HIGH SCHOOL News Notes and Comment

By JUANITA SHINN
Thanks to Keith Cook for handling my column while I was out of town. Finding that most of KUHS was in Portland this week, I was surprised that anyone would still be here to carry on, but I find that there is quite a bit planned for the near future.

Loveland Coia, concert tenor, is being presented in a program sponsored by the music department on March 14. The program is to be for all students for an admission charge of 10 cents.

Students are invited to the Victory League championship games to be played off Wednesday night in the boys' gym, free of charge. This is the schedule:
7 p. m.—DeMolay vs. Hardy's Man's store, for the third place in the league.
8 p. m.—Jerry's Delivery vs. Army-Navy store, for championship in the league—losers to get second place.

Meetings will be held the remainder of this week to take care of the constitutional revision. The revision consists mainly of providing for some changes in the method of granting athletic awards. Wednesday morning the proposed revision will be read to a short student body meeting.

Thursday there will be a student congress meeting, and later that same day the home room representatives will explain the revision to their home rooms.

Friday morning, balloting will take place among the students.

A collection has been made during home room periods for the Junior Red Cross. A total of $143.38 has been contributed by the students.

College-survey blanks have been filled out by graduating seniors who have intentions of continuing on to schools of higher education. College preferences were stated, and the courses in which the students are interested.

Wounded
Glen G. Foster, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank O. Foster, 1845 Ivory, was seriously wounded in action in Germany on February 24, while serving with the seventh army, infantry division.

Almost $400 Paid In Police Court Fines

City police reported a lucrative day yesterday with slightly less than $400 paid in bail and fines in the past 24 hours.

George Jara, 1919 1/2 Wantland, was charged with running a red light and having inadequate brakes. He was cited to appear in police court this morning.

Mary Hancock of Ft. Klamath reported lost a brown purse with identification papers and Marial Folsom, route 1, Klamath Falls, reported to police the loss of a red purse containing several ration books and currency.

One drunk appeared in police court this morning. Two additional drunks bailed out.

NURSES PROMOTED AT AIR STATION

The two navy nurses on duty at the Klamath naval air station, this week were promoted in rank.

Marie J. Rotondo was advanced from the rank of lieutenant, junior grade, (NC), to that of lieutenant, senior grade, and Marcelle V. Lash from ensign to the rank of lieutenant, junior grade, (NC).

Lt. Rotondo is a resident of Providence, R. I., and reported to the Klamath naval air station last July from hospital duty in the South Pacific. Lt. (jg) Lash is a San Francisco, and prior to reporting to NAS, was at the naval hospital in Oakland, Calif. She arrived here December 20, 1944.

Juveniles Picked Up in Redding

Redding, Calif., city police picked up two Klamath Falls youngsters, 14 and 15-year-old boys, Saturday night and contacted County Juvenile Officer Harold Hendrickson, seeking disposition of the pair. Both boys were in a drunken condition at the time they were apprehended, Hendrickson was advised.

Arrangements have been made to send the 14-year-old boy back to Klamath Falls on the bus, the mother and stepfather of the other boy approving his going on to Oakland to join his father. Hendrickson said that Redding police could not learn where the two obtained their liquor.
