

January Liquor Holiday Increases Nation's Stockpile

WASHINGTON, March 7 (AP)—The January alcohol holiday added 28,281,236 gallons to the nation's stockpile of hard liquor. Reporting this today, the treasury listed whiskey production during the month at 25,857,715 gallons, rum 161,715, gin 973,754 and brandy 1,288,054.

NOT SO NOISY

Most of the noise made by the firing of big guns cannot be heard at all by humans, since it is below the range of our ear mechanisms.

Victor Moore's Son Held by Germans

NEW YORK, March 7 (AP)—Victor Moore, stage and screen star, said today he had been informed by the war department that his son, PFC Robert E. Moore, 22-year-old infantryman, was a prisoner of war in Germany. Moore said that about a month ago the army reported his son missing in action after the German break-through. Young Moore appeared in the service show, "This Is the Army," and went overseas last fall. He lived in Freeport, N. Y.

A "blue moon" is only a natural phenomenon. It is caused by the refraction of moonlight through ice crystals high in the atmosphere.

Souvenir Explodes, Injures Woman

SAN GABRIEL, Calif., March 7 (AP)—An exploding Japanese shell seriously injured Mrs. Virginia Grantello, 37, in her home early today. The shell, sent by her son-in-law, a coast guardman, fell from the living room mantel into a wastebasket. Later, when she emptied the basket into the fireplace, the shell exploded. The woman was taken to an Alhambra hospital. Physicians said the small calibre shell fragment had so seriously injured her knee they might have to operate.

CHAIRMAN DIES

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., March 7 (AP)—Victor H. Hanson, chairman of the board of the Birmingham News and Age-Herald, died at his home here today after a brief illness.

DISCUSSION SET
PORTLAND, March 7 (AP)—The anti-inflation program will be discussed with newsmen here by John Hargrove, representing the OPA national advisory committee. Hargrove will be here two days, starting tomorrow.

MONTGOMERY WARD

"Jim says I'm smart to buy the children's shoes at Wards"

"I've got to hand it to you," he said. "It's no joke making the coupons stretch when you've a bunch of lively kids to keep in shoes." "Thank Wards," I told him. "Their shoes are actually better for the money... sturdier... longer wearing." And Wards are so particular about fitting the children extra carefully!
