City Had Bad Breath—Yes, the old city of Corinth had up a stench. Sin was for it on every corner. In the olden temple above the city, thousands of lewd women gave themselves to shameful practice in the name of their religion. All in God's good time, the apostle Paul arrived in Corinth and gave out the message of Life. He spoke to him in the night of a vision, "Be not afraid, but speak, hold not thy peace, for have much people in this city who expect to save any out of this vile center as Corinth?" The Apostle gave out the message of Life and the Holy Spirit pressed it home. The Spirit threw the spotlight on the cross of Christ, and convinced them that at the cross their sins were blotted out. The Spirit also lighted up the empty tomb and Corinth was made to know that UP FROM THE DEAD CHRIST AROSE and that by the same mighty power, Christ shall raise back to life all who put trust in Him. Christ came from the grave and ascended back to glory, to give life and victory to all who put their trust in Him.

The men of Corinth were rich and wicked, and "The wicked will be turned into hell." SHOW YOUR BIBLE. Psalm 17. In choosing Christ, you have more than riches, for He alone can save from wrath and He alone can keep you satisfied.—G. N. T. This space paid for by Oregon-Washington people. News of Engagement Revealed at Tea

TULELAKE—The engagement of Ardye Brown, attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Brown of Tulelake, to Sergeant Jack Fensler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clark Fensler, was revealed to fifty relatives and friends of the two families, at a lovely tea which was given at the home of the bride-elect's parents on Sunday, March 4.

Delicate pink contrasted effectively with pale blue in the table decorations, and lovely floral bouquets of pink carnations and blue Dutch iris were arranged in the dining room where tea was served to the guests. The betrothal of the young couple was revealed by the names "Ardye and Jack" in gold lettering on paper napkins, and a novel feature added to the announcement was the simulated diamond wedding band which formed the napkin ring.

Tall pink and blue tapers in crystal candle holders were placed at either end of the lace-covered tea table. Golden daffodils were arranged throughout the living room, and the pink and blue color scheme was carried out in the refreshments.

Mrs. Fensler and Mrs. Roy Campbell, aunt of the bride-elect, poured during the early part of the afternoon, and they were later replaced by Bette Campbell and Mrs. Ward McCulley.

The engagement was the culmination of a romance which began when Miss Brown was a student in the Tulelake high school, graduating with the class of 1940, two years after her fiancé, Sergeant Fensler, who enlisted in the army before Pearl Harbor. Following her graduation, the bride-elect was employed in San Francisco. No immediate plans have been made for the wedding, as the young couple is waiting for further military orders. Sergeant Fensler is now on duty as a member of the ground forces at the Victorville army air field.

Glide Marine Awarded Silver Star Medal

PORTLAND, March 17 (AP)—Marine 1st Lt. James R. Currier, Glide, was awarded a Silver Star medal for conspicuous gallantry in action on Peleliu, the marine corps announced today.

He was cited for remaining at his artillery observation post in an exposed position, despite fact all other members of his control team were put out of action by heavy enemy fire, and directed devastating and effective fire on enemy positions.

A 1942 graduate of the University of Washington, he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph L. Currier.
