Father, Son Night Scheduled by Elks

Father and son night will be observed at the Klamath Falls Elks lodge Thursday night, with Vernon Moore, the lodge's lectur- ing knight, in charge of the pro- gram.

Several 35 mm moving picture films will be shown to the dads and their youngsters. Hunting and fishing pictures and an ani- mated cartoon are on the sched- ule.

Ice cream and cake will be served. Moore said that all sons and grandsons of Elks are cor- dially invited, regardless of age.

County Schools to Omit Vacation

Students of the Klamath coun- ty schools, following suit as out- lined by the city school heads, will go through the spring months without the usual spring vacation, it was learned from the office of Fred Peterson, Klamath county school superintendent.

A number of the schools will close on May 18, for summer vaca- tion but Bonanza, Malin, Mer- rill and Henley schools will close at a later date due to the ob- servance of the harvest season. The county school office will an- nounce summer vacation dates for these schools within a short time.
