Weather Menu Varied in Area

Below freezing temperatures last night, a thick blanket of snow, bright sunshine and a forecast for warmer weather tonight and showers tomorrow made up the changeable menu for weather observers this past 24 hours.

The U. S. weather bureau reported an unofficial .03 of precipitation following the Tuesday snowstorm which covered this area to a depth of several inches. A bright sun, which appeared early Wednesday afternoon, dispelled much of the fall in the valley area but three inches still covered the Marine Barracks plant as well as other higher sections.

Man Fined for Theatre Battle

S. W. Buttler of Klamath Falls, a Weyerhaeuser employe, who was involved in an altercation at the Esquire theatre Sunday night in which he assertedly bit Assistant Manager E. M. McCoy on the hand, was found guilty of being drunk and disorderly and fined $40 in police court Tuesday afternoon.

Police said Buttler became boisterous at about 8:25 p. m., Sunday, when he demanded seats which the theatre was unable to provide at that time. McCoy was called to the scene and prevailed upon Buttler to come to the office. En route to the office, Buttler became antagonistic and started to fight McCoy. McCoy grabbed him around the head and Buttler bit him in the hand, police said.

City police were called and Officer Anthony Nelms reported he arrived at the scene in time to hear Buttler call Manager Lloyd Lamb a vile name. Nelms took Buttler to the police station where he was charged with being drunk and disorderly.

He was released from custody Tuesday afternoon upon payment of the fine.

Examinations For Naturalization Set

Victor Hemmen of Portland, examiner from the department of immigration and naturalization, Portland, will be here Friday and Saturday forenoon, to conduct examinations and hearings for persons interested in naturalization.

Hemmen was in Klamath Falls on February 6, at which time one person was naturalized. There has been no formal class here this year. Those wishing to contact Hemmen, may do so at the courthouse.

Medford Teacher, Son Found Dead

MEDFORD, Ore., March 7 (AP)—Police sought for clues today to the deaths of a school teacher and her 15-year-old son, found in their homestead cabin shot through the head.

The bodies of Mrs. Opal Wheeler Mooter, 39, and her son, Lionel, were discovered yesterday in their isolated cabin on Savage creek. Police said both had been shot with a .32 special deer rifle.

District Attorney George W. Neilson said available evidence indicated slaying and suicide. The rifle lay beside the woman's body, and she clutched a third cartridge in her hand.

into the legal angles of the measure. Cornett said there is a possibility he might include a provision calling for a 31-member senate, and thus avert tie votes, such as the deadlock over the senate presidency two years ago which delayed organization of the legislature for two days.

Similar to Congress. Cornett said he believes in the plan because it is similar to the organization of congress.

The proposed amendment, however, will run into heavy opposition from counties which now have more than one senator, as they wouldn't want to lose any members. Counties which have more than one senator either by being in one-county districts or joint districts are: Multnomah, six senators; Marion, Lane and Umatilla, two each.

Vanport Bus Hits Residence

PORTLAND, Ore., March 7 (AP)—A loaded Vanport city bus swerved through a crowded intersection late last night and crashed into the front porch of a house, injuring 18 passengers.

The 22-year-old driver, Paul G. Maranville, said the brakes failed to respond on a downhill grade. The impact sheared off the front wheels of the bus and sent three feet of dirt flying over the porch of the house.

Six persons, all Portland or Vanport, were hospitalized, but none seriously injured. Twelve others were given first aid treatment.

ARMY PLANES FLY FROM AIR FIELD ON ISLE

Graves B. Erskine's third division moved up in the middle.

Near Shoreline. By nightfall the devildogs were still some 600 yards from the northeast shoreline opposite a bulge which, if reached, would cut the remaining Japanese garrison in two.

The fourth division was about 250 yards from volcanic cliffs which drop off onto a heavily-defended beach.

Clackamas Sheriff To Return Juvenile

Sheriff Fred Reaksecker of Clackamas county was in Klamath Falls today to obtain custody of a Klamath county juvenile wanted in Milwaukie for larceny from a dwelling.

County Juvenile Officer Harold Hendrickson said the youth had a past record for petty theft in this county, the incident occurring four years ago.

Dishwasher Held For Egg Battle

A quarrel over three eggs sent Earl Lauritz Christensen, dishwasher in the T-Bone cafe at 122 S. 9th, to the county jail for 10 days in lieu of $20 fine.

Christensen, according to state police, tried to fry himself three eggs on the T-Bone steak griddle. The eggs didn't fry quite right on the sizzling plate and Christensen got in an argument with the cook and hit him in the head. The altercation took place, unfortunately, before two state police officers who were in the T-Bone at the time for the after-Christ meal. They escorted Christensen to the county jail and he entered a plea of guilty before Justice of the Peace J. A. Mahoney.
