Brownie Troops Are Active in County

Members of Brownie troop 28 met in the cafeteria of the Altamont elementary school on Wednesday afternoon, February 14, for a St. Valentine's Day tea and exchange. Fifteen mothers, several teachers, and 26 of the 30 members of the troop were present.

Tea, punch and cake were served to the group by Brownie leader, Mrs. Gertrude Pruitt, assisted by Mrs. Jo Bliss and Mrs. F. A. Ralph.

Mrs. George Condrey, leader, and Mrs. David Snyder, assistant leader, of Brownie troop 31 of Roosevelt school, report that their troop members have collected large amounts of current magazines. These were taken to the USO to be distributed to hospital trains, which is helping to carry out the national theme of the Girl Scouts for 1945, "Service to Hospitals."

The Brownies have also collected a number of women's magazines which are to be taken to the Klamath air station for use by the Waves.

In appreciation of the troop's efforts, the leaders entertained them with a Valentine party at the Condrey home on Friday afternoon, February 16.

The Brownies of troop 30 at Altamont school, under the supervision of leader, Mrs. J. I. Zumalt and assistant, Mrs. Gilbert Franklin, have taken as their personal project this year, "Service to the County Farm for Old People." Valentine face paper bags for the old people were recently made by the Brownies at their regular meetings. These were filled with homemade cookies and candies which had been donated by Mrs. K. M. Peterson and Kathleen Baughn. The troop also sent two cakes, decorated in valentine motifs, to help make a special Valentine dinner at the farm. An assortment of late magazines were also eagerly received.

Margaret Mitchell wrote the last part of "Gone With the Wind" before the first part.
