MONEY FLIES

TUSCALOOSA, Ala., March 14 (AP)—William Harris found a $25 war bond on his farm.

The bond had been issued to Ola Mae Burns of Meridan, Miss., and investigation showed it was blown from her home on February 12 when a tornado hit and demolished the house, which is 100 miles west of Tuscaloosa.

BULLDOG TENACITY

PHOENIX, Ariz., March 14 (AP) — A landlord, unable to move tenants from a home they had occupied 13 years, brought suit for possession for remodeling purposes.

Defeated in court, the landlord began dismantling the house. He removed plumbing, boarded up windows after removing the glass, and even took out a section of the roof, replacing it with canvas through which rain dripped. The tenants stayed on. He sued for possession for "demolition" purposes, won the case, and the tenants moved.

Now he's on trial on a charge of unlawfully evicting the occupants because, the prosecution asserts, he repaired and rented the dwelling to another tenant.

SWELL SURROUNDINGS

SPOKANE, Wash., March 14 (AP)—Mrs. Dudley Wilson wrote to Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Pettingill, Portland, Ore., asking assistance in finding a house in Portland. She received this answer:

"Dear Thelma: We have acres of land, some with a mountain, some with an ocean view and a number of recent vacancies. Of course, the more common type of housing is olive drab canvas.

"Or, if you prefer, we have a wide selection of foxholes with a lovely sky view. We do have some caves, but I doubt if you'd care for these since the occupants have to be forcibly removed by flame throwers."

The letter, signed "Homer," explained that Mrs. Wilson's letter through an error had been delivered to a Sgt. H. L. Pettengill, APO 244, care of postmaster, San Francisco.

The sergeant is on a Pacific island.

CHICAGO, March 14 (AP) — Mrs. Joseph De Vitto went to the income tax office with her return in her purse—and a song in her heart.

PLEDGE CARDS SET TO AID SALVAGE

More specific information on pledge cards for the current county-wide salvage drive was forthcoming today from Paul Lee, central salvage committee chairman.

Assemblies are now being held in county schools, first to eighth grades, inclusive, Lee stated, in which students are given salvage pledge cards, stating that as a volunteer salvage worker he or she will cooperate with the school and salvage committee in the saving and collecting of critical salvage as long as the need exists.

The pledge is signed by the student and one parent and the student worker then receives a salvage button, Lee declared.

The drive on tin cans began throughout the county Monday and they will be collected during the week in outlying and suburban areas. A city-wide pick-up will be staged Sunday, March 18, he said, and all Klamath county residents are urged to prepare their tin cans for collection immediately.

This vital salvage material may also be brought to the main salvage depot at 532 Market at any time and it will be taken care of at once.

Land to Aid Veterans, Conserve Forests

ASTORIA, March 14 (AP) — A 640-acre tract of land in Clatsop county is going to help war veterans and at the same time carry out forest conservation plans.

The court gave the local post of the Veterans of Foreign Wars use of the land for 10 years, to assist its annual Christmas tree sale. At the same time, the post agreed to protect forest wealth by replanting areas partially denuded by the Christmas tree harvest.

The post also may develop the land for recreational purposes, for use by the Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, 4-H clubs and other youth organizations and for summer camping.

MANY CARPENTERS NOT WORKING NOW

Many carpenters affiliated with the Carpenters union, AF of L, in Klamath Falls are not working at the present time, according to C. D. Long, business representative of the union here.

The reason for this lay-off was explained by Long as due to the fact that no contracts have been let as yet on the proposed housing project here. The carpenters are in between jobs now, Long stated, and this would be an excellent time for Klamath residents to have necessary repairs to their home or for housing construction.

People interested in repairs or construction were asked to contact Long at his office in the Labor Temple.
