TIME GRANTED TO PLEAD IN CIRCUIT COURT

Statutory time to plead was granted a number of persons brought before Circuit Judge David R. Vandenberg for arraignment in circuit court at 10 o'clock this morning.

Of the persons indicted by the Klamath county grand jury on February 19, and ordered to appear for arraignment today, Doyle Cline Lilly, charged with grand larceny in connection with the theft of tools from John Liscey, failed to appear. On motion of District Attorney Clarence A. Humble, the court ordered Lilly's bond of $1000 forfeited at this time.

Herbert Daniel Stevens, US marine corps, indicted on a charge of robbery, not armed with a dangerous weapon, was given time and will appear February 28, at 10 a. m. He was represented by Attorney Joseph C. O'Neill.

Edward William Goedert, indicted on a charge of sodomy, entered a plea of innocence, and date for trial will be set at the March calendar call. The court appointed F. O. Small to represent Goedert, Merrill resident.

Dennis Samuel Gathwright, indicted on a charge of possession of stolen property, was represented by Attorney U. S. Balentine and granted statutory time. He will plead February 28.

Attorney A. C. Yaden represented John Hayter in court today and Hayter, charged with assault with a dangerous weapon, will plead February 28.

A plea of guilty to the charge of giving obscene writings was entered by Frank J. Workman and Workman will be sentenced February 28, Judge Vandenberg announced. Workman is represented by A. C. Yaden.

Lorenzo Parker, charged with grand larceny, was granted statutory time through his attorney, F. O. Small, and will enter his plea at 10 a. m. Monday. Small was appointed by the court.

Portland Man Named Dairy Group Head

PORTLAND, Feb. 23 (AP) — A Portland man, N. A. Peters of the Dairy Cooperative association, is new president of the Oregon Dairy Manufacturers' association.

Ed Reeser, Albany, was elected vice-president at the group's meeting here yesterday. Two officers were re-elected: F. F. Moser, Corvallis, treasurer, and Dr. G. H. Wilster, Corvallis, secretary.

Only four years ago, Oregon led the nation in ridding animals of Bang's disease—undulant fever source, dairymen said. They blamed an increase in the disease since then on the veterinarian shortage and improper use of vaccine.

Men Get Clean Sweep Of WSC Class Offices

PULLMAN, Feb. 23 (AP)—Indicating a reversal of the wartime trend toward co-ed class officers, men made a clean sweep of class presidencies at Washington State college elections yesterday.

Malin Chamber Slates Meeting

MALIN—The chamber of commerce will hold its annual meeting on Monday evening at 8 o'clock in the Broadway hall. There will be a crab feed for members and their wives, after which there will be an election of five new members to the board of directors.

President Edwin Stastny, has announced that those from which the five members to the board will be elected are Ben Pickett, Louis Kalina, Laddie Rajnus, Merle Loosley, Godfrey C. Blohm, A. Kalina, Clyde Van Meter, Joe Halousek, Emil Tofell, Harry Jackman and W. C. Dalton.

Featured on the program will be the Future Farmers of America and the Boy Scout troop, as well as some high school talent.

State Entomologist To Resign Position

PULLMAN, Feb. 23 (AP)—Laurel G. Smith, state extension entomologist since March 1938, disclosed today he was resigning at the end of this month to accept a newly created post of technological supervisor of entomological and agricultural problems for the Shell Oil company.

Smith will have his headquarters in San Francisco and will direct the work in Washington, Oregon and California.

Woman's Body Found In Creek Near Home

WALDPORT, Feb. 23 (AP) — Police today investigated the death of Mrs. Jeanette Ridgeman, 48, road contractor's wife whose body was found in a creek near her home 14 miles south of here.

The body, dressed only in underclothing and a coat, was brought here yesterday after it was found in three feet of water. Mrs. Ridgeman apparently fell in the stream after her husband left for work, neighbors said.

Mexican Water Treaty Approved

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23 (AP)—The senate foreign relations committee voted today to send the United States-Mexico water treaty to the floor with a recommendation that it be ratified.

Terms of the treaty provide for a division of waters of the Colorado river and the Rio Grande, and authorize the governments of the two countries to work out a plan for the development of the Tijuana river in California.

Opposition has sprung mainly from Californians, who contend it gives to Mexico waters of the Colorado on which they count for future development of their state.

173 Portlanders Arrested In Drive

PORTLAND, Feb. 23 (AP) — Pedestrians are still stepping off on the wrong foot in Portland and jaywalkers netted in the police safety drive totaled 173 today.

Arrests started Wednesday with 39 persons cited the first 24 hours, but the daily tally rose to 68 the second day and is still going up.

Burned Match Thief Steals Jewelry

PORTLAND, Feb. 23 (AP)—Police tried again today to track down Portland's "burned match" burglar, active in several recent thefts.

Edward J. Blyth reported jewelry valued at $1383 was stolen when his home was entered the other night. As in the previous cases, a trail of burned matches led through the rooms.

the Oder and Spree rivers toward Berlin.

Moscow's dispatches said Konev's first Ukrainian army was believed to have edged a Neisse river bridgehead to within 10 miles of Cottbus, on the Spree 12 miles west of Forst.

A battle was reported raging along the Neisse for 70 miles from the river's junction with the Oder near Fuerstenburg to the Goerlitz area east of Dresden.

The Russians had smashed forward 11 miles to reach the Guben area and the mounting action indicated that the end-the-war stroke heralded last night by Stalin might be loosed by the Russian high command soon.

Grocer Buys Farm Land Near Tulelake

TULELAKE—Earl Ager, local pioneer grocer, this week announced purchase of 42 acres of farm land on the Tulelake highway northwest of town. The land was owned by Mrs. M. S. Tate, who has not made her home here for some time. The property has been occupied by a Mr. and Mrs. Guerrin.

Ager plans to build a modern home when war conditions permit. No consideration on the transaction was made public.
