FUNNY BUSINESS

"I had it built special to take my place, sir—now do I get my furlough?"

FARM SALES BRISK IN KLAMATH BASIN

MERRILL—Farm sales, have been brisk for the past several months, gained three more additions recently with the announcement of the transfer of the C. E. Klund and Ernest Buck ranches in the Merrill district and the place owned by Mrs. Jennie Fugate on the west side of Tulelake.

Klund, who has farmed in the Merrill and Tulelake communities for eight years, sold his 120-acre ranch north of Merrill to Mrs. Fugate, who in turn sold her 57-acre ranch to Ivan Rose, Tulelake.

Mr. and Mrs. Klund, following a sale of farm machinery this week, will move to Klamath Falls to live. Klund plans to work with a brother-in-law for the present at Chilcoot, California. Mrs. Fugate will be assisted in operation of the farm by a son, Jack.

Mr. and Mrs. John Littak will take possession of the Buck ranch, one mile north of Merrill, March 1. Littak, former resident of New Jersey, is a nephew of Lewis Kanja.

Keno

L. E. Lummus and family and M. L. Parker and family left Sunday morning for Texas. They expect to make their home there.

Harvey Evans of Ellingson mill bought the Lummus house and Kenneth Velkos, also of Ellingson mill, purchased the Parker house. Both families have moved into their new homes.

Mr. and Mrs. Lummus had lived in Keno for about five years, and the Parkers came here last summer from Texas. Mrs. Lummus and Mrs. Parker are sisters.

repairs and adjustments are made.
