postmen, Ruth Kalina and Joan Freitag.

A pretty sweetheart cake and cream were served to Karin and Robert Miller, Glen Staskel, Leslie Myers, Jimmie Tofel and Alex and Janice Serutski.

Davis-Thomas Vows Exchanged at Texas

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd C. Bailey of Cannon City, Colo., have announced the marriage of their daughter, Patricia Ilene Thomas, to First Lieutenant Henry L. David, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Dutton of this city.

The wedding took place on Saturday, January 6, in San Antonio, Texas at St. Mark's Episcopal church, with the Reverend Henry Getz officiating at the impressive double ring ceremony. For her wedding, Mrs. David chose a dark dress with pink accessories, and carried a bouquet of carnations.

The bride was formerly a student at Colorado college in Colorado Springs, Colorado, and was a graduate of Cannon City high school.

Lt. David was graduated from Klamath Union high school with the class of 1940, after which he received his degree from the Electrical Engineering college at Los Angeles, Calif.

The young couple met while he was stationed at an air base in Pueblo, Colorado. It was from there that he received his overseas orders, and completed 35 missions over Germany as a bombardier on a B-24, returning to this country in September of last year.

Lt. and Mrs. David are now making their home at 1333 West French place in San Antonio, Texas, while he attends pilot school there.

PRESENTED BID

Patricia Helen Thomas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Thomas of Tulelake, and a senior at the University of Nevada at Reno, was one of five students to receive bids into Phi Kappa Phi, national scholastic honorary society.

—Brockman Studio, Reno

Lt. Col. and Mrs. Robert L. Mushen arrived in Klamath Falls last week to visit his mother, Mrs. S. A. Mushen, of South Riverside. Colonel Mushen returned last fall after spending three years in the North Atlantic area. He graduated from the school of Military Government at Princeton university in January, and left Tuesday for the Presidio of Monterey to await his new assignment in the Pacific area.

Has Party

A party was given for Lillian Stiles to celebrate her 11th birthday on February 3. Games were played, after which refreshments were served to George Moore, Dixie Davig, Helen Bunnell, Patty Jo Wolf from, Annabelle Cane, Donna Lou Cane, Phillip Cane, Sylvia Roberts, Jeannine Newcome and Virginia Jane Jessup.

Lillian is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Stiles of 4629 Austin, and she and her friends are students at the Allamont junior high school.

Merry Mixers

Louise Cramblet of 2117 Oak entertained the Merry Mixers club on Thursday evening, February 8. During the evening, bingo was played, with high score held by Marie McDonald and low by Eleanor Curtis. Those attending were Alberta Allen, Louise Cramblet, Dorothy Smith, Ruth Anderson, Jo Paup, Dora Hillman, Eleanor Curtis, Billee Snider, Marie McDonald, Maxine Rose and Ruth Lawrence.

Marie McDonald of 2434 Reclamation will be the next hostess.

SKETCHED FROM OUR STOCK--SHOWN IN OUR WINDOW

Dream of Loveliness
LaPointe's
BLACK MAGIC
Styled to give you the uncluttered look.
27.95