

Peace Plan Is Outlined In Talk

Experts framed a plan. We as citizens are challenged to understand it, discuss it—and do something about it." With the above in mind, Mrs. Donald McKay, president of the Klamath League of Women Voters, outlined the four-day Dumbarton Oaks peace plan to members of the Business Professional Women's club at the dinner meeting held Monday, March 19, at the Willard hotel.

Senior Circle

The March meeting of the Senior Circle of the Congregational Community church was held on Friday, March 16, at the home of the president, March Eckstein of 2234 Garden. Miss Eckstein was assisted by Mrs. E. G. Matthews, and St. Patrick's Day refreshments were served at 1:30 to Mrs. Grace Revell, Mrs. L. J. Brink, Mrs. M. Dexter, Mrs. E. L. Mitchell, Mrs. Kate Flynn, Mrs. L. E. Henry, Mrs. Van Doozer, Mrs. John Marin, Mrs. H. S. Stone, Mrs. S. R. Berry and Mrs. J. J. Pex.

Miss Eckstein conducted the devotions and the business meeting, and Mrs. E. L. Mitchell then gave a most interesting account of the life and trials of the early Congregational missionaries to the islands of the Pacific, and of their more recent accomplishments up to the time of the war. What is left of all their work remains to be learned after the islands are again open to missionaries.

Double Shower

LANGELL VALLEY—A double stork shower was given on Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Reginald Thomas in honor of Mrs. Bob Dalton and Mrs. Herb Jones, co-hostesses for the affair were Mrs. Thomas, Mrs. Mike Dearborn, Mrs. Bill Burnett and Mrs. Lester Leavitt.

Luncheon

As a courtesy to Mrs. Antone Schiro of Salem, formerly of this city, Mrs. Robert A. Stephens was hostess at a one o'clock luncheon Wednesday afternoon at her home on Ward.

Covers were laid for Mrs. Schiro, Mrs. E. Reinhart, Mrs. Chester Hamaker, Mrs. C. Page, Mrs. A. Vahl, Mrs. W. Holcomb and the hostess.

Mrs. Schiro, who has also been visiting in Sacramento, spent Wednesday here, leaving that evening for Canby, Calif., where her mother resides.

First Party

MALIN — Friends and relatives of little Bobby Dean King gathered at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dean King of Malin, to honor him on his birthday on Friday, March 9.

The guests included Mrs. Elsie Durkee and Tony Durkee of San Francisco, aunt and cousin of the guest of honor, Mrs. Mary Brothnek, his great-grandmother, Mrs. Tony Victorine, his grandmother, Mary Victorine, Delila Brothnek, Martha Brothnek, Dickie and Sammy Carlton, Helen Carlton and Margie Monfore.

The youngsters played games, while the adults enjoyed an afternoon of cards, after which cake and ice cream were served to the group.

Past Matrons

Mrs. Charles J. Martin, Mrs. Charlotte Martin, Mrs. Elizabeth Norris and Mrs. Flora Held will be hostesses on Friday afternoon, March 30, at the Masonic temple, when members of A 1 o h a Past Matron club meet for their regular monthly one o'clock luncheon and afternoon of cards.

Mrs. A. B. Epperson, club president, will preside at the brief business meeting following the luncheon.

E. Hambrick, city recreation officer, made a very earnest appeal to the PTA members for help at the teenage girls' on Thursday and Saturday nights at the Salvation Army from six to nine o'clock. It is a worthy and much needed project, and it is hoped that good response to the plea will be given.

A committee to nominate officers for the coming year was elected at this time and includes Kenneth Klahn, chairman, led by Mrs. Everett Dennis, Mr. Atterbury, principle.

group voted to purchase a reference books with the they previously set aside for a monograph, also agreeing to any money necessary. It announced that a cooked sale will be held some time as a project this year.

one-day conference which take the place of the state convention, was announced to be held in Ashland on April 17. All such meetings are to be held in various parts of the county.

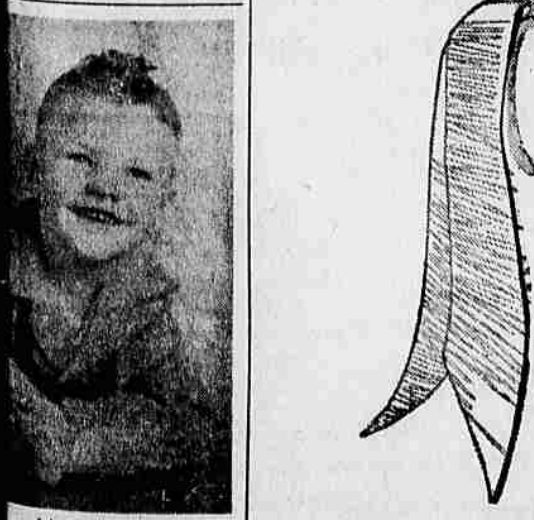

fourth grade mothers were present for the tea which followed, with Mrs. Otto Ellis in charge, with Mrs. Irving C. and Mrs. William Stolk.

committee to nominate officers for the coming year was elected at this time and includes Kenneth Klahn, chairman, led by Mrs. Everett Dennis, Mr. Atterbury, principle.

group voted to purchase a reference books with the they previously set aside for a monograph, also agreeing to any money necessary. It announced that a cooked sale will be held some time as a project this year.

one-day conference which take the place of the state convention, was announced to be held in Ashland on April 17. All such meetings are to be held in various parts of the county.

fourth grade mothers were present for the tea which followed, with Mrs. Otto Ellis in charge, with Mrs. Irving C. and Mrs. William Stolk.

WAYNE Peery, five-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Merle Peery of 1813 Ivory, celebrated his birthday on Monday, March 9.—Kennell-Ellis.

VISIT IN KLAMATH FALLS Chief Machinist's Mate and Mrs. R. R. Fox, the former Elaine Carden, have returned to San Francisco after spending several days at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Carden of 2033 Madison in Klamath Falls. Mr. Fox is on leave from the Philippines area.

Luncheon
As a courtesy to Mrs. Antone Schiro of Salem, formerly of this city, Mrs. Robert A. Stephens was hostess at a one o'clock luncheon Wednesday afternoon at her home on Ward.

Conger PTA
The Joseph Conger PTA held an election of officers at their meeting on March 21. Those who will serve are Mrs. E. G. Childers, president; Mrs. W. K. Charlesworth, vice-president; Mrs. F. F. Kelsay, secretary and Mrs. Glen Brumble, treasurer.

First Party
MALIN — Friends and relatives of little Bobby Dean King gathered at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dean King of Malin, to honor him on his birthday on Friday, March 9.

Initiation
MERRILL—Maxine Cole, Estrid Geraghty, Velton Haskins and Lou Drager were initiated into the Merrill Rebekah lodge at the last meeting. Members voted to donate $10 for Easter gifts for the Oddfellows' home at Portland, and Mrs. Hazel McNeill was appointed Good of the Order chairman for another year.

Wed Recently

In a ceremony which took place on Wednesday, March 7, Wilma Mae Hall became the bride of PFC Charles H. Stansburg Jr., U. S. Marine Corps. The Reverend David B. Anderson officiated at the ceremony which took place at five o'clock at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William N. Hall, of the Arcade hotel.

For her wedding, the bride chose an aqua gown trimmed in gold, with matching accessories. Both the bride and groom were unattended.

Guests who were invited to the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. William N. Hall, Mr. and Mrs. George Blanas and Catherine, Mr. and Mrs. William Hall Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wheeler, Hattie Hall, Betty Hall, Mrs. Jewell Huston, Mrs. Ruth Paup, PFC Frank L. Reed, USMC, Sgt. Wayne McDorman, USMC, PFC Albert L. Ward, USMC, Mrs. Betty Lundgren and Robert Klime.

Luncheon Given

LANGELL VALLEY — Mrs. Mary Dearborn of Bonanza entertained with a one o'clock luncheon on March 12, in honor of Mrs. Nellie Dean of Portland. Guests included Mrs. Dean, Mrs. Owen Pepple, Mrs. Harry Frazier, Mrs. Mary Smith, Mrs. Lester Leavitt and Mrs. Dearborn, the hostess.

The ladies enjoyed a social afternoon, and sewing followed the luncheon.

Party and Dance

In observance of the twenty-sixth birthday of the American Legion, the local post, number 8, held a gala party and dance at the Legion hall on Tuesday evening, March 20. The cocktail hour from eight to nine was followed by an auction sale of many "hard to get" items, such as candy, gum and cigarettes.

The dance floor held a capacity crowd, with music furnished

Party Given

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Newcom of 3820 Altamont drive entertained on March 8 with a birthday party honoring Corporal Don Ellsworth of the Marine Barracks. A delightful evening of music was enjoyed by the guests, and refreshments, including a birthday cake was served to Helen Fox, Amy Ellamore, Jeannine and Carolyn Newcom, Corporal Martin Franzkowiak, Sergeant John Vohley, Sergeant Robert McAvay and the host and hostess.

Daughters Meet

A group of Catholic Daughters met at the home of Mrs. Dick Miller Sr. on Thursday, March 15. After a potluck luncheon, the afternoon was spent in sewing on Red Cross laprobes, and a great deal was accomplished.

Those attending the meeting were Mrs. Francis Manning and Willie, Mrs. Mike Lavenik, Mrs. R. B. Grey, Mrs. Stanley Pleser, and Judy, Mrs. Louise Vaughn, Mrs. W. G. Ely, Mrs. Joe Mahoney and the hostess, Mrs. Miller.

Classified Ads Bring Results.

Mrs. Martha McCollum was hostess last week to members of TNT Bridge club. Two new members of the group are Mrs. Sheldon Brumbaugh and Mrs. Emil E. Albrecht. Mrs. McCollum used the St. Patrick's theme in favors.

The legal designation of the wife or widow of a baronet or knight is "dame" in England.

Mademoiselle from U.S.A.

HARVEY BERIN . . . one of our brightest designing stars . . . his style masterpieces will play an important role in making New York shine more brightly than Paris!

HARVEY BERIN ORIGINAL

Sketched from our stock.
The SUIT : 42.00
BLOUSE to match . 10.95

COSTUME SUIT with broad shoulder lines, softly tailored to give you the new uncluttered look. Navy Blue trimmed with Latin Beauty Red. White blouse tailored to match.

LaPointe's

Buoyant Sailors

A new look! See it first in these abbreviated boaters: :::
buoyant bits of felt and straw a-sailing in from the Knox de Luxe® collection to greet spring. Left, Voyageur® VI, $18.95; right, Voyageur® VII, $18.95.

IF THE LABEL IS

THE HAT IS RIGHT

