

Chapter Celebrates 46th Anniversary

A charter was granted to Aloha chapter number 61, Order Eastern Star, of Klamath Falls on March 13, 1899. The name "Aloha" was chosen by Jennie Reames, the first worthy matron and only worthy grand matron from this chapter.

The 46th anniversary was an outstanding event of Tuesday, March 13, in the Masonic hall, where about 100 members and guests enjoyed the delightful program and social hour which followed.

Magazines Wanted

The USO wishes to thank the many citizens of Klamath Falls who have so willingly and conscientiously donated their used magazines to the center for the purpose of furnishing reading material to the hospital trains which pass through Klamath Falls. Since the exact time a hospital train will pass through the city is not known, all magazines which are brought into the local USO are taken to the train depot at regular intervals to insure an adequate supply for each train.

This very worth-while project requires thousands of magazines to be distributed to the patients. The USO asks all Klamathites to cooperate by bringing all of their used magazines to the center. Picture magazines are particularly desirable as they do not require concentrated reading.

Friendship Club

Katherine Williams of 2040 Darrow was hostess to the Friendly circle Thursday, March 15, and she was assisted by Lydia McDonald. Luncheon was served at 1 p. m. to Ipha Brown, Esther Adkison, Lizzie Little, Grace Beck, Kathryn Billings, Fannie Goddard, Arthur Stone and one guest, Mrs. Butler, and work continued on the quilts being made for the Servicemen's dormitory on Garden.

The next meeting will be a potluck luncheon in the Community hall, at which time the quilts will be tied ready for use in the dormitory. Everyone interested in this project is invited to attend. Red Cross sewing will be taken up again as the next club project, and the club has subscribed $5.00 for the drive.

Rebekah Lodge

On Thursday evening, March 15, Prosperity Rebekah lodge met in regular session in the IOOF hall at 8 o'clock. In the absence of Nina Currier, noble grand, Alta Clark, vice-grand, presided, and Marguerite Smith acted as vice-grand.

At the close of the business meeting, Marguerite Smith entertained with an old fashioned Virginia reel. Those who took part were Margaret Bieden, Stella Deyden, Adah Willits, Helen Blanks, Marguerite Smith, Nellie Wattenburg and Jennie Burn, ladies, and taking the gentlemen's parts were Frances Mansell, Eva Richardson, Lulu Helfer, Katherine Hogue, Nina Beck, Lina Moteschenbacher and Ora Sweet. Each one participating was presented with a gift.

A guest was Mrs. Duffey of Plummer, Idaho. Refreshments were served by a committee consisting of Irene Markhan and Belle Tompkins, and presiding at the table were Lina Moteschenbacher and Martha Baker.

NURSES RECEIVE PROMOTIONS HERE

BPW Group Plans Interesting Meet

Members of the transportation committee, under the chairmanship of Hattie Evans, have arranged an exceptionally interesting program for Monday evening's dinner meeting of the Business and Professional Women's club March 19 at the Willard hotel.

Mrs. Donald McKay, president of the Klamath chapter, League of Women Voters, will be the guest speaker and will outline and explain the Dumbarton Oaks peace plan. Mrs. McKay has talked before several organizations on this topic, leaving her listeners with a much more comprehensive idea of the plan. Inasmuch as interest is now mounting in the United Nations conference to be held in San Francisco in April, the program committee felt that an intelligent understanding of the Dumbarton Oaks plan will be helpful in following the conference proceedings.

VFW Auxiliary

Mrs. H. J. McGilvray, president of the auxiliary to the Veterans of Foreign Wars, presided over the meeting held on Thursday evening, March 15, in the library clubroom, and thirty-five attended. A letter from Grace Davis was read, thanking the lodge for $75 sent to the nursery home in Michigan, and also one from Charles Adams, director of the VFW national home at the same place, expressing appreciation for the linens sent to the home some time ago. The charter was draped for Jennie Ohman, national councilwoman administrator, who died in February.

A letter from Marie Dana, department president, told of the council meeting to be held in Portland on Saturday and Sunday of this week, with a banquet on Sunday evening. Mrs. John Mullins, district secretary and Mrs. A. A. Myers, department bannerbearer, are to attend this meeting.

Delegates to the state convention, if one is held, will be Mrs. Jake Brocktrup, Mrs. J. H. Carnahan, Mrs. R. O. Miller and Mrs. Henry La Barge.

Election of officers was held, and the following were duly elected: Mrs. Walter Thompson, president; Mrs. C. W. Henry, senior vice president; Mrs. Jake Brocktrup, junior vice president; Mrs. Henry La Barge, secretary; Mrs. John Mullins, treasurer; Mrs. Martin Jenkins, chaplain; Mrs. George Osborne, conductress; Mrs. William Barron, patriotic instructor; Mrs. Theresa Allesch, guard; Mrs. C. W. Henry, historian and publicity.

The new president will announce her committee appointments at the next meeting, April 5, and a joint installation of the post and auxiliary officers will be held at the last meeting on April 19.

Give to USO

Members of the Wednesday club were hostesses at the USO on Sunday, March 11. Many delicious pies and cakes were donated at this time, and team leaders were Mrs. E. B. Goeckner, Mrs. Donald F. McKay and Mrs. William B. Yates.

Members who served and brought cakes and pies were Mrs. E. B. Goeckner, Mrs. Dorman Schaeffer, Mrs. Otto Ellis, Mrs. Estin Kiger, Mrs. M. K. Lucas, Mrs. Eric Majors, Mrs. Charles Larkin, Mrs. Marble Cook, Mrs. Harold Palmer, Mrs. Donald F. McKay, Orpha Hudson, Mrs. Larry Fish, Mrs. S. R. Redkey, Mrs. Frank Bogatay, Mrs. L. W. Engstrom, Mr. and Mrs. James Wallinder, Mr. and Mrs. James Patterson, Mrs. William B. Yates, Mrs. A. J. Lambert, Terry McIntee, Mrs. E. J. Howell, Hazel Roundtree and Mrs. S. H. Snell.

Donations were also received from Mrs. Innis Roberts, Mrs. Victor Newman, Mrs. T. J. Orr Jr., Mrs. Maurice Kennedy, Mrs. Robert Sproat Sr., Mrs. Homer Ellis, Mrs. Glen Evans, Mrs. Harold Schaeffer, Mrs. Edward Kilever, Mrs. John Hawkins, Mrs. L. G. Logan, Mrs. E. P. Lee, Mrs. Lon Hunt, Mrs. E. L. Putnam, Mrs. P. H. Schroeder, Mrs. J. F. Clark and Mrs. John Schubert.

The next meeting of the Wednesday club will be on Wednesday, March 21, at the parish house of St. Paul's church. Mrs. Harry Mahan will review the book, "Anna and the King of Siam" for members and guests.

Social Club

A potluck luncheon and business meeting of the Rebekah social club was held Wednesday, March 14, at 1 p. m. in the IOOF hall. Stella Druden and Arloa Andrus were hostesses and the luncheon and table decorations were typically St. Patrick's. There was one guest, Mrs. James Fleming of Medford, a past noble grand of the Medford lodge.

The special award given at each meeting was received by Mrs. Walter Thompson, and the members then adjourned to the K. C. hall where they served home-made pies and coffee to members of the post.

Marry Here

Rosalie Thexton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Thexton, exchanged marriage vows with George McLean, U. S. navy, at a ceremony which was performed at the Klamath Revival center on the evening of Thursday, March 8, at 7 o'clock.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a tailored suit of navy blue with a corsage of gardenias and rosebuds. Mrs. M. R. Brownrigg, sister of the bride, was her only attendant, and Albert Thexton stood as best man for the groom. Mrs. Brownrigg also wore a navy blue suit, and her corsage was similar to that of the bride.

Guests included Mrs. W. S. Thexton, mother of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Corbell, Mrs. Ralph Thexton, Mrs. Rex Thexton and sons, Robert and Arnold.

Fifth Birthday

MALIN—Mr. and Mrs. John Freitag entertained recently with a surprise party at their home for their daughter, Joan, on her fifth birthday.

Sixteen guests enjoyed the games and refreshments, and the guest of honor was showered with many lovely gifts. A large birthday cake centered the refreshment table.

Those who were on hand to honor the five-year-old were Daria Suritski, Karen Miller, Mary Delores Meyers, Glen Steyskal, Jimmy Tofel, Leslie Meyers, Alex Suritski, Ronald Kalina, Gary Freitag, Mrs. Elzie Roberts and Mrs. Vac Kalina.

Spring Concert To Be Presented Here

A rare musical treat is in store for Klamath Falls residents when the annual spring concert is presented by the music department of Klamath Union high school on Thursday and Friday nights, March 22 and 23, of this coming week.

This is the first time that the concert has been arranged both nights and inasmuch as the auditorium has never been able to accommodate the hundreds who attend, this is welcome news to students of the music department, selling tickets for the concert, report they are experiencing no difficulty in disposing of the tickets.

This year's concert will consist of many interesting and novel numbers. The band will be heard in a descriptive fantasy based on the well known tune, "Stormy Weather," according to Andrew Loney Jr., director of music education. Another interesting number in the modern idiom will be the orchestra's rendition of Morton Gould's "Hillbilly."

Alyce Wells, popular high school soprano will appear with the band and Barbara Zinn, accompanist for the various music groups will play a modern concerto for piano with band accompaniment. Barbara's talents are well known to the music lovers of Klamath Falls as she has been the accompanist for small groups and soloists as well as the larger vocal groups.

For those who like their music in a heavier vein the band has prepared the tone painting "Sequoia" by La Gassey and the "First Suite in E Flat" by Gustav Holst. Both of these numbers are on the Class A national competition list for bands. The orchestra will play the overture to "The Barber of Seville," the orchestra's popular operatic music has been increased to include woodwinds, brasses and percussion.

Mrs. Jack Crawford has returned to her home on Lake shore drive following major surgery at Hillside hospital.

Mrs. Nell F. Black entertained informally at her home Thursday evening when she invited a small group to the Black dance on Portland street.

Happy Birthday!

It's the 33rd Anniversary

OF THE Girl Scouts AND THE Camp Fire Girls MARCH 12TH MARCH 17TH

Like their older sisters in the WACS and the WAVES, the Girl Scouts and the Camp Fire Girls are serving their country! They've volunteered and are saving money and materials to win the war; by buying Bonds . . . by collecting scrap . . . by helping the Red Cross . . . and by helping their busy mothers.

Hats off to these girls! This week we salute the Girl Scouts and Camp Fire Girls on their 33rd birthday.

Now, at the height of the war, with the American Red Cross expending six dollars every second to ease the lot of our men in service, let's all show the spirit of these Girl Scouts and Camp Fire Girls. The Red Cross Drive is on . . . it needs our financial support!
