Guild Officers

TULELAKE — Mrs. A. E. Ryckman, newly elected president of the guild of the Tulelake Community Presbyterian church, and her corps of associate officers, were installed at the March meeting of the guild in a colorful and impressive ceremony which was arranged by Mrs. Evangeline McNeill, who with her husband, Archie McNeill, is holding pre-Easter services here.

Installed with Mrs. Ryckman were Mrs. D. P. Reid, vice president; Mrs. Tom Newton, secretary, and Mrs. Earl D. Spry, treasurer. Each new officer was presented with a corsage made by Mrs. Merton Brown, with the flower tied with the colors of the Bible, including white, blue and purple.

Corsages were also presented to Mrs. H. T. Street, who is the retiring president after two years of service, and to Mrs. Hugh Bronson, wife of the pastor, the Reverend Hugh Bronson.

Carrying out the theme of St. Patrick's day, Mrs. Chester Stonecypher, in an Irish costume, gave a humorous dialect reading. Mrs. D. P. Reid gave an Irish poem and Mrs. McNeill, a native of Ireland, presented several musical selections on the vibraharp.

Mrs. Street and Mrs. J. E. Barkwell, who is retiring after many years as treasurer, and Mrs. Ira Ott, who retired as secretary, were honored at this time.

Members voted a $30 donation for the Red Cross and $10 to the Bernice Damian Presbyterian missionary day school at Trucas, New Mexico, for playground equipment.

Potluck Dinner

St. Patrick's day set the stage for the potluck dinner in the Community hall on Garden on Friday, March 9, when the Senior circle entertained members of the Junior circle and their families. Tables, napery, candles, and even the caps and aprons of the pretty young waitresses, carried out the theme, and a program of Irish songs, dances and stories followed the excellent dinner. Over sixty attended, each one being given an Irish name for the evening's duration.

Falconry was a favorite recreation of the aristocracy of the middle ages.

ARDYCE BROWN, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Merton J. Brown of Tulelake revealed her engagement to Sergeant Jack Fensler, US army air corps, at a lovely tea which was given at the home of her parents on Sunday, March 4. The announcement of the couple's betrothal is the culmination of a high school romance.

BAT IS FISHERMAN

The mastiff bat catches fish. It glides low over the water and scoops up small fish from the surface. If, by accident, it falls into the water, it can take to the air again, like a seaplane.

Cocoa and chocolate come from the tropical cacao tree.
