

Marine Weds in Portland

Lutheran church in Portland, Oregon was the scene of a wedding on March 5, when Mrs. C. McCarty, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Allen McCarty of Los Angeles became the bride of PFC Keith D. MacDougal, USMC, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry K. Miller of Portland.

The bride was given in marriage by S. E. Adkins, and wore a white marquisette and lace gown with finger tip veil. She carried a white prayer book and a shower of bride's roses. The groom was in a suit of honor, and wore a yellow dress of taffeta and net with a nosegay of pink flowers. Charles Neberling Jr. was the best man.

Mrs. MacDougal will remain in Portland at the home of the bride's parents after he returns to duty at the Marine Barracks at Klamath Falls.

Soroptimists

Members of the Soroptimist club have traveled far, in many cases, and when they can be persuaded to relate their experiences, stay-at-home members have an appreciative audience to share the enjoyment of their travels. Mrs. Ruth Adams has recently returned from a trip to Mexico, and the story of her trip started with the airplane landing in Los Angeles. Landing in Mexico City, she made many trips from there, visiting the cathedral at Texco, as well as many other churches for which Mexico is famous.

She told of seeing a bull fight, and races at a beautifully landscaped race track, and of many trainloads of pulque brought into Mexico City every day.

Mrs. Adams' descriptions of the palace of Maximilian and the appearance of this couple in Mexican history. Flowers everywhere in the city and on the canal, formed a background for the picture of Mexico City, a winter scene for tourists.

The Soroptimist club meets on Wednesday at 12:15 at the hotel.

Saturday Party

The USO center on Main street will be the scene of a Saturday party on Saturday, March 17, at 7:30 p. m. Various types of entertainment will be the feature of the evening, which will be highlighted by dancing and the singing of old-fashioned Irish songs. Refreshments will be served buffet style.

All service men and women are cordially invited to attend, and service couples are particularly welcome. The club is beautifully decorated with green shamrock and clay pipes, and each guest will be presented with a shamrock to wear in honor of the beloved saint of the Green Isle.

Decorations for the affair are being handled by Marjory Bonney, Betty Champagne, Isabel and Mary Lou Sexton. Mrs. John Hudson, Pat Hudson and Mrs. Ayres are in charge of refreshments.

WDA Meeting

A business meeting of the Winema Daughters of America is held in the parish hall on Sunday, March 12, at 8 p. m. After Raymond Beard was elected and gave an interesting talk on the origin and observance of St. Patrick's day. Plans were also made for the initiation to be held Sunday, April 1. Following the meeting, refreshments were served by Mildred Smith and Kathleen Ma-

Pythian Sisters

Winema temple, Pythian Sisters met in regular session on Friday evening, March 9, at the library club rooms. Three candidates were initiated at this time, and 30 members were present. Refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. John Fugie, Mrs. Jack Elliott and Mrs. Lillian Hayden.

The next temple meeting will be held on April 13 at 8 p. m. All visiting Sisters are welcome.

Baby Shower

A baby shower was held on Tuesday, March 13, at the home of Mrs. W. G. Ely on Nevada, for Mrs. Homer Caseman and her baby daughter, Barbara Dawn. Many beautiful gifts were received, and refreshments were served to Mrs. C. O. Dryden, Mrs. Ernest McGoran, Mrs. Frank Wever, Mrs. Davis Snider, Mrs. Lee Ezell, Mrs. Stanley Pieser, Mrs. Stanley Soran, Mrs. Vincent Herlihy, Mrs. H. B. Largent, Mrs. Oscar Schupp, Mrs. G. Hewitt and Mrs. Dickey Weed.

Twins' Birthday

Byron and Ronald Tarr, twin sons of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tarr of Weyerhaeuser, observed their thirteenth birthday anniversary on Thursday, March 15. Guests were invited to dinner that evening with games played later. Places at the table were laid for David and Denny Todd, Johnny Bishop, Tommy Zinn and Clifford LaForge and the honor guests.

Golf Season

Plans for the opening of the ladies' golf season are being made for April 6, 1945. Mrs. Laddie Solikirk will serve luncheon buffet style, after which cards will be enjoyed by the ladies and their guests.

WHITE CALLA LILIES and stock were arranged before the fireplace, when Carmen Stockstill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Stockstill, became the bride of William Young, AMM 3-c, USN, in a ceremony which took place at the home of the bride's parents on Division street. The groom was previously attached to the Klamath naval air station.

Carmen Stockstill Is Bride Saturday

On Saturday evening, March 10, Carmen Stockstill, attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Stockstill, became the bride of William Young, AMM 3-c, USN, at a ceremony which took place at the home of the bride's parents on 915 Division street. The young couple exchanged vows before the fireplace, which was banked with white calla lilies and stock, and the Reverend Howard F. Hutchins of the First Christian church officiated.

For her wedding, the bride chose a tailored suit of fern green with brown accessories, and a corsage of gardenias and rosebuds was pinned to her shoulder. Christine Demetras was maid of honor and wore a gold-colored suit with black accessories, and a corsage of Tallman roses. George Hossecker, AMM 2-c, USN, stood as best man for the groom.

Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. Vernon Kuykendall sang a wedding hymn, "O Perfect Love," accompanied by Orpha Hudson at the piano. Miss Hudson also played the traditional wedding marches.

A reception was held later, with an arrangement of white carnations as the centerpiece for the table. The newlyweds cut their beautiful white cake which was topped with the figure of a navy man and his bride.

Mr. and Mrs. Young left Sunday morning for Atlanta, Georgia where they plan to visit his family for several days. From there they will proceed to Minneapolis, Minnesota, where the groom is to report for further training. Mr. Young was formerly attached to the Klamath naval air station.

Roosevelt PTA

On Tuesday afternoon, March 20, the Roosevelt PTA will meet in the school auditorium at 2:30 o'clock. An interesting program is arranged to include songs by the fifth and sixth grades, a playlet on health by the fourth grade, and to highlight the afternoon, the school's winner of the Adler music contest will play.

Plans for the one day conference in Ashland on April 17 will be made, and a nominating committee elected, along with other important business.

Mrs. Otto Ellis and a group of fourth grade mothers will serve tea in the cafeteria. Children may play in the girls' gymnasium during the meeting. Mrs. Everett Vanderpool and her Girl Scout troupe being in charge. A cordial invitation is given to all those interested as well as regular members.

Layette Shower

The home of Mrs. Harvey Martin was the scene of a layette shower on Monday evening, March 5, for her sister-in-law, Mrs. Willard Nelson, with Mrs. Mabel Vinco as co-hostess. Pinochle and bridge were played during the evening, with Fern Kennett high and Alice Oberg low in bridge, and Carrie Lowther high and Marcella Garrick low in pinochle.

Guests bidden to the affair included Neva Neal, Phyllis Larson, Lottie Massey, Dorothy Freemyer, Marcella Garrick, Esther Vinco, Marguerite Gillison, Fern Short, Monte Farnsworth, Margaret Wirth, Fern Kennett, Florence Nelson, Carrie Lowther, Mary Garrison, Ora Smith, Alice Oberg, Ethel Olson, Dorothy Koberg and Marian Mayfield.

Baby Shower

A baby shower was held on Tuesday, March 13, at the home of Mrs. W. G. Ely on Nevada, for Mrs. Homer Caseman and her baby daughter, Barbara Dawn. Many beautiful gifts were received, and refreshments were served to Mrs. C. O. Dryden, Mrs. Ernest McGoran, Mrs. Frank Wever, Mrs. Davis Snider, Mrs. Lee Ezell, Mrs. Stanley Pieser, Mrs. Stanley Soran, Mrs. Vincent Herlihy, Mrs. H. B. Largent, Mrs. Oscar Schupp, Mrs. G. Hewitt and Mrs. Dickey Weed.

Twins' Birthday

Byron and Ronald Tarr, twin sons of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tarr of Weyerhaeuser, observed their thirteenth birthday anniversary on Thursday, March 15. Guests were invited to dinner that evening with games played later. Places at the table were laid for David and Denny Todd, Johnny Bishop, Tommy Zinn and Clifford LaForge and the honor guests.

Golf Season

Plans for the opening of the ladies' golf season are being made for April 6, 1945. Mrs. Laddie Solikirk will serve luncheon buffet style, after which cards will be enjoyed by the ladies and their guests.

Betrothal of Pearl Jean Wilson

The betrothal of Pearl Jean Wilson has been made by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur R. Wilson of this city, to PFC Carl Hagel of the Marine Barracks. The ceremony will take place at the First Presbyterian church on April 14.

Society

By Joan Campbell

Annual Spring Tea Event of Wednesday

Fickle spring could not decide what to do about the weather on Wednesday, March 14, when the Sojourners held their annual spring tea at the Willard hotel. Snow flurries with a dash of hail vied with bright sunshine to create a typical spring day in Klamath Falls.

Despite the weather, more than seventy members and guests of Sojourners enjoyed the afternoon of cards and tea which followed. As a means of carrying out the theme of St. Patrick's day, the tea table was attractively decorated with a low bowl of green carnations and tall white candles.

Mrs. J. Miller Babcock and Mrs. W. A. Shannon were co-chairmen of the tea, and were assisted by Mrs. Dorothy Petty, Mrs. R. E. Oakes, Mrs. J. L. Mitchell and Mrs. W. R. Kershaw. President of the club, Mrs. Byron Friedman, and Mrs. A. J. Lambert, secretary, presided at the tea table.

Prizes were awarded to individual tables where corresponding numbers were drawn, and were received by Mrs. John Lynch, Mrs. W. D. Miller, Mrs. Matt Finnigan, Mrs. A. J. Lambert and Mrs. Stanley Miller. The lovely gifts which were awarded as prizes, were presented to the club by Sears Roebuck and company, Your Store, Art and Gift Shop, Spencer's, Murphey's Seed Store, Mrs. Stephen Kaspar and Sid Elliott.

Those who enjoyed the afternoon were Mrs. E. D. Hamacher, Mrs. Matt Finnigan, Mrs. Stanley Miller, Mrs. Harry Faus, Mrs. B. Sheldon, Mrs. Lyle Durrell, Mrs. R. McNabb, Mrs. R. G. Fisher, Mrs. William Hagelstein, Mrs. Dean H. Osborn, Mrs. R. B. Dubel, Mrs. Irving R. Lisbony, Mrs. C. C. Roberts, Mrs. R. H. McCormick, Mrs. R. E. Barrett, Mrs. Charles Wamstad, Mrs. Joe P. Casey, Mrs. A. O. Roenicke, Mrs. W. D. Miller, Mrs. Charles Rugh, Mrs. D. R. Vandenburg, Mrs. James Pinniger, Mrs. Raleigh Oakes, Mrs. Warren Bennet, Mrs. Junior Wagner, Mrs. Walter Brown, Mrs. Arthur W. Elliott, Mrs. John Hawkins, Mrs. C. A. Wright, Mrs. Jack Franey, Mrs. Robert Sprout, Mrs. F. A. Murphy, Mrs. Ben Gibson, Mrs. Lloyd Young, Mrs. Byron Friedman, Mrs. Andre J. Lambert, Mrs. Ernest J. Howell, Mrs. Terry McIntee, Mrs. Robert J. Brady, Mrs. Tony Molatore, Mrs. C. T. Wells, Mrs. Francis Manning, Mrs. Arthur Schupp, Mrs. Edward Raymond, Mrs. Carol Bruell, Mrs. Walter West, Mrs. L. E. Taylor, Mrs. K. R. Nelson, Mrs. E. L. Lavy, Mrs. W. F. Bruell, Mrs. J. W. Merryman, Mrs. Roy D. Rakestraw, Mrs. H. A. Hagman, Mrs. Elmer H. Balsiger, Mrs. G. C. Lorenz, Mrs. N. J. Whitworth, Mrs. Jerry Clays Jr., Mrs. John S. Lynch Jr., Mrs. Grace Kershaw, Mrs. Marvin Thomas, Mrs. B. L. Hardenbrook, Mrs. J. L. Mitchell, Mrs. W. R. Petty, Mrs. J. Miller Babcock, Mrs. S. T. Kaspar, Mrs. E. B. Larkin, Mrs. W. A. Creswell, Mrs. A. M. Hatton, Mrs. J. E. Jenkins and Mrs. J. F. Moore.

Drama Group Well Received

The members of the Klamath Falls Woman's Library club thoroughly enjoyed the one-act play, "The Exchange," a delightful phantasy presented for their pleasure last Monday afternoon by the drama group of the Klamath county chapter of the American Association of University Women.

Mrs. B. B. Blomquist of the Klamath Union high school drama department, coached the players. "The Exchange" was given in the Little Theatre off Main Street.

Work of the players was particularly finished as several of this group have appeared frequently in AAUW productions. The lighting was fine and the costuming excellent.

Cakes Given

The USO was the locale for the birthday celebration of six-year-old Donald Alt and his aunt, Corporal Ann Mehling of the Wacs, when Donald and his mother, Mrs. E. N. Alt, brought two beautifully decorated birthday cakes with green candles to the USO center on Saturday night, for the pleasure of the service men and women. Donald blew out the candles on both cakes, and assisted by his mother, he served them from the snack bar to over 30 marines, sailors and soldiers.

Wedding Date Set April Fourteenth

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur R. Wilson have announced the engagement and forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Pearl Jean, to PFC Carl Hagel, United States Marine Corps reserve. The wedding will take place Saturday afternoon, April 14, in the First Presbyterian church.

Miss Wilson is a prominent member of the younger set in Klamath Falls where she has lived her entire life. She attended the University of Oregon from where she was graduated in 1941. Her major was social sciences. Miss Wilson was affiliated with Alpha Delta Pi sorority.

PFC Carl Hagel is stationed at the Marine Barracks and has been heard here frequently as featured soloist at bond shows and other civic functions. He enlisted in the Marine Corps three years ago. Mr. Hagel and his bride will make their home in Klamath Falls. His home town is St. Paul, Minnesota.

Scout Party

Brownie troop 27 of Roosevelt school held its regular meeting at the Scout house on Leroy street on Thursday afternoon, March 15. Mrs. Vanderpool selected a group of girls from her troop to present a short skit entitled, "Why Girls Want to be Scouts" for the entertainment of the Brownies, in celebration of the 33rd birthday of scouting.

The girls led by Mrs. Vanderpool also gave the Girl Scout ceremony, to which the Brownies responded with their regular ceremony.

A feat of acrobatics was presented by Donna Jacobs and Joyce Lamb, after which refreshments, which were furnished by Carol Jean Elliott and Kathleen McIntee, were served to the group. Refreshments included two large birthday cakes and ice cream, as well as toasted marshmallows.

Wedding Date Set April Fourteenth

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur R. Wilson have announced the engagement and forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Pearl Jean, to PFC Carl Hagel, United States Marine Corps reserve. The wedding will take place Saturday afternoon, April 14, in the First Presbyterian church.

Miss Wilson is a prominent member of the younger set in Klamath Falls where she has lived her entire life. She attended the University of Oregon from where she was graduated in 1941. Her major was social sciences. Miss Wilson was affiliated with Alpha Delta Pi sorority.

PFC Carl Hagel is stationed at the Marine Barracks and has been heard here frequently as featured soloist at bond shows and other civic functions. He enlisted in the Marine Corps three years ago. Mr. Hagel and his bride will make their home in Klamath Falls. His home town is St. Paul, Minnesota.

MARRIED AT THE HOME of her parents was Helen Kathryn Grumbles, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy H. Grumbles of Melrose street, who became the bride of S-Sgt. Raymond N. Kitzel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kitzel of Ferndale, Washington, in a ceremony which was performed on the afternoon of Friday March 9. Mrs. Kitzel has been active in many organizations in Klamath Falls.

Simple Ceremony Read Here Friday

In a four o'clock ceremony which was performed on Friday, March 9, Helen Kathryn Grumbles, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy H. Grumbles of 1830 Melrose, became the bride of S/Sgt. Raymond N. Kitzel, U. S. army air corps, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kitzel of Ferndale, Washington.

The ceremony, which took place at the home of the bride's parents, was performed before the fireplace, decorated with white stock, pink and white carnations and ferns and tall white tapers.

Preceding the double ring ceremony, which was read by the Reverend Victor Phillips of the First Methodist church, Mrs. Winnifred Gillen sang "Always" and "Because," accompanied by Mrs. Gene Gross.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a wedding gown of traditional white satin, with a high round neckline and long sleeves pinned at the wrist. She wore a single strand of pearls, which was a gift from the groom. Her veil was fingertip length, and she carried a bouquet of pink carnations centered with white gardenias.

Elsie Kurnick was the maid of honor, and she chose a full length dress of blue satin and net. Her bouquet was an arrangement of pink carnations. Best man was Mr. Fred Kitzel, father of the groom.

For the wedding, the mother of the bride wore a deep rose-colored dress, and the groom's mother was attired in a dress of sky blue. Both wore corsages of rosebuds and gardenias.

Following the reception, the young couple left immediately for a wedding trip to Laguna Beach, California. For her going away costume, the bride chose a rose-colored suit, with an aqua topcoat and brown accessories. A corsage of gardenias and rosebuds was pinned to her shoulder.

Mrs. Kitzel graduated from Klamath Union high school, and later attended Oregon State college at Corvallis. She is an active member of several local organizations, including the Business and Professional Women's club and the Kappa chapter of Beta Sigma Phi.

The groom, a former resident of Bellingham and Ferndale, Washington, and later of Klamath Falls, enlisted in the army air corps in January of 1942, and has spent the past two-and-one-half years in India. He is to report to Santa Monica, California the latter part of March.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kitzel and Emma Louise, parents and sister of the groom, arrived in Klamath Falls last week in order to attend the wedding. They have returned to their home in Ferndale, Washington, after spending the past week here.

Scout Party

Brownie troop 27 of Roosevelt school held its regular meeting at the Scout house on Leroy street on Thursday afternoon, March 15. Mrs. Vanderpool selected a group of girls from her troop to present a short skit entitled, "Why Girls Want to be Scouts" for the entertainment of the Brownies, in celebration of the 33rd birthday of scouting.

The girls led by Mrs. Vanderpool also gave the Girl Scout ceremony, to which the Brownies responded with their regular ceremony.

A feat of acrobatics was presented by Donna Jacobs and Joyce Lamb, after which refreshments, which were furnished by Carol Jean Elliott and Kathleen McIntee, were served to the group. Refreshments included two large birthday cakes and ice cream, as well as toasted marshmallows.

Officers' Dinner

A no-hostess dinner, in honor of Mrs. Edna Stanley, grand guardian of Job's Daughters for the state of Oregon, at the Pelican cafe. Those attending the dinner were Mrs. Phyllis Poole, past grand guardian; Mrs. Nita West, grand junior custodian; Mrs. Helen Listoe, Patricia Benoit, honored queen; Mrs. Ethel Humble, guardian; Mrs. Blanche Marks, guardian secretary; Mrs. Mildred Prothers, guardian treasurer; Mrs. Ralph Benoit, Mrs. Frances Sawple and Mrs. Mary Adams.

Following the dinner, they adjourned to the Masonic temple where a class of five girls were initiated in Job's Daughters, including Marcella Rand, Jeanette Ringstad, Shirley Hutchinson, Shirley Jane Dawson and Jean Rae Oldenburg.

Refreshments of cake and punch were served after the meeting, which included a very instructive talk by the grand guardian, Mrs. Edna Stanley.

Annual Ball

Delta Lewis was chosen queen of the Green-and-Gold ball to be given at the Reames Golf and Country club on Wednesday, March 21. The dance will be semi-formal and will be held from 8 o'clock to 11:45. The ball is an annual affair sponsored by the Mutual Improvement association of the young people's organization.

Birthday Dance

The American Legion auxiliary is giving a birthday party for the Legion on Tuesday evening, March 20. The cocktail hour will begin at 7:30, and dancing may be enjoyed at 9:30. All Legionnaires and their wives are cordially invited to attend.

Parties Honor Couple

Mrs. J. N. Brocktrup and Mrs. Margaret Solie entertained at the home of Mrs. Brocktrup on Lookout street with a bride's shower for Helen Grumbles on March 8. Many lovely gifts were presented to the guest of honor after which refreshments were served by the hostesses.

Those invited to the affair included Mrs. Fred Kitzel and Emma Louise Kitzel of Ferndale, Washington, Mrs. Ann Dalcour, Mrs. Harry Thrasher, Mrs. Caroline Peterson, Mrs. Frank Subject, Elsie Kurnick, Mrs. Ann Soule, Mrs. Hattie Thrasher, Mrs. Paul Hilton, Mrs. George Black, Mrs. R. H. Grumbles, Mrs. Mary Drazil, Mrs. Al Rider, Mrs. Robert Monet, Mrs. Ray Gibson, the guest of honor and the hostesses.

Helen Grumbles and S/Sgt. Raymond N. Kitzel, whose marriage was an event of March 9 were the honor guests at a party given for them by Mrs. Harry Huddart and Mrs. Gerald Gwyn on the evening of March 7. The affair was given at the home of Mrs. Huddart, and several employees of the Great Northern railroad were invited.

Refreshments were served and gifts were later opened by the couple.

The guest list included Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kitzel and Emma Louise Kitzel, Mr. and Mrs. Roy H. Grumbles, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Sanders, Charlie Watters, Warren Cronon, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Sechler, Mrs. Hallet, Mary Jo Hallet, Mr. and Mrs. William Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Gwyn, Joy and Graydon Gwyn, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Huddart and Bonnie Huddart.

Officers' Dinner

A no-hostess dinner, in honor of Mrs. Edna Stanley, grand guardian of Job's Daughters for the state of Oregon, at the Pelican cafe. Those attending the dinner were Mrs. Phyllis Poole, past grand guardian; Mrs. Nita West, grand junior custodian; Mrs. Helen Listoe, Patricia Benoit, honored queen; Mrs. Ethel Humble, guardian; Mrs. Blanche Marks, guardian secretary; Mrs. Mildred Prothers, guardian treasurer; Mrs. Ralph Benoit, Mrs. Frances Sawple and Mrs. Mary Adams.

Following the dinner, they adjourned to the Masonic temple where a class of five girls were initiated in Job's Daughters, including Marcella Rand, Jeanette Ringstad, Shirley Hutchinson, Shirley Jane Dawson and Jean Rae Oldenburg.

Refreshments of cake and punch were served after the meeting, which included a very instructive talk by the grand guardian, Mrs. Edna Stanley.

Annual Ball

Delta Lewis was chosen queen of the Green-and-Gold ball to be given at the Reames Golf and Country club on Wednesday, March 21. The dance will be semi-formal and will be held from 8 o'clock to 11:45. The ball is an annual affair sponsored by the Mutual Improvement association of the young people's organization.

Birthday Dance

The American Legion auxiliary is giving a birthday party for the Legion on Tuesday evening, March 20. The cocktail hour will begin at 7:30, and dancing may be enjoyed at 9:30. All Legionnaires and their wives are cordially invited to attend.

IN A CEREMONY which took place in Reno, Nevada on Friday, March 2, Lt. Genevieve Albers, daughter of Mrs. Margaret V. Albers of Earling, Iowa, became the bride of Captain Mitchell Paige, winner of the Congressional Medal of Honor, and assistant provost marshal at the Marine Barracks. Mrs. Paige is the chief nurse for the navy medical department of the Barracks.

—Kennell-Ellis.