three months. The young man, S/Sgt. Roy W. Steele died February 26 aboard a ship en route back from the Pacific war zone to the United States. Sgt. Steele, who had visited Mr. and Mrs. Steele at their home here a number of times, had been overseas since May, 1942, and had served in Australia, New Guinea and Leyte. In a letter to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Steele, Portland, written early in February, he stated that he was due to return home at once, under the rotation program. Apparently he had started the long trek home when stricken with pneumonia and his parents were advised of his death when the boat docked at San Francisco. He is survived, in addition to his parents, by his widow, Esther Steele and his 2 1/2-year-old son, William Wesley, whom he had never seen. A brother, George W. Steele, Seattle, also survives. Funeral services were held March 26 at Portland.
