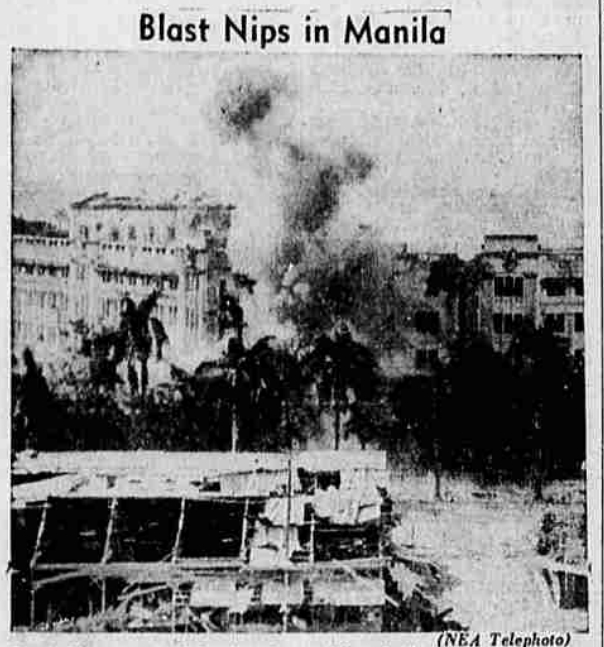
No Time On Her Hands!

Attractive Edna Linder holds down a regular job as head store girl at Fluhrer's bakery, but has found time to put in 150 hours at the USO center since its inception November 22, 1944. Miss Linder was the only volunteer to receive a 150-hour pin at the recent volunteers' party. She does clerical work, assists in the check room, mails packages and fulfills her duties as a Junior Hostess at USO three days a week, Saturday, Sunday and Monday. She goes to work at Fluhrer's before 7 o'clock each morning. Miss Linder, graduate of Medford high school, is 23 years old, and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Linder, 432 Owens.

Blast Nips in Manila



(NEA Telephoto)

Direct hits are scored by American artillery batteries on wall barrier which surrounds the Intramuros sector of Manila, where bitter fighting has developed as American guns and infantrymen slowly compressed the enemy lines. This dramatic photo was made by Tom Shafer, NEA-Acme photographer for War Picture Pool, from vantage point only 500 yards from target.
